MAXIMUMROCKNROLL

TOP 100 testas

and tapes

1982

ANTISOCIAL- SCREW U (TOTAL ANARCHY, LP)
ATTIAL THE STOCKERORRE- ANAY DAY (OI & LP)
ATTIAL THE STOCKERORRE- ANAY DAY (OI & LP)
ATTIAL THE STOCKERORRE- ANAY DAY (OI & LP)
ARREY SANCARS- MY OLD MAN'S A PATSO (LP)
ARREY SANCARS- MY OLD MAN'S A PATSO (LP)
ARREY SANCARS- MY OLD MAN'S A PATSO (LP)
ARREY SANCARS STREEMER (S)
BAD REALING- HOW CAN'A PHONG CHT (BAT LP) BASTER HOYS (BASTER BOYS (LP)
BACK FRAGE RISK AROVE (LP)
BATTALION OF SALWES- BO MORE LIES (STO LP)
CHASE- HOW LOSS IT FERM ATTOM (S)
CHASE- HOW HORSE PICKITUM STILL (LP)
CHOICAL- PRESUDENCE (RP)
CHOOLOGY OF CONVENENT - SKIDOTS IN (MO CORE TP)
DISTRIBURGE- STRUCTUM CHILDREN (RP)
DISCRARE- HORSE MY HOW (LP)
DISCRARE- HORSE MY HOW (LP)
DISCRARE- STRUCTUM CHILDREN (RP)
DISCRARE- FRANCH (RP)
DISCRARE- FROM HORSE (RP) DISCRARE- HORSE (RP

Number 4

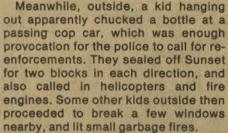

Jan-Feb '83

$1.00

INSIDE: Punk in Canada, South Africa, NJ, Indiana, Texas, Calif., NYC, Oregon, Boston, Philly BYO, Chicago, Arizona, Wisconsin, Montana, North Carolina, England, Plus Quincy, False Prophets, Code of Honor, Crucifucks, Poison Idea, Crucifix, DOA, Toxic Reasons, US History, Reagan Youth, Neos, Nihilism, Feederz, and lots more!

Stop The Presses!Late Bulletin! RIOT ON SUNSET STRIP!!!

1/8/83-Hollywood Police swept down on and tried to close yet another punk gig in L.A., and hundreds of punks fought back. The show, which featured TSOL, SO-CIAL DISTORTION, REDDKROSS, TOXIC REASONS, and LOS OLVI-DOS, was proceeding as planned and was incredibly orderly, until the police arrived. Mike Vraney, TSOL's manager, reported that the door opened at 7 PM, and the first band was playing by 7:30. By 10 PM, there were 2000 people inside of the SIR Rehersal Studio on Sunset Blvd., with another 200-300 outside, TSOL went onstage at 11:15, with the show scheduled to end at 12:15.

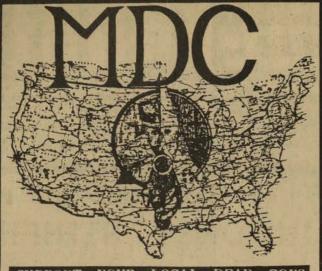

At this point, a staff person from the production company, got on stage and told the crowd the police would be entering the building, and the house lights went on. Jack, the singer of TSOL, probably remembering the famous "Elks Lodge Massacre", told the crowd "...to stick together. If a cop comes at you, hit the floor and go limp. Everybody sit down." Amazingly, 2000 people did sit down, while TSOL: played on through 3 numbers, but during, "Abolish Government", the power was pulled, and Jack then said, "Watch yourselves, be careful, - let's go get 'em."

One half of the crowd,, 1000 people, were able to get out of the building, before it was sealed with the other half inside. Those who did get out were met by club-wielding police, most of whom just came on shift, and seemed overly energetic and eager to "enforce the law". There were many injuries and incidents in the melee that followed, which included the burning of the police barricades, as well as 6 arrests. Finally the other half of the crowd was able to escape, and met the same response, which lasted until 1:30 AM.

Police reports, which the media used as the basis for their coverage, stated that it was a case of "punks throwing rocks and bottles at each other", which prompted their intervention. Eyewitness accounts belie that, indicating that the show was extremely orderly, by any standards, and that it was just another case of police harassment of punks in Southern California.

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL DEAD COPS

NEW ALBUM BY MILLIONS OF DEAD COPS - Re-mixed by Klaus Floride & East Bay Ray, mastered by Geza X & Eric Wolf.

BONER RECORDS
PRESENTS

"LANDSHARK" 8 SONG EP OPERATING SPEED - 45 MPH

$3.00 POSTPAID TO

2146 BONER STREET BERKELEY, CA 94702

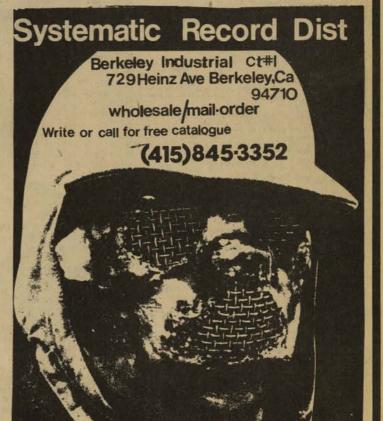

SOCIAL UNREST

New Pressing Now Available On Red Vinyl

MAXIMUM ROCKNED WANTS

YOU

BADIO STATIONS: MAXIMUM R'N'R RADIO SHOWS ARE NOW AVAILABLE FOR RADIO STATIONS ONLY. CASSET-TES ARE $5 PER SHOW. CONTACT RUTH SCHWARTZ AT P.O. BOX 988-S.F., CA 94101-(415)621-430? DAYS

BANDS: WE WANT YOUR RECORDS, CASSETTES (DEMOS OR GARAGE) FOR BOTH AIRPLAY AND MAG REVIEW.WE ALSO WANT PHOTOS FOR USE IN THE MAGAZINE.

WRITERS: SCENE REPORTS-IF YOU'RE ON TOP OF THE HAPS IN YOUR AREA, SEND US A REPORT, ALONG WI-TH PHOTOS & FLIERS. PLEASE KEEP 'EM SUCCINCT. NEXT DEADLINE IS FEBRUARY 15.

ADVERTISERS: NEXT ISSUE IS OUT MARCH 15, AND WE NEED AD COPY BY MAR. 1, BUT NEED TO KNOW IN ADVANCE WHAT SIZE TO RESERVE. AD RATES ARE:

NEW AD SIZES 1/2(7½"x5")$54 1/6(2½"x5")$25 2/3(5"x10")$75 1/3(2½"x10)$40 lpg(7½x10")$90

SUBSCRIBERS: U.S.A.-6 ISSUES FOR $5 CANADA-6 ISSUES FOR $7 EUROPE-6 ISSUES FOR $12

DISTRIBUTION: ROUGH TRADE, SYSTEMATIC, FAULTY, IMPORTANT, LAST GASP, GREENWORLD, DUTCH E. IND.

MAXIMUM ROCK'N'ROLL P.O. BOX 288 "RRKELEY, CA 94701

SURVEY FOR WOMEN

We have tried to present these questions as objectively and free of attack as possible. These are problems which we feel affect women, possibly as a result of pressured directed towards them either by our culture or by ourselves Please try to make your answers as honest to yourself as you can.

Are you happy with your self-image? Is your contentment or lack of it due to the male dominated society in which we live or do you feel that you are independently responsible?

2. Have you ever been afraid to play an instrument? Have you ever been intimidated to join a band?

3. Are you afraid to slam? Why or why not?

4. would you like to be more involved in the music scene?

5. Do you think there is such a thing as "women's music"?

6. Are you aware of any sexual oppression in punk music and/or your scene? Do you feel any pressure to go along with stereotypical female behavior?

 Do you feel pressures from within your punk scene to behave, dress, or act in a stereotypical "female punk" manner!

Bo not feel that you must enswer all of these questions, all we want are your opinions as a woman. There are many more relaced issues that we have not addressed, please include anything that you want to say. We would like to print your response, as well as any others we receive, in Maxisum Rock W Roll agazine.

Please address all correspondence to:

Survey c/o Maximum Rock N Roll Thank you,

Anna Chapman Erika Lenberge Lynn Mandel Ruch Schwartz

SURVEY FOR MAG BUYERS

Alot of people have written and complained that their local store runs out of our mag before they can snap one up. we would like your help in remedying this. Please fill this out, and mail it back to us. If necessary, ask someone who works there for information we need. Thanks 1) What store do you buy Max RnR at? Give city and address if possible.

2) How many copies of any given issue do they

3)How quickly do they sell out of it?

4)Do they re-order it, are they asked to by any distributor(what distributor), or do the just wait for the next issue to come out?

THE SHIT WORKERS JEFF BALE KTM M PRITER MONTCOMERY JERRY BOOTH BRUCE LYNN M NOISEBUSH ANNA CHAPMAN JEROD POOR ERIC H ERIKA LISA SMITH CLIFF VARNELL RIAN EDGE TIMY

XIXIMUM ROCK NROLL

MILWAUKEE, WI 750 AM MON. 10FM GREENSBORO, NC 90.9 FM SAT. 3FM COLLEGE PARK, MD 88.1 FM SUN. 7PM WALLA WALLA, WA 90.5 FM CALL STATION LAWRENCE, KS 91 FM TUES. 11FM MIR HOPS WMUC KWCW K.JHK STONEYBROOK, NY 90.1 FM MON. 5PM GRINELL, IA 88.5 FM MON. 9PM KDIC KUGS BELLINGHAM, WA 89.3 FM WED. 11PM FRITCHBERG, MA THURS. 4PM FRC CHICAGO, IL 88.3 FM SUN. 1AM YZRD ORONO, ME 91.9 FM FRI. 9PM EASTON, PA 90.5 FM MON. MIDN. PHILA., PA 91.7 FM TUES. MIDN. MER W.JRH MKTNI ARCATA, CA 91.5 FM SAT. 10PM BERKELEY, CA 94.1 FM TUES. 9PM KHSU KPFA OF FRESNO. CA 88.1 FM TUES. 9FM

HB WATERVILLE, ME 91.5 FM TUES. 1:
LISTEMERS-OUR SHOW WAS TO BE ON PA DUNCAN'S WFMU PROGRAM, BUT HE WAS SUSP-ENDED FOR 30 DAYS-WILL LET YOU KNOW NEXT

CON TRIBUTORS KEN B MARY CURLEY GERRARD COSLEY CARLY CLIFF CARPENTER ERIC COPE DAVE MDC DAVE 34 ERROL ENGELBRECHT RAY FARRELL GLEN FRIEDMAN LYLE HYSEN PAUL MAHERN RAW HEARTLESS COURTNEY MICHELLE

TED MALY MURRY ERICH MURLLER PUSHEAD ROBIN HOWIE SALMON BILLY SINATRA DAVE SCOTT RUTH SCHWARTZ GEORGE SENKO STEVE SPINALI JOHN SILVA RON THATCHER TIM TONOOKA TOMMY PETER URBAN VALE

ATH-22. S.C.

12/6/82- For the last week-and-a-half, ARTICLES OF FAITH from Chicago have been staying at our house, and we've been staying up to 4,5,6 or 7 in the A.M. every night, discussing and arguing about politics, music, life, death, genetics, socialization, LSD, God, dreams—you name it. It's been great, stimulating, and exhausting. The reason I bring this up, though, is to comment on something that comes up from time to time; a question or accusation put to us by some readers: "You guys are too serious!"

Well, granted, we do have a serious side; perhaps the one that we put public most frequently. But, as demonsrated during these all-nighters, there is more to our approach than straight politics. I think those discussions reaffirmed in myself the other areas of interest I have --- outerspace, inner space, the absurdity of life, etc., and the basic need to keep everything in perspective, maintaining a balance between committment whatever one decides is important to fight for, and a knowledge that you can't really know enough to be 100% sure of anything you We spent a lot of time arguing about materialism (that through scientific means eventually all can be understood changed), and another perspective questioning how we can 'know' anything when we are just little ants clinging to a piece of rock, hurtling through 'what'? -Infinity! What is this universe, somehow emerging from a big bang, spreading out forever into what, and then maybe shrinking back, and what the fuck are black holes anyway? It couldn't have been dreamed up by anyone less than a total psycho. And, as any intrepid innerspace explorer can tell you, that as vast and complex and infinite as outerspace is, so it is inside our consciousness. And speaking of dreams, how do we know that any of this is real, that we aren't just experiencing our whole life in just the 5-7 minutes of a dream (that's how long most dreams are). A dream, within a dream, etc.

Anyway, given the total irrationality of this 'life' we lead, the fine balance of 'sanity' between the madness of contemplating the infinity of the Universe and where it comes from and is going, and the schizophrenic reality of the human inner mind, it's no wonder one can't be very self- righteous in declaring anything to be true. Yet, if one can accept the stupidity and sadistic nature of this world we are born (?) into, is it possible to go forward at all, with any self-assurance, in advocating change, or is that just a ridiculous exercise of ego, as the cynics would have us believe?

My conclusion, which I share with you because, in a sense, it explains where this magazine is coming from, is that -- 0.K., we can't know shit about these gigantic questions, but given that here's where are, then one either commits suicide (honest), or tries to make it through life with personal integrity, trying to make this little lota a satisfying situation (also honest), until death (whatever that is) plays its little sick joke on us. So basicly, yes, we can be serious about what we commit ourselves to but we can also maintain a perspective of the absurdity of it all. There's a quote from Joseph Heller's Catch-22 that is appropriate The main characther, Yossarian, is talking to a highly God-fearing person on the subject of God: "And don't tell me God works in mysterious ways. There's nothing so mysterious about it. He's not working at all. He's playing. Or else He's forgotten all He's playing. about us. That's the kind of God you people talk about -- a country bumpkin, a clumsy, bungling, brainless, conceited, uncouth hayseed. Good God, how much reverence can you have for a Supreme Being who finds it necessary to include such phenomenon as phlegm and tooth decay in His divine system of creation? What in the world was running through that warped, evil, scatological mind of His when He robbed old people of the power to control their howel movements? Why in the world did He ever create pain?" She answers: "Pain is a warning to us of bodily danger."
Yossarian counters, "And who created the dangers? Oh, he was really being charitable to us when he gave us pain. Why couldn't He have used a doorhell instead to notify us, or one of his celestial choirs? Or a system of blue-and-red neon tubes right in the middle of each person's forehead? Any jukebox manufacturer worth his salt could have done Then you consider the opportunity and power he had to really do a job, and then look at the stupid, ugly little mess He made of it instead, His incompetence is almost staggering. It's obvious he never met a nayroll.

Yossarian's acquaintance cautions him to hush up or God might punish him for talking like that. Yossarian says, "Isn't He punishing me enough? You know, we mustn't let Him get away scot free for all the sorrow He's caused us. Someday I'm gonna make him pay. I know when. On Judgement Day. Yes, that's the day 1'11 be close enough to reach out and grab that litte yokel by His neck and—"

So, to those of you who feel we only care about politics and are too serious, I hope you can see that we do indead think about lots of other things, and that we do indeed have a sense of humor and perspective on our serious side. It may be a pretty warped and sick sense of humor, but it is there. By the way, if you've never read Catch-22, you are missing a real treat. For me, it sums up all the sickness and studidity of life and mankind, and yet concludes on an optimistic note of hope and freedom. Sneaky book review, buh? ----Tim Y.

KEEP 'EM COMIN

Dear Haximum Rockers:

Hev! I dip ver mag a lot ... Thank for the plug in the "fanzine" section; except that hasicly THISTED IMAGE isn't a fanzine...Actually we're just a traditional newspaper, with traditional news features...except that most of us working for the paper are nut cases.

Anyways MAYTMU" R & R is preat... It's nice to know there are minds out there like Tim and Jeff... I feel sort of a spiritual, political kinship with the whole paper even tho I'm not a "punk". The only proups I've ever really identified with are cartoonists and bike messengers.

I think "punk" is mostly a response to Vietnam... The DEAN KETTEDY'S really drive that home...it's like after Vietnam, the sickness of America is so fucking obvious that you have to be a complete moron not to see it... Which is probably why most sec it... Whi Americans don't.

"Guillry of Peins White" ... face it, we're ALL a tuncha hopeless fuct-uns...we dress up in our hip images and proselytize for this social cause play our mind games and art media trips...but this reality/dream is so hopelessly soiled that there's nothing left to do but have a sick laff as we slowly drown in this sea of shit called U.S. of A.... Poetic bastard, ain't I?...I'm sorry Tin Y. I have a bard time seeing "nunk" as this preat social movement, raising consciousness, etc... Ceezer! If anything it's the last nail driven in the long-dead cornse of Jesus the Superstar Christ... Christianity's been one long death trip, and bey punk is the grand Sure, punt is better than mindless disco, or such-up-to-the-sports-jock-hero bullshit But hev, what isn't?

I dunno'... I like the rebellion, I like the new styles, I like a lotta' the music ('specially the sick humor of the D.F.'s. Too drunk to swin" "All!" maybe if we scream and chant and thrash loud enough around the tribal campfire we can exorcize some of the demons, but bey, to paraphrase Cinsberg: "the world is a mountain of shit that has to be moved with a teaspoon...if it's to be moved

Ya know, the whole underground movement has always attracted the brightest minds in than Pruce Jenner...except Erik. Well they America, yet look at what a lame buncha! give bim more money and he comes back. I fuckheads WE are ... Dirk was right when he from within; MDC vs. PAP PRAINS, let's blow up Nowie's car, English punks are trendies, the CLASH Sold out...our common hatred of Pengan unifies us only in the sense that we what I'm doing. And you'll probably keep on momentarily forget how much we bateeach keeping on. And the world sure isn't poing

Peace and Love....
(maybe someday I'll feel it) -/ce Packwords

GIVE EM ENOUGH ROPE!!

Dear Max Pot & Rot Fick you. I know you think we really suck. Bad reviews aren't intimidating cuz I really don't give a fuck.

Po you hear me, max piece of shit! I really don't give a fuck how you review our tape.

Me're mother, hrother, father, sister, grandmother fucking proud of it. I am Mikel

Podolak the singer/song writer for SACRED ORDER. And no, I am not a nazi. After all, I only have one swastika arm hand. Every person or group of people that I hate, I have a reason for doing so. And now I have someone new to dislike, you the self-righteous critic. I will not change my attitude because someone thinks it sucks. Poesn't anybody have a sense of humor anymore? Couldn't you see the humor in any of our songs? Take "Bongs" for instance. Do you actually think I grahhed some broad's hair and threw her down because I was blitzed on bones of rainbow done? Wow man, where's the carb? Oh, oh I've got a boner, I've gotta fuck. I mean really. Now about a thousand mikes. A thousand mikes is a measurement in L.S.P. potentcy. L.S.D., ...will take your life. I've quit taking that awful shit and I'm just saying "Friends he careful". "She Wills Me" is a parody of love songs. "The Pight to be Poor and Radical" is just one of many songs that I have expressing my hate for Mon-1-tary. the monetary system. Bitch" parodys girls for being girls or not. Yes, I hate leshians (and the male type of homo). Because I've had personal bad experiences with that sick side of society. Like I had a cirlfriend that turned fucking lesho under the influence of alcohol right in fucking front of me in a tavern. My brain went snap. Well, there's only one song left to explain. "Erik Estrada", there's a man who everyone should spit on. The motherfucker pets paid millions of fucking dollars for being a piss poor actor and then he quits the series demanding a larger salary-then they pot Rruce Jenner. Well, anything's better mean it's cool man, to knock someone, isn't it? I knock Frik, or lesbians, or other shit and you knock me and we knock the world and the world knocks us. And on and on. So like, fuck you. I'm going to keep on doing what I'm doing. And you'll probably keep on to change because "we" want it to.

Still, if you puys weren't out there, there So like, let's have a laugh and a bong and act wouldn't be many people I'd feel like writing like the self- righteous animals that we are. like the self- righteous animals that we are.

And also lets have some mothers-milk-Miller heer. Love on val Mikel Podolak SACRED OPDER
P.S.-I'm 23 years old. And in the past 11 years of drug and alcohol consumption I've lost a lot of brains. But obviously I'm still smarter than the whole fucking punk > people have abused that by making crank calls. Please respect the value this kind of informatcan have for us all, or we will not be able, in good conscience, to print numbers in the future. Thanks, Tim Y

THIS CARTOON IS FROM THE GREAT

REAGAN DEATH ZINE 114 W GILMAN #14 MADISON, WI 53707

Hi, I got a copy of your premier issue and congratulate you on the energies and thoughts put into it. I find the layout of it pretty put into it. I find the layout of it pretty good and conducive to reading from beginning ober to end. (i.e. sequence of articles, balance hetween ads and articles.) Some zines and 'papers are laid out in a way where you tend to read certain articles rather than reading like a book where you go from the start until you reach the end. That way you don't miss

> The articles were written in ways that made them come across as what they were - individual observations and opinions. didn't seem to be much preaching or attempts at persuasion involved. As well you included a good range of opinions in different ways columns, reviews, interviews etc.

> I got my copy when MDC played in town a while ago. They seemed to have gotten a favorable response from those that attended which was as is usual in Ottawa - quite a cross-section. New music in town draws people ranging from those wearing mohawks to those in cardigan sweaters. Although this sometimes results in quite a clash of styles and opinions. I think the mix is beneficial 'cause we can learn from each other. In the small amount of time I talked with the hand the next day, I gaianed a favorable opinion of them. They were nice people who were willing to learn and propress because they liked what they were doing. ----Derrick Dean, Ottawa, Canada.

Dear Tim Y:

I listen to your show pretty often. I'n 39 of the generation that was put "on the road" by Bob Dylan's "Positively 4th Street" and by Bob Dylan's "Positively 4" Desolation Row" around 1965.

I tuned in on the end of your show last week...Tuesday, 16th November. Don't know the name of your speaker (ed: Frank Discussion), but he was saying how putting a brick thru the window improves your sex life. Which I wanna point out was discovered away back in the distant past by our ancestors who discovered it was more fun to screw your neighbor's wife and kill him and take anything you need from them.

It's no different than ordinary garden variety rape and war. Your speaker thinks he's among the elite discoverers of this reality, but the military discovered it a long time ago and made it a solid institution.

Wev - I'm no different. In my heart - I mean my heart can so that wav. It's just that I'm not poing that wav in life. I'd rather stand with the freedom and independence of men and women and of little people and windows that aren't throwing bricks at me.

But I'm not into rape, if you know what I

That's it. I just wanted to say this. It took a while to figure out what he said meant to me.

Pet Wright

PAT-IF YOU HATED THAT 'DISCUSSION', WAIT'LL YOU READ ABOUT FEEDERZ !!!!

On the road, again. The phone numbers we printed last issue of promoters, bands, and clubs in our 'How To Tour' article and the Wes Robinson interview are there to help the scene grow. Some tisement caupht my eye. There was a stupid picture of this chick "punking-out, man" with leopard skin clothes, wrap-around glasses, spray coloring in her hair...need I say more? Under the picture read: "THE PUNK PUZZLE: HOW CAN IT BE SOLVED? Watch Eye on L.A. at 7:30 to find out...special guest Serena Dank."

Since I love comedys, I made sure I watched this one! The "Chips" episode on hardcore punkers was the funniest thing on TRV since The Partridge Family. About a year ago, on anther stations, they had a report similar to this one on "Eye On LA", but we didn't have the beautiful Ms. Dank then. Anyhow, I watched it. It was more than funny. It was studid. Shit like this being pounded into the minds of mindless viewers, I guess the only thing I can do is laugh. A few days later, a friend told me to watch "Square Pers", another pussy sitcome, 'cos DFVO was on. That can I say? I just LOVE to lauph. On this show, I watched the characters dieing their bair purple and talking about slamming, punk rock, new wave, etc. etc. Last night, my mother was watching "9 to5", another strome, (sit and come) HAMAMA, and I overheard one of the actresses on the show Talking about her daughter who just pot blue Later, I flipped through the evening paper and saw an ad for the film "Class of 1984". The next day at practice we were talking about the episode of tonight's "Cuincey", yes, you puessed it, those terrible, fucked up punkrockers. PUNK IS ON TV MOPE THAN I SEF IT LIVE THESE DAYS!!! Looks like the media has FULL ON prabbed ahold of punk rock, and is writing it into EVERY SCRIPT. You can't watch "Facts of Life" even, without punk being mentioned. NTW "AVF!! Punk/New Vave. Punk Wave. The media is eating it up. Cameras are filming me at shows. On the cover of fucking U.S. magazine it reads: "FAPAH'S COMP PUNK!" DAMM. Next on channel 4: The Serena Bank Talk Show, this week's guests: meet the nice guys in PLACK FLAG, learn the latest stage dive, find out the latest in nice new wave fashion, and Party Crash and Sid Victous. FUCKING TV. AMMOMNUITHEFEEFLIPIII CTUDIO THEY'RECONNACETMETHEY 'PEGGMMAGETME!!! -dave

FUN IN THE SUN

A week ago I was kidnapped by the Jewish Defense Association and forced to watch "Victory at Entebbe", "Colda", and "Exodus" constantly on a Beta-Max for 4 solid days. I was able to escape when my captors went out to mail some letter hombs. However, when I read the article in the October 14 issue of Rolling Stone (#380) by Peter Hellman about traveling with the Israeli's in Lebanon, something clicked in my head, and I lost control of myself, writing the following letter. No doubt, the point of view expressed below is a result of my previous conditioning while Pear Tim, I was a captive.

(Ed. note: The following letter is a sarcastic response to a ridiculously pro-Israeli article that appeared in ROLLING STONE #380 (Oct.14.1982).)

Dear Rolling Stone:

I must congratulate Peter Hellman and commend you for printing the article "Diary of an Unholy War". Finally, an article that takes the Israeli point of view. It helped wours me realize what it's like to fight a war where it seems that you're fighting an entire SAP GREY That part about the Palestinian kids people. in the house who were armed with weapons and killed by an Israeli soldier reminded me of all those Viet Nam War stories I have read about our boys having to kill 10-year-old Viet Congs.

Evidently Mr. Hellman and your magazine I flipped through the T' Guide and an adver- realize the importance of Israel to our interests in maintaining a stable Middle East- Hello God, can you imagine all those wild Palestinian kids roiting and rehelling out of control— it would wreak havoc on our friends, like King Hussein, or the new President of Lebanon, Amin Cemayel, the leader of the distinguished Phalange. Just look at all the problems of our own we had dealing with riots like in Miami. The hard facts are that thanks to Israel and the time-ly assistance of the Marines and the French and Italian troops, a large part of the PLO has been cleared out from Lebanon and deposited in various camps under the watchful eyes of their host governments, at least the ones the Israelis didn't get. Just think about what would have happened had PLO soldiers been in Sabra and Chatilla refugee camps when Israel helped the Phalange clean up the place. How many good Christian hoys would have died then?

> Like John Wayne said about the Indians, they were selfishly trying to keep the land for themselves instead of letting the whites have themselves instead of letting the writes have it. (By the way, General Sharon reminds me a little of good old Duke, don't you think?). Weren't the Puritans persecuted, weren't the Boers in South Africa persecuted, and didn't they have a right to a place of their own? why should the Israelis have to put up with these terrorists complaining about how they were driven out of their homeland. Hey its the survival of the fittest you know.

> Let's put it real simple, I was looking at all the photos in the articles, and they had this one of some Israeli soldiers hitting the heaches when they came back home, and in my hook, anyone who surfs is right by me. Heck, you know Charlie didn't surf neither.

of like to see more of these 'soldier's middleman, lets all help each other! We are point of view' articles, maybe do one called sending letters like this one to other hands "Traveling with the Phalange through across the country, including Canada. Palestinian refugee camps", or "My adventures Die Kreuzen/Dan & Mel in My Lai", or even "Fun in El Salvador" or 634 U. Wisconsin Ave. #21 "I'wa ure that they will be Milw., NI 53203 as uplifting to others as this article has been to me.

> Yours Truly, Virus X, Chicago

TYPO TXEE

You and I will probably never see eye to eye on just about anything, as our previous "encounters" will testify. Powever, I just want to tell you how much I appreciated your note to me and the hand. While I took no offense in the first place (it was obviously an error and not a chean shot at us' your anolony settles any doubts that could ever arise from it. Actually I thought it VAS pretty furny - it only happens to us it seems.

Iron Cross

P.S. If you want another example of typo errors, check out our lyric sheet for the 45 - ah my God it's embarrassing... BANDS-WARNING!!!!!

It has come to our attention that when hands tour thru Milwaukee the booking agent sets up a date thru a promotor known as n.H. Now P.H. makes a few calls, sets up a hall or har, a P.A. and an opening hand. This sounds good except he rips off people by charging too much at the door and rips off national hands as well as not paying the local bands. The money that he rips off from the bands and people he keeps for himself.

We (DIE KREUZEN) started using contracts that gave us a guarantee based on what D.H. said we would get paid. Now, D.H. didn't like this so now we never open for any hands in Milw. He is using a new hand SACRED ORDER as his "opening band" because they don't have a contract and don't ask for a guarantee.
SACRED ORDER recently opened for the MEAT D.H. We don't think this is fair to S.O. or any other bands that he might use for his own What palls me is why Palestinians can't any other hands that he might use for his own accept the fact that Israel took their land wealth. We would like to stop this before it fair and square-it's just tough titties, goes any further. goes any further.

> We (D.K. & S.O.) are now setting up our own shows with touring hands. We have access to a P.A., a hall or har, and can find a place for the hand to stay. We have done this for hands such as M.D.C., CRUCIFUCKS. TAR PARIES, HUSKER DU, ZERO BOYS, SURURBAN MUTILATION and other Midwest bands. We would like you to give us a call or write, and we will he more than happy to set up a gig, a place for the bands to stay, equipment (if you need is, let us know in advance) and we would make sure everyone gets paid. We would also take care of advertising, such as radio ads, posters and handbills.

> Please call or write as soon as possible and spread the word! We would like to stop thieves and unfair people. Avoid the

Dan(414)272-7108 Mel(414)277-7658

HUH???

DMRNR.

Fuck off. heh heh heh No Paysports! No Fuck off. heh heh No Paysports! No column, and instead of reading: IROY CPOSC, it pot printed: How GROSS. Here's their reply to our letter of apology:

Fuck off. heh heh heh No Paysports! No Pay Video Games (free)! No Military anywhere! 25c bus system! No Alcohol commercials on TV! No meat commercials on TV! No meat commercials on TV! Deregulate TV! No meat commercials on TV! Deregulate the telephone company! Peregulate the Electric Company! Free world contraceptives if you want them here! Vote anarchy! Legalize marijuana! Start making one world language! See what they are doing to people in mental institutions and old age homes. What is that shit not food? its habyloncum! Purge the court system! Anyhody who is spend-ing over 1 million dollars is a thief, probably, who moves efficiency, running fingers of feathers up and down your white blood cells. How many people have U.S. elected. Why can't children vote? Do something with medical industry, give Satan a break. God put him (her) in charge of earth and never told him (her). What does that sound like? Social consciousness uber alles. And how could I forget the school system?

> -Milwaukee Amy D.A.D. art Efficiency Brezhnev Lorre Theory of Intelligent Anarchy

Dan Dahlquist economics punk 1754 N. 73st Wauwatosa, WI 53213

LETTERS

LETTERS

LETTER

Dear Maximum Rocko Roll.

Dear national reconstitution of fact in recent issues. First, to Peter Urban in his column on Northern Trelandi no, it is not a religious war in the sense of a jihad, with fanatical armise on both sides 'fighting to the death for their belaist'. Fee, the two sides are guillings by their religious. The native Trian have experienced the Reformation and arealal Roman Catholics; the Scottish settlers came sail after the Reformation and arealal Presbyterian. Since the government of independent Ireland is pro-Catholic the settlers justifiably wish to remain with Britain. According to the 1974 census 31-45 of the population of Morthern Treland is Catholic 53-15. Its Potestant, Repeated referends on the subject of independence have said that the province visions to remain under the British Army-Time farmy was brought in to guall servors. "Hill occupied by the British Army-Time farmy was brought in to guall servors action by groups like the grovisional Jināl. a violent group condensed by the true Irish Republican Army, a major force in bringing about Southern Ireland's independence.

15h Reputation army; among the dependence.

Mould you have those Sottish settlers thrown out of the province? They settled in which the province of the U.S. If you argue for its you must also logically argue that control of the U.S. be returned to the Indians, minority here similar to the minority of true Irish in Northern Ireland.

aminority here similar to the minority of true Irish in Northern Treland.

Secondly, I must reply to Casey Beer's letter in issue I. The issue at stake is not Britain or Argentina, but the Falklands. The Falklanders themselves have the right to decide which country to belong to, or whether to become independent Again, a referendum stated that they wished for remain with Britain. Not surprising, for Argentina, not a 'small country' as stated lists population is 23,000,000 more than half of Britain's 41,000,000, is one of the most repellent, peressive, military fastistic dictatorships in the world, with its junta kept supplied with weapons by our government. The Argentine settlers may have been forcibility removed, out that's path history. It's unlikely that anyone could be found in Argentina now who would wish to live in that godforsaken place; any settlers would probably be formed there by Argentina's repressive government. The people to side with are not the Argentines or the British, but the Falklanders, who have chosen to enlist the aud of the British. Despite the occasional leak-in of propaganda as in these two cases. MSDR remains one of the best punk mags in the country. Its additoral policy of listing many and diverse opinions to be stated is admirable and, in my view, fucken hoss. Good work.

Max R & R:

Thank you so much for printing the interview with Dirksen. If I believed in required reading, I would require everybody who ever poes to a hardcore gir anywhere to read it. The points he brought out were vital. They were made especially effective after I read the interview, and then read the scene reports. The inevitable complaints from every town were the same: not many eies, nowhere to play, etc. I hope it is obvious to everyone that if you tear up a place, the manager/owner/promoter is not sonna invite you back. Rebellious youth should attack the suilty. The Kennedy's said it the best in that sone "Nazi Funks"..."trash a bank if you've pot real balls."

Of course one problem is that most of the hozos responsible for the damage are too stupid to read anyway, thus Dirk's words will he of no use to them. I believe a hir contribution can come from the peer pressure suppested in the article. Pon't be afraid to tell some jerk to cool it if you see him destroying property. Punk is no popularity PIDICULE contest. My motto, as a bardcore ris READ!!! "Make enemies but influence FROM NOW ON WE'RE STICKING TO TOK. promoter, was: people."

Crair Underworld

Eirmingham, Alabama

Jeff-

Say yr fine article on "Rockstaritis"- still don't you think that what we really need to hattle this sort of thing are more truly alternative promoters, more all-ages/no alcohol spaces and halls, more hands that share the same line of thinking as you do? Bands have to get away from relying on 'over-21' type hars for gigs + to make sure that even if they do get popular they won't end up playing overly hig halls + losing contact with the fans.

> Sincerely, Bobby D.

I agree with you completely on the need for hands to utilize honest promoters - a rare breed - and consciously attempt to play under-21 shows, but my focus was geared toward inspiring the fans to pressure bands and promoters into being community-oriented by threatening to hoycott fucked-up gigs. We do have the economic power to influence these things if we join together.

JEFF BALE

NEW WAVE SHOULDN'T BE RECORDED ON PUNK TAPE

A cassette tape is the perfect place to hide punk workmanship. Something you won't find in a Maxell tape. Because at Maxell we build cassettes to standards that are 60%

Because at Maxell we build cassettes to standards that are 60% higher than the industry calls for.
Unlike ordinary cassettes, Maxell tapes are made with special anti-jamming ribs to prevent sticking, stretching and tearing.
So ask for Maxell cassettes. And the next time you're recording new wave you won't get stuck with a punk tape.

29NOV82

IT'S WORTH IT.

TO: "AVINIM ROCK'N'ROLL THE OTHER DAY I PEAD A MAGAZINE AND IN ONE OF

IT'S PACES I FOUND THE ADVERTISEMENT I NICE FOLUS IN THE MAYOLL COPP. OF AMERICA.

CAN YOU PELIEVE THOSE ASSUIPES?

IT WOULD BE CREAT IF SOMEHOW WE COULD TELL OTHER PURY TO BOYCOT THOSE FUCKERS' PRODUCTS. THIS COMPANY MUST THINK WE HAVE NO BUYING POUER IN TODAY'S MARKET IF THEY PRINT SUCH BUILSHIT.

TELL IN NOT COING TO TAKE IT AND TO SHOW THEM MY DISPLEASURE I SEND THEM A LETTER OF WHICH I SEMP YOU A COPY.

PUNKS DON'T FIGHT ... UNITE!!!

Mick Scahino SACRAMENTO, CA.

TO: THE MAYELL COPP. OF AMERICA I DON'T KNOW THAT KIND OF AN IDIOT YOU PEOPLE HIRED TO DO YOUR ADVERTISING, BUT THANKS TO HIM OF HER OR TIME CUSTOMER.

THERE DO YOU THINK YOU CAN GET OFF BY PUTTING US PURTXY POWN?

I MANY FRIENDS IN THE MUSIC BUSINESS
THAT DO MUCH CASSETTE RECORDING AND YOU ARE GOING TO LOSE THEM ALL BECAUSE OF YOUR PREJUDICIAL STAND AGAINST PUNKS.

YOUR "NEW HAVE SHOULDDN'T SE RECORDED ON PUNK TAPF" LOCO IS THE MOST SIMPLEMINDED TAPE" LOCO IS THE MOST SIMPLEMENDED PRINCIPLOUS BUNCH OF BULLSHIT I HAVE EVER

FUCK YOU ASSHOLES!

GET OUT YOUR PENS

Dear Max Rock 'n' Roll:

Hello there, How are you?? I'm in a real good mood. The other day I went to see MDC and the DEAD KENNEDY's and I thought they were excellent. Especially 'DC who I thought were really Fucking Excellent. they stayed at my mate's house and we had a real good lauph. Talking about USA and Brit. We talked all night and they seemed like a real nice bunch of guys. They played a real excellent gig the best songs. I HATE WORK, VIOLENT REDNECKS, JOHN WAYNE WAS A NAZI, COPPORATE DEATHBURGER, BUSINESS AND PARADE, and DEAD COPS. Dave went mad. His acitions on stage were real good. I suppose you like thought it was real good, especially the letters and the record reviews. The other day I got No. 2 off MDC and I thought the HUSKER DU and REJECTORS interviews were excellent. Your 'zine is really informative and I enjoy reading every minute of it. How long does it take to do??? How many people contribute to it??? Does it cost much to get printed?? We were thinking of doing one. But it costs so much to get printed. Anyway, I'll tell some-thing about Birkenhead which is the part of England I live in. Most of the punks are in-to the old type punk bands, i.e. PISTOLS, CLASH, BUZZCOCKS, and UK SUBS, etc.

Well anyway I het you're dying to find out how I got your 'zine. So I'll tell you. I got it off Len Morgan, Idle Thoughts Delta, It's No. 1, the one with the B.C. Canada. and MINOR THREAT.

There's 4 of us who are into newer punk, i.e. DISCROER, DISCHARGE, CHAOS UK, CHAOTIC DISCHORD, VIOLENT UPRISING (mates band), DIRT, CRASS, AMEBIX, ANTHRAX, FLUX, CONFLICT, AD-NAUSEUM, ASYLUM, MINOR THREAT, SOA (R.I.P.), YOUTH BRIGADE (R.I.P.), VOID, FAITH, CANGREEN, MDC, BLACK, FLAG, DK's, TERVEET KADET, NEOS, SUBURBAN MEMACE, KAAOS, RISTYTT, ZMIV, TASTUS, APENDIX, LAMA, and BAD RELIGIOM. I really love American hardcore. As you can see from my list, I only like Fast Punk. Tomorrow I'm gonna order the SS. DECONTROL L.P. and UNSAFE AT ANY SPEED E.P. Could you recommend any good fast bands? would you feel about trading UK for U.S. stuff??? You know Demo's, live tapes, and records. The stuff I'm interested in is Fast Punk. What do you think of British punk? I think it is quite good but I hate bands like EXPLOITED, V-SQUAD, and oi!, oi! bands. They're just out to rip you off. Whereas hands like CRASS, etc. aren't. They care about people, and don't look up on them as pound notes or dollars. Plus what they say is really good. Do you like CRASS??

MDC played a gig at London a few days ago and CRASS came along. They thought MDC were quite good, both lyricly and music. MDC want to do an EP on Crass Records. CRASS offered them a gig at Stonehenge near XMAS. The MDC LP is really good. My fav tracks are VIOLENT PENNECKS, I HATE WORK, DEAD COPS, RUSINESS ON PARADE, I REMEMBER, AND JOHN WAYNE WAS A WAZI. They were excellent live.

What's life like, there in Berkeley? Do you have many pigs (shows) in San Francisco?? In Liverpool it's real shit. Hardly any bands play. The DEAD KENMEDY'S was the first show for months. I really enjoyed it. Although St. Helens has a few gigs on . THE SYSTEM are from St. Helen's. Do you like THE SYSTEM? I like the way you sell records cheap and that's what it's about. Not ripping your own kind off. What do you think of straight edge? I think it's alright but I reckon you shouldn't pack a drink in. I only drink about 2 pints a night. I don't touch drups. Do you?? Do none of the punks drink in D.C.?? Has it caught on in any other states? Has D.C. got the hest scene? Are there any good fast bands starting up in your area? In Birkenhead, there is one, HEREDITARY DISEASE, who are practicing soon.

I reckon Finland has some good bands. wrote to Vote and he sends us tapes. I reck-on KAAOS and RISTMYT are excellent. I love FAST PUNK.

Anyway, I'll say bye for now. Please write back. I would have enclosed the money for S.A.S.F. but I wasn't sure on the money situation.

Cheers.

Granny

(ed. - I've written to Granny myself, but thought some of you might want to also. Here's his address: Granny, 1º Arley Close, Fordestate R.Wead, Merseyside L439UR England)

ZED RECORDS MAIL ORDER

INPORT and DOMESTIC independent labels

CATALOG Includes 100's of new wa

mod and punk badges t shirts stickers spiked and studded leather

HAVE CHRON GEN NOW YOUR HERPES

FOR CATALOG AND FREE BADGES SENDOS SE

list your 3 favorite bands

POISON IDEA are a 2-year old 4-piece band from Portland, Oregon, with a tape frequently heard on max r'n'r. They are frontiering alone (along with the FARTZ from Seattle) in the Northwest devoid, where a punk is still a spectacle and hus harassment is an everyday occurence. Absent at the interview was Tom Pig who lives miles away from Portland in the Chris: Portland was, until about two years ago, totally art-oriented, then POISON IDEA started and alot of kids got into that because they couldn't get into someone beating on a drum with an elephant tusk. Now it's a little hetter scene, but more people need to actually be involved & not just watch. WE need more bands, more magazines.

Dean: We couldn't get a gig at first because there wasn't anyplace to play, and all the established rockpunk hands hated us because we're so raw, but the kids couldn't get into them either. Now we have our own following.

CHRIS: A VERY young following. The scene here is very young and very enthusiastic We're up here in a huge vacuum. One club -two blocks away from the major police precint. We play a show a month maybe, and we make no money and drink no free beer. The club (The Met) brings in alot of bands, but we need more bands coming through. Portland is totally ready for it. The scene's really growing. I'm glad more kids are getting into it. When I see a new kid on the street, I'll go up to him and talk to him, no one should say, "oh, he's a trendy, he's a fucker."

WHAT ARE YOUR SONGS ABOUT?

Jerry: Being youth today, with a lot of personal innuendos. There's no point in saying "Puck Reagan"- Reagan's not going to hear it and we already said it last year.

Jany A. / POISON I dea UNDERACE decision spells deceased but don't think that won't get yours ingo you won't be soying them from work gall goines.

Things you do and way are wrong you won't be easying them income to the third the most are the ones in hate the most

are the ones in hate the most

are the ones in hate the most all the cose some in the second of Cienhous's a still drink it straight blacklung made of moke and pain!

the and comes with the still it wast in heaver hell and hate

jewes feedon exceeding at me enjoying your gonne hum in hell

i trugh when i hear what they any then exceed out there is no god

this is my life

it has a my life

the is any curse this is my headache

its getting worse

this is my curse this is my headache

its getting worse

this is not least not think in this great drand of food and drink

the more kened you got the

the less whit you wat things you walse such nead hand in pussed my face is read things i do and any are wang

i won't be caping them very long decisions exceeding at me

talling me to give it up i took towards the day

then i any tack yourself

has why don't you hill yourself

has why don't you hill yourself

MRR: YOU SEEM PRETTY PISSED AT THE MEDIAS CONCEPTION OF PUNK

CHRIS: I don't know what's with the media. If punks weren't represented as total munster lowlife who only want to kill, then more kids suburbs.

would become aware. As it stands, it's the ultimate evil to he into hardcore. There MRR: What's it like to be POISON IDEA in aren't enough punks to overthrow the government-perhaps there never will be. don't know what people are so afraid of. There are stupid punks, but there are also stupid people. I've never heard of a punk getting on top of a building and shooting at passershy. These type of things haven't happened, but still were shown as total losers.

Dean: I don't like to get shit on the bus from some gearhead calling me names, and I'm sure they don't enjoy some idiot with a December mohawk telling them to cut their hair. People are people.

MRR: What bands do you like?

Dean: We love the FARTZ.

Jerry: And DISCHARGE. They played Portland and nobody came, but it was packed for FEAR because everyone'd seen the movie.

CHRIS: Old punk, new punk-not really everyone in particular. Bands influence us to keep punk and to keep going. We try to keep in touch with what's happening all over because we're isolated. It's such a big country it's hard to tell some punk in Miami what's going on in Portland.

MRR: GOALS FOR THE BAND?

There's nothing I'd like more than to live off of this band. I don't want to be rich, but I'd like an apartment, I'd like to eat meat more than when I go over to my mom's. don't want to be a star- I can't he a star. I'd like to say that we are America's ugliest band.

BOX OR.

Jerry: Oh well, make a record

Chris: Yeah, it's a nice thought.

Dean: We're such assholes, and we treat each other like shit. This is the seventh reuniting of P.I. Somehow we stick together.

Chris: We're a good tight band, and we will play anywhere. We want to play D.C., we want to play Louisiana, LA, Texas, Mexico, SF, Conyers Ceorgia-anyplace there's a scene, I want to see it. Our tape's in San Francisco and hopefully it's on the radio. Subterranean is our big interest in a label. They seen to be a label that really know's what's going on. Last word's the only thing that died in '78 was Sid, and who needed him anyway' We're gnarly and we're not wisny. We anyway? We're gnarly and we're not wispy. shred.

In a town with a scene as secular and divided as Portland's, POISON IDEA (who share pool space with Neo-Fascist LOCKJAW and SADO-NATION) have tread water alone for a long time. New bands come and wilt as fast. Recently there have been developments -- the ever constant BRAPHSMEARS, who are great when they play. Mostly Walla Walla cliquey immigrants DIRGE sound good too. FINAL WARNING have played three and a half gigs so far and noisy HERB may develop if they try. S.F. hands: we would appreciate seeing you. Numbers to call are BILL HICKS (the Met) (503)223-3438 or Courtney (503)222-7491. YOU can contact POISON IDEA c/o Dean Johnson 2359 NW Overton Portland interview by Courtney Michelle

Dear Max Rock & Roll,

There's lots of problems with the scene to any and many punks are complaining. What they don't realize is how lucky they are to have a scene at all. We (my friend and I) live in a medium sized town (40,000 people -"edford, Oregon) and its probably the Moral Majority capitol of the universe. There is no scene - no clubs, no bands, no other punks at all. Well, there's a few in a town about 30 miles from here and about two non- punks at school who will talk to us (Are you happy Dave? Your name's in print now). Our parents are "upstanding citizens" and the only way we get to concerts at all is by running away.

Well enough complaining- here's the good stuff. We ran away to go to the FEAR/ CODE OF HOMOR gig in Eugene and then Portland and it was great to see how really friendly and cooperative everyone was. We had practically no money, food, transportation & no place to stay but like we said the punks were really nice. We got a place to crash for the night and a ride to Portland and back. The con-The concerts were good- I didn't like FEAR that much but CODE OF HOMOR was terrific- really bonest and up front with good political values. FFAP should have opened for them not the other way around. There was good slamming and stage diving with no serious fights-There was good slamming strong to see how few other hardcore chicks there were, especially out slamming but maybe that will change in time- its just for us females because occasionally you'll get some 250 pound guy that lands on you and if you're pretty small you can get flattened.

Well, this looks like the end of this letter. A word to punks everywhere: Pon't get hopged down with an 'image'- remain open minded, that's what punk's all about, right?? Be grateful that you have a scene, but don't stop trying to improve it. Don't listen to the povernment or the media- they just try to brainwash you.

Terminally Yours.

Yox & Runt
P.S. Thank to Eugene people who put up with us- especially Erskine & Damon (how are your hox-springs lately?) Hi to Skunk Rafer (Ahe), Andy, Slash-who is one marvy person (we love you Roh) and many, many others

HUMBOLDT COUNTY

Things have really picked up since Humboldt State started at the beginning of October. Several local hands have formed or reformed and there have been a lot of encouraging events that have helped rejuvenate the scene.

X played 3 shows in the area (1 in Carberville, 2 in Arcata) in mid-October. Unfortunately, 2 really lame top 40 hands opened for them. The point is though, that there is enough of a scene to sell-out the local 500 capacity club. Also, the former punk mainstay, The Rose, will be opening again soon. This 150-cap har will be a hig boost to the scene. Garberville is a really cool place, too. A good scene that carries over into Arcata.

A local hand, the SEA HAGS, have found some success in taking their hard-pop sound into some local anti-punk clubs. The PSYCLONES, an experimental synth hand, have released a single and 2 casette LP's on their Clonetone Records. CORRUPTED YOUTH a hand of 14-16 year olds from Garberville, are a really hot hardcore hand. The ALTERNATE BAND play hardcore, too, and veterans AGENT 86 have released a tape.

There is a local fanzine, COUNTERPEACE, and the local college station, KHSU-FM, has 2 hardcore shows: Wednesday and Friday nites.

We want and need bands to come up here and play If interested contact the local booker, Redwood Curtain (707-445-3121) or me at Counterpeace Magazine (PO Box 4954 Arcata CA 95521) or for any info on tapes of local

BAY AREA

I can't believe all the shows we're having here. I'm not talking about mamby-pamby new wave outings either, I nean hardcore shows. We had 12 in 'November and 13 so far in December as of this writing. I never thought I'd say this, but I think we have too may gies. All of them can't be supported, so usually just a counle of the big shows get good draws. And with so many bands around, it's real bard to get on a bill unless you are in tight with the promoters. It seems like you see the same bands all the time. I wish promoters would give the newer bands a chance and distribute the openings around more fairly. I don't wanna sound like an ingrate, 'cause we have a real cool set-up here; it's just that I can see so many ways to improve it. I guess I'll just never be extracted.

Anyway, new bands include: THE BRUCES from San Jose, THE FACTION also from San Jose, POUBLE CROSS from Sonomas, and LIVE NUDE from S.F. Also, instead of all the ZERO BOYS movin' out here, we just pot one, Tufty, who now plays hass for our newest addition, TOXIC PEASONS. I'm totally stoked that we get yet another rad band to relocate out here! JUNEL JUSTICE pets 2 for the price of 1, losing their old pultarist and adding 2 new ones. Will this make them twice as fast?

On the deficit side, we lose BAD POSTURE, KARMACF, and the infamous INTEMSIFIED CHAOS, the hand everybody must've played in at least once. Out of the ashes of IC rise EVERY "OTURE'S DREAM. And 13, another new hand, also seems to have a Chaotic relation.

'Look for a new CODE OF HONOP single in your local record shoppe, it's due out soon. Also new NY's album and single on the way.

A sad note must be added. THF VATS, located in beutiful Prewery Gardens, S.F., the only true "nunk" housing, is being closed down. The full story should be in the next issue.

But to brighten things up, a new club is on the way, Minor Pock, in Berkeley. This club will try a unique approach in that it will be only UNDER 21. Should keep out rost of the marines and bikers and eliminate the legal problem of selling liquor on the premises. Pope it works out, sounds like a good idea. Also, tool & die will continue to have shows. All charges resulting from the recent bust (see live reviews) have been dropped. The Die lives on!

Mandering through were PIL, 3 O'CLOCK, BAD PELICION, DOA, SOCIAL DISTORTION, ARTICLES OF FAITH, TSOL, MASSACRE GUYS, BLACK FLAG, RED KNOSS, U.K. SUBS, and FEAR. ARTICLES OF FAITH with their self-proclaimed "Dredcore" style were the best of the bunch (sorry BLACK FLAG). These guys' sincerity and committment really impressed me. If you're ever in chicaro, look them up. They'll do all they can to help you, and talk your ear off as well! Another hand that deserves more publicity is MASSACRE GUYS from Utah. Their jazzy approach to hardcore was quite a relief from all the stereotypical "we can play the fastest" hands that seem to he around now. Watch for these two hands when they return.

'Til next time. -Prian Edge

Tool & Die, S.F. 11/28/82 TUTST AND SCPEAM JUVENIL JUSTICE, ARTICLES OF FAITH, DOA, TOXIC REASONS, SOCIAL UNREST by Brian Edge

Another big night at the Die, loads of people and quite a line-up! The Tool & Die is truly the last of the underground clubs in this area, and I mean underground! When was the last time you had to go through a trap door in the floor to get to where the hands were playing? Small, 2-level building, no bouncers, low entrance fees, no stage, and no mandatory shutdown time adds to the unique appeal of this club. Sounds like a great place to see a show, right? "lell it is if the people there make it great. I've seen shows there where everything was cool, everyone havin' a good time, but there've also been times where the whole atmosphere sucked, even if the hands were excellent. Yaybe if we got rid of this blase, ho-hum attitude, things would change. Remember, people make the clubs, clubs don't make the reop'e.

TWIST AND SCPEAM opened the show with their Flipper-like dirpes. I don't like Flipperesque obnoxious noise so I'd he hiased in raking an ominion about these guys. My only question is, how do you tell if they're playing well or not? Also a new vocabulary must be devised in describing bands of this nature. Surely, they can't be described as having shredded or cranked. They can't be but or goarly. We'll probably start hearing things like: Man, they really droned tonight! Were they cold! Way to irritate! Those guys really put me under! Totally draggin'!

JUVEMILE JUSTICE has a lot of things to say and not much time to say them so they cram 2 hours of lecture into 20 minutes of music. Pesult: What is this guy saying? "aybe they should hand lyric sheets out or something. The only time you can make anything out is in between songs when Chris (the singer) starts his vehement diarribes (look that one up!".

feet? I hope not 'cause people resent being but something does have to be done. I admire the fact that he's so committed to bettering the scene here, maybe, if more people had that committment ... ARTICLES OF FAITH showed once more that the best bands use influences from all facets of music. Pands that lock themselves into listening only to one type of music quickly run out of interesting material and sure don't have much variety. Pegrae, soul, funk, and even heavy metal (heaven forbid!) influences were apparent in A.O.F.'s abbrieviated set. Both at this show and at Berkeley Square, their frontman, Vic, played with such intensity and frontman, Vic, played with such intensity and maniacal drive that memories of early Henry (BLACV FLAG) came drifting back. Not since PALSE ALARM have I seen a singer physically assault an audience. His frenzied rips through the crowd, mic in band, shocked most people out of their letharcic daze. Recordings alone cannot give the impact that this hand has live. From tension-building head-wrenchers, to all-out attacks, this group and its four highly talented members give Chicago one of the best bands around.

DOA AT TOOL & DIE

D.O.A. turned out to be the "special puest from Canada", surprise, surprise. These guys never cease to amaze me with their great brand of punk 'n' roll. Highly accessible tunes for all ages, proving once again that nusic doesn't have to be played at the speed of sound to be immensely enjoyable.

TOXIC REASONS played their first gig since moving here from Dayton, Ohio. We've struck rold in metting these guys 'cause they are one beckuva band. Fast, slow, fun, serious, they've not 'em all and do 'em well. I just hope they get the support they deserve out SOCIAL UNPEST closed out the show, or tried to. The police decided that that was enough and closed it down. There has never been any problems at any of the shows here and they usually go on til 5 in the morning or later. So why did the police pick tonight for their "hig raid"? They searched in vain for a reason to close the place down and, not finding one, they came up with some curfew law passed in 1902 and rousted everyone out. I guess they must have thought we were dan-gerous or something 'cause they had 2 paddy warons and 7 patrol cars, with S.F.'s finest just writing for one false move. Dan of the AFFLICTED not slammed around before being thrown into the paddy wagon for "assaulting an officer." Another youngster pave some fat slob a run for his life before it took 2 other cops hesides Lardo to bring him down. Pon't they have physicals for these guys anymore? I mean this guy looked like the Pefore part of a commercial for a weight loss plan. They hauled Bruce, the club owner, away but lust for appearrances because they had nothing on him. They even gave me a bleedin' ticket for double parking while trying to load some equipment! C'mon, it was in the rorning and they had the street blocked off anyway. All in all though, the crowd was real cool and there were no major hassles. "ave we opened a few eyes amongst the police there who were expecting everyone or Ouincy. Whenever you have a chance to represent the scene, use your head, 'cause you're representing us all.

Handcuffs too tight

Just another kid killed one Friday night on way home from show cop in his sight, night stick then flies

No way no way Just leave us alone nid nothing wrong Just let us move on

Chrome armor too bright, handcuff too tight thrown in the truck, then heaten to fuck no place to hide

Over-abuse, head in a moose Nothing to gair, nothing to lose out of their cage and on the loose they do it for fun, cause they never lose

Social Unrest

SAN JOSE

San Jose City College 12/3/82 SOCTAL

hy Brian Edge

San Jose has its first hig show in a long time! The skate kids seem to really have it together here. Good, loose atomsphere, lots of people and no hassles, combined with five of San Jose's best, made for an alright night. Because the show started pretty early o'clock), I missed the first two bands, (no, I wasn't out getting wasted), which I ino, I wasn't out getting wasted), which I sincerely regret now. Talking to people larer, it seems that THE FACTION, in their first gig ever, are one radical, knockout, loopin', wahoo hand. Having not seen them myself, I can't say for sure but it seems that they've won quite a few people over already. LIVING AFORTIONS were reported to heen the faster of the two but not much else was said about them.

"ow for the hands I did see. The U"AWARE started things off (for me). There's some thing odd about this hand but I can't quite put a finger on it. One theory has it that they are all 38 year olds who shave twice a day, trying to relive their youth while cashing in on the new punk fad. I mean, when was the last time you saw a punk rocker with a hollow hody cuitar? And where are their mohawks, the circle A's, wrist weapons, hoots, chains and spurs? Somehody be tter cluethone mays in before people thinkin' there's not a dress code. And the sones they played; more than 3 chords! What is this? I got lost after the first guitar solo! Who do these ruys think they are? When I co to a show, I wanna hear punk rock. You know, rusic to thrash people's heads in hy. Accept something different? No way!

PTPZY is without a doubt one of the hest hands in the area. Their songs are quite unique, very hard to describe adequately.

Is this what it takes to get S.F. back on its to act like the caricatures they see on CHiPs Fast, yet not mindless thrash. Fun, yet not stupid. Different, yet still really good. This hand shows that there are still creative people out there not letting themselves he put into any kind of mold. I sure missed Poo poo's sneering depth guitar though. It added that extra dimension to their sound, created by Greg's 5-string machine, the lead vocalist's (sorry, I don't know his name) classic sneer, Sharon's tit-piercing 875 hass, and Kat's rolling drums in jaded gowns. Let's hear it for drums in jaded gowns. Let's hear it for women in hands, YEAH, YEAH! Women are a vital part of the scene, and should definitely not be afraid to get involved. Pespite the complaints I have heard that they're too rockstarish, too 77ish, etc., I still think that LOS OL VIDADOS are great. They've pot some of the catchiest songs around and are supertight. So what if the lead singer spends most of his time taking off his clothes? So what if the only pair of pants he owns are black leather? It's the music that counts and that's where they've got the Edge. SOCIAL DISTORTION closed the show with their very familiar style of rock roll. A lot of people put them down they're not my favorites either, but I'd rather see them than any of those pathetic mainstream hairstyles who can only claim to play rock n'roll.

Things went smoothly as a whole. Police were on hand throughout the show, but never came close to being needed. Glad to see more girls dancing also, led by the Young Ladies in Red (could dresses be making a comeback?).

I'm also glad to see people promoting swiveling (to swivel simply balance on one foot and twist like crazy! Many interesting variations are possible!). Since thrashing has been mutated into a thinly disguised street fight, anything would be more enjoyable. Why not San Jose City College 12/3/82 SOCIAL tring would be more enjoyable. Why had saled try and swivel, or skank, or do the Distortion, LOS OLVIDADOS RIPZY UNAWARE, Hokey Pokey, or even Leapfrog, anything LIVING ARORTIONS THE FACTION, where fearing for your vital organs doesn't enter into it. This would get a lot more people out on the floor (the more, the merrier), and make shows a heckuva lot more fun. The energintensity would not be lost, just The energy and channeled into a non-violent form. Think

Here's hoping that San Jose has lots

ore shows

DO YOU FEEL IT'S IMPORTANT TO HAVE A JOB IN OUR SOCIETY. BEING EMPLOYED AND MAKING

It's not important to us right at the moment. Sooner or later though, we'll have to find some way to make a living. None of us are really qualified to do anything, except for Sothira because he's a chef. None of us graduated from

High School

Have you ever had to eat a free meal in a soup kitchen?

What about the increasing Unemployment here in the United States? How does it make you feel? All these people are so dependent on the government. government. It's so hard to getsupport from the government. Do you think it would be good for the government to institute more jobs for minorities and youths?

Is this something the individuals and businesses should take The government can say, "You have to give minorities and youths jobs." But it's basically up to the employers them-

As far as you're concerned, do congressmen and other offi-cials really care about your livelihoods? All they want us for is to use us, to draft us, and to send us to war. That's all we're really good for in their minds.

No it's not a career. We're not doing this to make money. It's hecause we want to get our message across and play music and because there's a future in Punk-Rock. When you're thirty would you like to be making a living in

What will you be doing when you're thirty. Running a small business. Not a big enterprise shopping mall, but a break even small business. A record store or a

You released you last single by yourselves on your own label. Was there any reason you didn't go through someone else? Because no one else knows how to do it fuckin' right. No one can do it the way you want it to be done. You have to do it all yourself if you want it to come out your way. We've done records with three labels now. We've done Uni versal, we've done the compilation with Alternative Ten-tacles, and we've done Rat Music on Go Records. You get put on a compilation record with a bunch of bands that you don't politically agree with. People won't take you as seriously if you're mixed in with a bunch of other bands. You don't do much good on a compilation anyway, you're like putting out your own record. Your own record is your piece of artwork, your own vinyl, your own songs. We did it because we wanted to see if we could do it ourselves, and it's better that anything we've done yet.

What are you thoughts about the dangers of Nuclear Wea-

There's only one thing you can do in a Nuclear War, walk to the cemetery.

What about the belief in deterrence? That if we put a misWhat about the belief in deterrence? Soviet attack unlikely, chances are they will never attack? It's all a load of bullshit. You can't trust the government, rence and the rest of this shit is just increasing the tension between us and the Soviet Union. The only way we're ever going to have peace is if there are no missiles

There are people out there that believe these things. Are these people just totally misguided?

They're just not being realistic. Do you feel that the Nuclear Freeze (stopping increases in weaponry but not eliminating them) is somehting that will ever work between the U.S. and the U.S.S.R.?

The thing is that the Nuclear bombs are still there. They could still blow up the world many times over. You have to do away with all Nuclear weapons.

Is it important to you to educate the public about the horrors of Nuclear war through your music?

Yes, very much not propaganda. It's a song when I write it. Is educating something that Punk-rock bands should do?

Matt, Sothira, and Chris.

Not just go and play gigs for the fun. The reason we're doing this band is to get this message

It's not to educate, it's to get people to realize that if they don't do something now they're not going to have anything. We don't want to say "This is what we believe, you have to things, and be more aware. Would you like to see the Punk community get involved in organizing and participating in anti-arms rallys and protest

That's an individual thing to do. You go by yourself and you find out what you can do as a person, then you tell your friends, It's not like, "OK, we need 500 Punks in this one area, OK, and a band over here, and the guys with the banners over there." The 500 people won't know individually what they are doing. They'll just know they are at some anti-nuke thing

The more people that knew what was going on the more people would go to these things on their own accord.

Do these rallies help?

I don't think they have a whole lot of effect actually. They make more people aware though. In what way would you like to see the billions of dollars that are spent in this country on Nuclear arms used?

Providing food for starving children.
Should this country take a role of helping out other nations? Definitely. Because we're the richest nation in the world.

power. The people are what's important, that's what the world is about. The people in government positions don't give a fuck about the people, they just care about what power they have over the people. The U.S. is so fortunate. If we had all that

If we had all that money we spend on Nuclear Arms, we could take it and spend it helping starving nations. It has been said that twenty years ago the most you'd hear about God was "Is God dead?" Why do you think there has been such a resurgence in religious beliefs in the United

Because people need hope, because the world has become so fucked not putting much faith in themselves. Do you see any faults inthe ultra-conservative Christian or ganizations such as the Moral Majority?

They're against anything that's an alternative. It has to be totally their way, if it's not about God it's wrong. They're trying to make

I went to Catholic school for nine years, and I saw it all. I think the organized Catholic church is a load of shit. It makes the kids so they can't do anything the way they want to. It makes you afraid of everything. It makes you afraid of God. If there is a God, I'm sure he doesn't want to

The Catholic church as a separate thing from Christians in general has been making a strong stance against Nuclear weapons. How do you react to this? It's very well they do that, but still it's what God says. It people are the ones that are going to get blown up, not God.

I think it's the most important youth movement. It keeps the kids thinking. Every kid that comes into the Punk scene starts thinking more. At first when we got into Punk it was the Sex Pistols, and "Anit-Social", break every thing, let's start a band. Then we started realizing there are other important causes. Before when the Sex Pistols came out, they didn't tell anyhody about anti-war.

All they said was, "Peace. What a load of shit. That was for

It kept the kids from thinking what the hippies really did

I think Punk is growing in a more healthy way right now

Crucifix has been accused of being many things by the un-derground. Too fashion conscious, too English in its influderground. Too fashion conscious, too English in its influences, too preachie, and being a hype band with nothing to really back up its popularity. How do you react to these. Clothes wise we're evolving from what we liked then to what we like now. That's part of what Punk is to us. The clothes are still important, because people's first judgment is the way you look. We flaunt it, we be it.

We feel that if you're going to be a Punk you might as well look like a Punk. You're not going to say anything to anything the property of the prope

It makes people think. If they see someone looking like that they say, "What is he thinking?" They see a strange looking Punk and they see him with a Peace sign on him of the say "Oh 1.

and they go, "Oh, I see."
We look like the people you see in the audience. A lot of bands they thing, "We can get up there and look like any-body off the street." We just want to be like the audience. We don't want to set ourselves apart.

Why be in a Punk band and consider yourself a Punk, and not look like a Punk? It doesn't really make any sense. Why try and fit in if you are trying to say something different. What about too English? Some people say, "Crucifix, they're just like Discharge."

Anybody can listen to our set and if they say we sound like Discharge they're full of shit. They're just looking at the way we look. What's most important is what we are saying. The old people, the "leaders" of this scene seem to support ne on people, the readers of this scene seem to support political bands, and we're a political band yet they con-demn us, Just because of the way we look. There are a few English bands we like. Crass and Discharge, they're our fa-vorite bands. It's because they have the most to say. Not hecause they are from England.

What about the ridicule from people that say that you are

We don't preach to the audience at all. We don't tell people

What to do, we're terming that there are alternatives to what's going on. We have a song "Blind Destruction". The chorus is, "Youth violence. Youth don't fight." It's really simple. We don't believe Punks should beat the shit out of each other, but that's up to them, if they want to go and kick each other's heads in, go right fuckin' ahead. They deserve to get their heads kicked in if that's what they want. People should realize that the songs we write are songs with

Some hands used to say, 'We don't tell anybody anything,

They can go beat the shit out of each other when we play. stand up there and not say anything. We care about the people and don't want them to kill each other.

have just nonned up over night and become really success.

Any band is going to have to hype themselves if they're going to want people to like them. That's the reason we put bands really care about the artwork. A lot of people came from the Art Institute in S.F., a lot of the Punks put effort into the artwork. It wasn't just let's go out and thrash and drink beer. They were trying to do something creative.

This single, we all did part of the record. It was like a big is actually good artwork. It's all work done by us. Any band that wants to get known has to put effort into get

What about hardcore thrash music vs. other types of music that is coming out today?

I like any band that has good lyrical content but I might not much father than that Whatever we've done and will do we try and put quality in it. We don't want to just do throw away stuff

I want to say that Freak Records is our label and we did it ourselves with our own money out of this house and they are to have any influence on the foure structure and they are to recognize this musical movement as unificant, we must channel our thoughts and communications togethe to unit a growing national scene. Butterally, England has a more tightly thank community, whereas limited is so large and the orawl is hander to reach, to be productive, support relevant bands go to important ratios and suppose the underground media nations, other is so much shit to put up with, but if you work for it, it will come. Don't to fragrammed into their way of thinking. It will come, Don't to fragrammed into their way of thinking. Other was then in our governation to carry the weight on our shoulders and to sing the truth. It is heared?

INTERVIEW AND LAYOUT. PETER MONTGOMERY TYPE: Regent St. Type & Design

Toxic Reasons

Originally from Dayton, Ohio, this hand has been on the road constantly for the last 2 years, with many changes of personnel, the latest bieng the addition of former ZERO BOY Tufty on hass. We recently talked with these three members of the hand -Singer Ed Pittman, drurmer J. J. Pearson and rhythm guitarist MRP: How's the scene in the Midwest these days?

Ed: Bands are poppin' up all over the place, but it's the Pible Belt. Jerry Falwell is President there. There's complete control of the redia. Clubs open, and get shut down in a flash - like C.O.D.'s in Chicago. Two sound boards torched in two days. "ery mysterious. The people are there, but the "ars aren't.

All Midwest hands can do is sit in their hasements, and practice, practice, practice.
Pob: You've pot so many radio stations on the coast to express vourselves

Td: You don't know how lucky you are. Out there, the TALKING HEADS are too hard for JJ: But in the "idwest, once something grabs hold, you know it's for real, not a fad. But it takes a long time.

Yeah, it's much more oppressive.

OW DO YOU FEEL IN EL JALVADOR WITH ARMED GUERILLAS AT YOUR FRONT DOOR AMERICAN INFLUENCE IN YOUR LAND, AMERICAN GUNS IN THEIR HAMPS. DEATH'S AMERICAN-MADE IN THIS MODERN AGE. IF THERE'S ANY WARS AROUND, U.S. GUNS ARE FOUND. HOW DO YOU FEEL IN THE MIDDLE EAST WHERE AMERICA'S LIKED THE LEAST? SELLING GUNS TO THE OTHER SIDE, THEY PROMISED YOU, NOW THEY LIED. DEATH'S AMERICAH-MADE IN THIS MODERN AGE. IF THERE'S ANY WARS AROUND, U.S. GUMS ARE FOUND. HOW DO YOU FEEL IN THE SALVADOR?
HOW DO YOU FEEL IN THE HOW DO YOU FEEL IN THE

> them in a hip silo or something, and they hard people American flags at the door, tell-ing them they're going be on TV - "edia Hype. Tob: I can't believe they've got someone 72 vears old running things.

> IJ: 72 and an actor. Dom De Louise could do the same fob.

the same 10%.

MRP: So people are snowed?

Ed: Sort of. You lay a person off for 3 months, someone who was raking $700-800 a week, and now he's sotta mortgage his house, and buy vans. It's like "Grapes of Wrath", but now they're all out in vans travelling the country trying to do housework for SR a day. Feed 4 kids on that! With that many people out of work, they so crazy.

IJ: When they can't afford to entertain themselves, they po nuts.

Photo by Briom Mueller WMEN ALL YOU GOT 13

Ohio is pretty reduckish - like people You can't understand 'em. in "Deliverance". They do sopors and smash up cars and fix Roh: And kill their moms and children

Pob: That sone's about hip husiness selling arms all over the world. And the ironic thing is then they'll send American kids overseas to get shot with guns saying "Made in USA".

""": Well, have neople in the Midwest caught on to anything yet?

J.I: People aren't that pissed yet. watching election returns, and in the MV where there's the highest unemployment, they still voted conservative. That's 'cause they send Mr. Puppetman,

"r. Reapan, out on these tours. They hold

☐ TELL ME ABOUT COMRADERY.

Johnithin: We feel that the youth of today should stick together, more than they are now. They're falling apart, fighting with each other, and causing violence for reasons they don't even know. They don't direct their violence in the right way. They're just destroying for the sake of destroying rather than directing their angers where they should be focused.

Mike: Every youth has to direct their anger somewhere. The Youth more than the rest of the Country'

Dave: The youths are more important than the rest of the country

Mike: They are the ones with Vitality and Energy.

What about Self Pride.

Johnithin: Well, you've got to believe in yourself before you can believe in anything else.

Sal: It's not like thinking your better than anybody else. It's knowing when you do something wrong that it was wrong. So you won't do it again.

Mike: What it is is choosing what you're doing. Once you choose to do a certain thing and you take the responsibility for it, it's good to believe in yourself enough to go through all the way with what you Believing Strongly in what you believe in.

J: Everybody knows inside what's right and wrong no matter what they've been educated for in school, or how they were brought up.

M: It's not universal what's right and what's wrong, though. It's what's right and wrong for you. There is something, but it's not totally what's right and wrong. We feel that you should go for what you believe in, make a choice. Think about it, decide for yourself what's right and wrong and make a decision. Then following up by feeling good about yourself for doing what you wanted to.

J: In a lot of our songs of course we complain about a lot of things and state what we feel is wrong. I think it all basically falls back to education, the way kids are brought up in America today. They're taught to Lie, Cheat, and Steal, That's the American way. That's about what you get out of the American educational system. People are brought up so fucked that they don't really get much of a choice, they don't realize what they're thinking.

What about following through with these feelings and not compromising?

J: We'll always say what we feel. Feelings always change though. We're all growing boys.

Do all these various things—Pride, Comradery, etc. all add up to Honor?

J: Honor is more of a personal idea, though. Code of Honor is a personal thing.

☐ What is this "Honor" then. Some people think the Code of Honor is the little part in the song "Code of Honor' J: Well that's something we all believe in. But it's a personal thing, that's what we believe in. D: It's like every line in that song represents something at least one of us believes strongly in.

So it's not just a theme song.

S: It's not like a fuckin' hail Mary or something where we go into confessional and say "Oh, I got drunk last night and I hit my best friend ... OK, we'll say ten Code of Honors."

J: We were talking about Comradship. We're not saying all Punks should stick together and fuck everybody else. We want everybody to get together.

Everybody?

S&M&D: Everybody!

J: Because it's not just us-our whole society is falling apart.

☐ What's this I hear about "Kiss America Goodbye." All this California stuff?

J: It's an idea. It's nothing new. Other people have thought of it before. Separating California from the United States. We personally don't believe in what our government is doing in the rest of the world. With their warfare and politics and decep-tion. We would rather not have anything to do with that. If we could separate from the United States we wouldn't have to have a system where people are taught to be liars and thieves. We could build a society out of Honesty and Peace.

S:1 think the boarders would have to be fairyly well patroled. People would think we were being ultra right-wing for stopping them from coming in, or kicking them out.

☐ Do you really think California could become its own Nation, or is it just a dream?

Well everything's a dream until you make it a reality.

M: It's kind of like wishful thinking.
D: It's kind of like the size of Sal's Tom-tom, He's dreaming that the rest of his drum set fits his Tom-

☐ You went on tour this last fall across the country. What were the immediate differences of a band like Code of Honor touring and . . , let's say the Who.

D: The biggest difference is we didn't drink any Schlitz.

No backdrops, no fireworks. We didn't get on MTV, and we didn't give anybody guitars or microphones or drum sticks

S: I wouldn't give them my drum sticks.

LEFT Mike.

TO Johnithin.

RIGHT: Dave. Sal

- The money to support the tour came from what?
- M: We started with no money at all when we left San Francisco.

☐ And you made it across the country on the money you made night to night, show to show?

J: Yep. We would have come back with some money except we had a couple problems on the road. We had to get a new radiator and then a new clutch. We would have come back with several hundred dollars otherwise

S: We came back with two dollars each.

D: What? I didn't get mine. I want my two dollars

J: Dave, Richard (Manager) took it to L.A.

D: I want my cake.

☐ At the different clubs you played at, did you find anything in the audiences that you feel those in San Francisco could learn from?

D: The people in Baltimore were a lot frieldlier than out here. Yeah. The least friendly Punks were in New York.

S: That's because there's so many of them and they're all differenty. They're all weirder, they're all Arty.

D: There weren't any kids in Chicago, It was all older

M: Everywhere we went there was a scene.

J: Mostly everyplace we went people already heard of us. Either they had our album already or they had the Maximum Rock N Roll compilation.

Did you eat at any particularly good or bad restaurants?

S: This pizza place in Chicago, that was the best.

J: Mafia's private club house.

J: White Castle. Twenty three cent hamburgers. The burger was green and it was paper thin.

S: It looked like it had big maggots eating through it, it had holes in it.

J: It was in Minneapolis.

S: A cat pissed on my sleeping bag in Minneapolis and it stank until we got to New Jersey

Sal, how long ago did you come over here from England?

S: February 1980. I lived there for seventeen years.:

Is there anything in particular you miss about the English Punk-Rock scene?

S: The Beer. That's about it. I mean there's a lot more violence in England. The way all the little cliques stay together. I was more of a skinhead person than a Punk

☐ There is a big difference in the sound that comes across on your album vs other Punk-Rock bands on the Punk-Rock records. Have you ever been ridiculed by anybody for sounding overproduced or not "Punk" enough?

J: We're not trying to get the "Punk" sound.
S: I like to play fast when I'm fucking around every now and then. But we don't play much straight Thrash music

I never really heard anybody ridicule our sound

D: I heard somebody complain about my shorts once. They said that the color was a little bit too bright. ☐ Are you trying to open musical horizons with your record and your music. M&J: Definitely!

M: The only reason we sound Punk-Rock or any where near it is because of where we play. We are definitely experimental.

J: The next album is going to have a horn section and piano.

D: Right now we're more Funk Heavy Metal than Punk-Rock.

☐ How far would you like the popularity of Punk music to go? The basic idea of politically aware lyrics seems to be to educate the greatest amount of people. So that they can hear what you have to say about government, war, etc. Would popularity destroy the Punk scene and Punk music?

M: No Way. As long as it's got a message the more people that hear it, the better.

☐ Is the message important enough? Is it good to get this music to more and more people?

D&S&J&M: Yeah. Definitely. We want to share this ☐ Even if it makes you guys or whom ever get on AM

M: Oh Yeah we'd love to do that.

J: Yeah if we could put something on AM radio, but would they accept it?

D: Ha Ha Ha

☐ Your laughing because it's like against Punk morals.

I mean, in your head you say "AM radio?"

J: It depends if you look at it as a Punk or as a musi-

S: No Way! Never M: You wouldn't? You wouldn't like to hear our single on AM radio's

S: It wouldn't get on AM radio.

☐ Are there any lasting bad feeling between the band and Niki Siki your old vocalist?

No, not at all.

We're buddies. We just had sex the other day

S: Niki asked me yesterday if we wanted to do a Sick Pleasure show.

J: Sick Pleasure will never play again.
 OK, one of the most important questions facing us today. Are video games destroying the youth of D: Yes they are. Well they're not destroying them but they are making them get into this computer age The computer age is just grouping everybody to-gether so that a select few have total control. What about video games vs. network television? Atari vs. CBS or whatever.

M: Atari would be better.

D: I'd rather be able to watch old movies.

Well what I was saying was network television.

M: I hate network TV. Network TV sucks.

Are you all truly anti-violence?

J: Well Sal's pretty violent sometimes.
M: Not at all. One of the Codes of Honor is "Never fear to hurt another man as long as you know it's in a just cause.

J: We've all been provoked into fighting before. This again is a personal thing, though.

S: We will get our two van loads of special buddies and we'll go over to their house and we'll bust their fuckin' heads in. That's kind of the East Bay way of doing things. It's that gang mentality,

It remains true that many of the kids in this cur-rent Punk generation are blatantly violent.

J: A lot of people are forced into it. They read this and that and they see these big kids coming in and slamming and hurting people, and they think that's the way it is to be. They're forced into it by peer pressure

D: It starts really young. It starts when kids are early teen agers and their big brothers have got this thing that they got from their dad. This kind of attitude that you've got to be tough and the bigger man.

Did you see a lot of violence on your tour?

M: No. San Francisco is the most violent of any place. Except for L. A. Across the United States every place we played everybody was really friendly. All the Punks were really political and into the music.

So all this "S. F. is the greatest scene" stuff isn't

M: Well it's great, except we have a bunch of little violent boys and girls running around with bald heads and mowhaks in S. F. and the East Bay and

Santa Cruz that are dumb shits.

Should a handgun licensing law be passed?

M: No. I'm against any federal control whatsoever. S: I reserve the right to bear arms.

D: If people are going to say, 'Hey, we don't wany any part of guns, we don't want any part of violence." If they put themselves away from it, they're making themselves extremely vulnerable to the people who really have the control of all this violence and destruction.

M: If the technology is there you have to use it.

D: I don't believe in having a gun. But if I need one I want to be able to get one.

Do you believe that if there was an anti-gun law only criminals would then have guns? M: Yeah sure that would be true as far as the law goes.

Because if you had a gun and it was against the law you'd be a criminal you'd be a criminar.

S: It would be a really distressing situation where the only guys in the whole city who have guns that they can use are the cops, And you don't.

M: One of my best friends, Steve Thompson, got his head blown off by the cops two months ago.

That part on the record where I say disarm all police, that could only come after a long term thing with the educational system. Because if we just went on and disarmed all police there'd be panic in the streets. There'd be all these crazy people rob-bing and hurting others, It's an evolving process.

S: Now that's what I miss about England. The police in England don't carry guns. Unless someone's shooting out a window or something, then they go back to the station and get a warrant and then withdraw the guns and a certain amount of rounds. M: I'm against regulations even for police.

☐ Why Skateboards on the cover of your album?

D: Because it flows.

☐ What makes Skateboards such an important part of the Punk-Rock scene?

D: We've been all over the states and everywhere we've been people skate. We played with a Skate band in Minneapolis. Skating is where it's at. A Lot of the kids' problems now are they don't even really skate that much. They just, like, ride for transportation. The kids used to skate all the time. I used to see them up at the pool and now they're just totally drunk.

J: A lot of kids are taking drugs and drinking all the time now because they're got nothing else to do. They're tired of going to shows, they don't go to school, they don't work, they're bored.

M: So that's why we put Skate Boards on our cover. It's so there is an alternative to drugs and alcohol.

S: My Skate Board is actually the only surviving board that was on the cover.

D: That Skate Board appeared in a Pheonix newspap-er. It was a picture of Chris Stagg doing a hand plant. It's doubly famous.

☐ If Code of Honor had $50,000 dollars between the four of you, how would you spend it? M: We'd probably O.D.

D: Buy some equipment, go to Europe, that would be Record a new album. Build a new studio.

M: We might spend some of it on fun. S: Buy a roadster. Build a Skate Park.

D: Start a club and a Skate park.

J: Help feed hungry people.

INTERVIEW AND LAYOUT: PETER MONTGOMERY TYPESETTING REGENT ST. TYPE & DESIGN

NEW ON SEES

MINUTEMEN (LP): WHAT MAKES A MAN START FIRES? Bob Dylan Wrote Propaganda Songs, One Chapter In The Book, Fake Contest, Beacon Sighted Through The Fog, Mutiny In Jonestown, East Wind/Faith, Pure Joy '99, The Anchor, Sell Or Be Sold, The Only Minority, Split Red, Colors, Plight, The Tin Roof, Life As a Rehearsal, This Road, Polarity. $6.00 SST-014

OVERKILL (7") HELL'S GETTING HOTTER, Our War, Burn the School, Don't Wanna Be Told, $2.50 SST 008

RECORDS
BLACK FLAG (7") NERVOUS BREAKDOWN, Fix Me, I've Had it, Wasted. $2.50 SST 001

MINUTEMEN (7") PARANOID TIME: Validation, The Maze, Definitions, Sickles And Hammers, Fascist, Joe McCarthy's Ghost, Paranoid Chant. $2.50 SST 002

BLACK FLAG (12") JEALOUS AGAIN, Revenge, You Bet, We've Got Something Against You!, White Minority, No Values, $4.00 SST 003

MINUTEMEN (LP) "THE PUNCH LINE": Search, Tension, Games Boiling, Disguises, The Struggle, Monuments, Ruins, Issued, The Punch Line, History Lesson, Fanatics, No Parade, Straight Jacket, Gravity, War Fare, Static, Song For El Salvador, $6.00 SST 004
BLACK FLAG (7") SIX PACK: I've Heard It Before, American Waste $2.50 SST 005
SACCHABINE TRUST, I. D. DACAN LOOKE

American Waste $2.50 SST 005

SACCHARINE TRUST (LP) PAGAN ICONS: I Have ...,
Community Lie. Effort to Waste, Mad at the Company,
I am Right, We Don't Need Freedom, Success And Failure, A Human Certainty, $6.00 SST 006

BLACK FLAG (LP) DAMAGED: Rise Above, Spray Paint,
Six Pack, What I See, TV Party, Thirsty And Miserable, Police Story, Gimmie Gimmie, Depression,
Been 13, Damaged II, No More Paddiad Call, Life of

Room 13, Damaged II, No More, Padded Cell, Life of Pain, Damaged I, $6.50 SST 007 MEAT PUPPETS (LP) Reward, Love Offering, Blue-Green God, Walking Boss, Melons Rising, Saturday Morning, Our Friends, Tumblin' Tumbleweeds, Milo Sorghum and Maize, Meat Puppets, Playing Dead, Litter Box. Electromud, The Goldmine, $6.00 SST 009

WURM (7") We're Off, I'm Dead, Time Has Come Today. $2.50 SST 011

BLACK FLAG (7") TV PARTY, I've Got to Run, My Rules. $2.00 SST 012

SOON TO COME: Black Flag (new LP), Subhumans (LP), Stains (LP), Dicks (LP), St. Vitus (LP), Overkill (LP). Prices are postpaid in USA

FOR INFORMATION ON Stickers, buttons, T-Shirts BOOKING AND MAILING LIST CONTACT SST.

PETTIBONE'S STUFF (BOOKS)

CAPTIVE CHAINS: Featuring Pettibon's ash-can epic "City Kids," starring Clot Wilhelm, Paulie Mansoni, Sid Sawyer, and Red O'Grady. 68 pages: $1.50. SST p1

TRIPPING CORPSE 1: 2nd big printing of this wildly successful (over 300 sold) magazine. Art, poetry, politics and music for the tuned-in generation. An interview with Black Flag, a psychedelic translation of Allen Ginsberg's Howl, as well as the usual acid-etched drawings. New low price for this revised, numbered edition $1.25. SST p2

ASBESTOS: More malicious missives from Pettibon's pen. "Taut with tension." "Should've been printed on asbestos." Numbered. $1.25. SST p3

OTHER CHRISTS: Pettibon's prophet-taking religious testament, a financial blessing. "In Gold We Trust." Numbered. $1.25. SST p4

A NEW WAVE OF VIOLENCE: "Over a dozen corpses are littered throughout these exciting pages: "More action packed than even Asbestos." Numbered $1.25.

SST p5
TRIPPING CORPSE 2: Pettibon's provocative, long-awaited follow-up to TC-1. Candid, revealing interviews and socially relevant drawings. Drop acid and experience the full-color version. Numbered. $1.25. SST p6

FREUD'S UNIVERSE: What drives a man to cruelty murder - and desperate love? Documents Pettibon's courageous journey into the dark, hidden recesses of the human (and subhuman) mind. Numbered $1.25.

MY STRUGGLE FOR LIFE AFTER DEATH: Shocking Perhaps. Daring? Maybe. Enlightening? Certainly. But most of all, entertaining. Numbered. $1.25. SST p12 (POSTERS)

PARENTS OF PUNKERS POSTER: Pettibon (Uncle of Punker) lets his hair down. Signed and numbered. $1.75. SST p8

S1.75. SS1 p8
O.D. A HIPPIE POSTER: Needle a hippie. Signed and numbered $1.75 SST p9
BLACK FLAG POSTER: Black light quality. Signed and numbered. $1.75. SST p7

PATTY/TANIA POSTER: Is it Patty (Hearst) or is it Tania

(leer)? Revolutionary sex for the "Armed Love brigade. Signed and numbered. $1.75. SST p10. MANSON POSTER: Kind of now, kind of WOW. Charlie! Numbered. $1.75. SST p13.

RECORDS-

P.O.BOX 1 LAWNDALE, CALIF 90260

THE FEEDERZ

FRANK: Yeah, computer crime is a many-splendored thing. Also, when I was working at American Express, my job was to check people's finances. So every time I got an application from a cop or priest, I just wrote down that they had lied about their income and they wouldn't get their credit cards. On the other hand, if I found someone who only had 8 or 10 dollars in the bank, I'd write down that they were making the $12,500 a year minimum and they'd get their cards. I hope they put 'em

Also, there was the time I showed up at another job one day in drag. That disrupted the place for hours.

Were you fired?

FRANK: What do you think? Also, I heard about a woman who was working for a bank, filing student loans. She happened to be near an open window and....her workload was cut down drastically. You see, you can be creative at any job. And have fun.

V: It seems like this kind of activity is the only thing people can do now-cause as much disruption in your personal life as possible. FRANK: Well, there's always rioting or making a brick become one with a window.

You mean achieve cosmic unity?

FRANK: Truly a spiritual awakening—"self-realization through vandalism." By doing things like that you break out of all your conditioning and banal morality for a moment. Then it's up to you to make that moment last! What about conditioning?

FRANK: That's called "repeat a lie often enough and they'll believe it." By the way, did you know that at one point there was a flood where Pavlov kept his dogs? V: What was the result?

FRANK: The dogs that lived through it refused to salivate anymore—they were deconditioned because of the trauma. The same thing happens in riots-ever notice how happy everyone is when they drop all that trash known as polite behavior? During the Watts riots, Mayor Bradley complained about the "festive atmosphere" and said it was "like laughing at a funeral." The only problem is, just when things start getting real fun the "responsible" revolutionaries step in. They're as bad as the police—what happens is, they join in with the media and 'tell' everybody why people are rioting. They define the riot. They try to make everyone including the rioters

The FEEDERZ are one of the 'originals' (from Phoenix 1978) formed on the 10th anniversary of the Paris riots. Their EP, Jesus Entering From The Rear, finally appeared after 3 years; a new EP, Soon To Be Picturesque Ruins, is due shortly. After Phoenix recently got too hot for them, they moved to friendly San Francisco, where they just want to be loved by all.

Interview with Frank Discussion by Vale.

V: Why did you leave Phoenix?

FRANK: Officer Friendly wanted to make love to me....

FRANK: The police wanted to give me a new home. You know-the kind with bars on it. I wasn't as big on it as they were, so ..

What happened?

FRANK: What happened was: I got hold of the official seal of the State Department of Education and the signature of the Superintendent of the School Board, and did some creative writing with them. I came up with this paper called "Bored With School?" I had 5,000 of them printed, then got some normal-looking high school students to deliver them to the teachers at 5 high schools. The teachers passed them out to the students

The next thing I knew it was on the evening news. The people from the Dept. of Education were complaining about how terrible it was and how it interfered with the credibility of their "legitimate scholarships." The idiots even showed the entire text on the screen.

Then they said the Department of Public Safety

(meaning the State Police) had been called in to investigate. Since the police had confiscated the original in a raid a little bit earlier, I suddenly decided that "San Francisco is nice this time of year."

It seems the basic idea was to get other people to start thinking creatively-

FRANK: And to question things. A point I'd like to make here is that anyone can do things like this, maybe do it one better. Schools aren't the only place, either. There's work.

Ah work-that's a whole other area of play-FRANK: Sure. Sabotage and stealing are the only ways of keeping any self-respect on the job. Somehow you don't feel so helpless anymore. And suddenly you have a reason to show up for work every day. For instance, when I was working for American Express-You worked for American Express?

FRANK: Yeah. Anyway, I stole a bunch of memo forms, typed up my own "orders" from the higher-ups to the supervisors and put them on the supervisors' desks while they were out to lunch. Watching them "follow" the orders was good for a little entertainment. It made the day go by a lot faster.

And made things a bit less humillating.

FRANK: You bet.

V: I just realized how easy it is to forge a signature these days and produce fun projects like that. You simply cut it out, paste it down on the master and put white-out on the edges to keep shadows from showing. FRANK: Exactly. All you add is love.

V: Of course, a lot of fun can be had with word

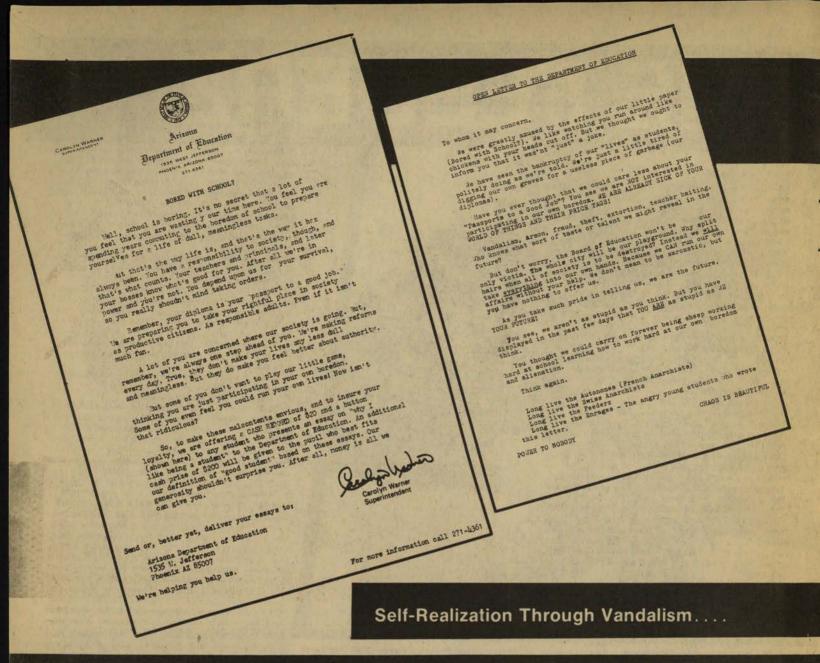

EVERY TIME YOU PUT A BRICK THROUGH A WINDOW YOUR SEX GETS BETTER.

believe that they're rioting over a few silly "issues," like We want our own space, man" or something equally ridiculous. Just read the papers. The trouble is, people end up believing that shit. That's the beginning of the end, 'cause all the government's got to do is make a few reforms and everyone goes home. It's not until later they realize they've been swindled. Leaders can never be

Which brings me to the question of violence, if I may babble on for a while-

V: Sure.

FRANK: Well, personally I'm not against violence, I only question its uses. Face it, violence is there, whether you like it or not. When I was in elementary school, at one point I decided to be a pacifist. I found out the hard way it accomplishes nothing. If I didn't "behave" as some of my fellow students wanted me to, I was attacked. As a pacifist I ended up eating my fair share of the school lawn, etc. Sometimes, just the fact that I wouldn't fight back made people violent towards me. My only alternative was to go to the principal, which I wouldn't do, so I was helpless. The word pacifist comes from the same place as passive, and you know what that brings us. Or doesn't bring us.

I realize groups like the Crass see violence as a way that people demonstrate one person's power over another. And I agree that's usually the case. But once again, it comes down to what uses violence is put to. Violence is not abstract. When you're punched in the mouth, you bleed.

When violence is taken as abstract, all sorts of problems occur. One—if you totally refuse to use violence, you have two choices: run or submit. Two, the other side of the coin. Groups like the R.A.F. (a West German "terrorist" group) also had an abstract view of violence, only in their case they went to the other extreme and decided it was "time" to "start" a Civil War. Of course, that was only to be done with guns and bombs—like Che Guevara's own little mod squad. They turned the whole thing into just another military question.

It didn't work for Che and it didn't do so beautifully for the R.A.F., either. All they accomplished was more "love" from the police. Now, if you even just call yourself an "anarchist" in West Germany, you can get dragged off immediately to jail.

The R.A.F. actually tried to play the game by the rules. And not surprisingly, the police and army were better at it than they were. In fact, police infiltrators gave them their first weapons. If that doesn't say something.... Anyway, both the Crass and the R.A.F. look at violence as a concept instead of a reality.

But violence can have other effects. During riots and some "wildcat strikes," violence has given people power over their lives and their surroundings, if only for a few hours. Only because they violently took what's rightfully

V: Some people say that violence hasn't produced anything lasting—

FRANK: That's a valid point. But A, it at least has produced something, if only for a moment. And anyone who's been in a riot will agree with me there. At least it produces a "moment of freedom." Not long ago I talked to a woman who was involved in the Paris riots in '68. She said, "For once I was able to really communicate with people." That is, communicate without all the social forms that serve to "mediate" between people—for once, they were really talking to one another, not repeating a bunch of useless idiot banalities at one another. Which is pretty major in itself. That "moment of freedom" remembered gives one a clue to what could be and the means to get you there.

And B, the only thing that has lasted is this fucking society and its forms of violence.

V: Such as?
FRANK: Such as the violence done to us in our daily lives. I mean, what's the difference between being forced to one's knees by a billy club or being forced to one's knees by having to pay rent?

Anyway, violence is just a tool. It's not good or evil, right or wrong in itself. Obviously, it should not be used in the way society expects. They know how to deal with that. But like any tool, if you are the master of it, you pick it up or put it down when you decide. And use it as you wish, for what you wish to use it on. The thing is to figure out how and when to use it. The clues are there. How has violence produced these "moments of freedom" and how do we make them last? What kind of violence has worked? What hasn't? And what, besides violence, helps?

What do you think about violence at shows?

FRANK: People kicking the shit out of each other on dance floors is a different story. As far as that shit goes, what Crass said applies. I don't see much difference between that and what the jocks and rednecks do as a pastime. And we know how hardcore they are. I mean, what do you get out of it? Whether you win or lose, usually you ain't going to come out of it feeling too wonderful. Standing up for yourself is one thing—fighting it out to see who's higher up on the ladder when we're all in the shit, is another.

Sure, I know how it feels to be powerless and want power over something. Even if it's just some guy over there. But just what is it gonna buy you? For the shitdog society, it certainly is better to have you fight each other than to fight it. By fighting each other, you are playing "their" game by keeping power going. You're just doing what you were taught. Like any good soldier.

Other than that, it's just a fact that there's going to be violence as long as there's something to be violent about. When we get rid of systems that need violence to survive, we won't need violence. Oddly enough, it seems we need violence to do the job.

V: What about all the 'punks' that make a fetish out of "living on the edge?"

FRANK: You mean like this mystique of shooting up speed and junk? I'm not necessarily anti-drugs, but it's true that the stupider ones think that by running speed or junk they'll be somehow streetwise and "hardcore." That's bullshit. If anything really goes wrong they can always go home to mommy.

FEEDERZ Continued

V: By the way, what do you think about parents? FRANK: They squirt you out, do their best to ruin you, and then expect you to feel grateful to them for it! At least my parents had the good graces to die when I was young.

V: What about politics?

FRANK: The bottom line is our lives. Not just politics or the economy or any of that boring dribble. I'm not spouting off any stupid 'party line.' All you have to do is look at the world and see what's going on, what it's doing and who it's benefiting and figure it out for yourself. It doesn't take very long to figure out that "they ain't doing it fo' me." It's definitely not making my life one big joy after another. So I get my lollies in other ways. Some of the best "critiques" are made with bricks. Or with L'Cocktail Molotov. They call everything into question. V: Have you heard of Constantine Raudive—he wrote a large book about research done with tape recorders in empty rooms. He claims he was picking up the voices of the dead—

FRANK: Voices of the dead-you mean the R.C.P.?

V: What about the Nazis?

FRANK: They're just silly. I don't see why they're taken so seriously. Can't anybody see that pissing and moaning about them only gives them credibility? If that's possible. They're about as worth worrying about as the latest Beverly Hills coke and snickers diet.

V: What about urban guerrillas?

FRANK: There's some problems with them. For instance, here they are sacrificing themselves for "the cause" or "the masses" or some such. I don't want to sacrifice myself for anything—I don't think I look good on a cross! Whenever you steal or sabotage at work or pillage and loot a store you ain't sacrificing nothing! You're just having good clean fun. There's no better way to say "I ain't buyin' it."

V: What about people who might not be up to all this? FRANK: Well, there's those hints from Frank "who wants everybody to love him" Discussion at the beginning of this interview. You can "play" like this, or you can go to work and keep telling yourself that the world really does need another inside-the-egg scrambler. Or Patty: If you can't change society change your clothes.

GAMES ANYONE CAN PLAY

The Feederz are a 'group' that is an attempt to question everything in society, without concessions. We say without concessions because we know that once you start making compromises who knows where it will all end (except in more and more compromises until you can't tell the difference between us and what we claim to be fighting). We're as sick as you are of people who indulge in the "politics of submission" while claiming to be "fighting from within." When, in fact, they end up just working at modernizing the domination of our lines.

One might ask, "Isn't dealing with club owners and record companies a sort of compromise?" Well, it would be if we gave up anything to play at clubs or be on records. As far as 'dealing' with them, we realized a while back that club owners and record companies are more than happy to go as far as to present something whose aim is their very destruction (which is exactly 'he case with us) for a few bucks. Fine. But you won't find us licking the ass of any club owner or record company with our fine rough tongues in order to be allowed the 'honor' of being 'produced' by them. Therefore, we are an 'item to destroy all other items.'*

You may also notice that we don't take on 'issues' (such as El Salvador, nuclear energy, war, women's or gay rights, etc.). It is only because we figure that by attacking a few little lies you at least call a truce with, if not actually support (knowingly or unknowingly) the big lie that is 'our' society. In a society that dominates every aspect of our lives, from conversation ('have a nice day') to our time (working, shopping) to the things that surround us (osterizers, tract homes) and control us (cops, priests, politicians, leaders), we can't afford not to dispute everything that's disputable. Especially when the alternative would be a lifetime subscription to everything that keeps our lives petty and dull.

We live in a society that makes us conform and enslaves us for its own purposes (to keep itself going) for the benefit of a few. It also tries to absorb everything that attacks it (look at punk rock). The ony defense is to attack it totally, watch its every move and to keep one step ahead of it.

Instead of society mastering us, we want to be the masters of our own society. A society and LIFE of our own making (even if we fuck it up, at least we won't be living someone else's lies and mistakes). We don't want to just be the managers of the same fucked-up society. We want and need to change EVERYTHING!

We are not 'entertainers.' We find playing 'music' (?) and our other games (such as the 'Bored With School?' circular) a more tolerable (and a lot of times more fun) way of getting our point across, than most.

We also are not 'leaders.' Therefore, we do not want 'followers' or 'converts.' We also do not like people gazing lovingly at us from afar (love is so much better up close). We want no power. We have no 'party line' for anyone to obey. In fact, we don't want anyone to have power over anyone else (that includes bosses, teachers, mommies, men over women, women over men, presidents, leaders, etc.)

You also might ask if we're doing all this out of our great love for the 'masses.' Hardly. We have a vested interest in gaining our own freedom and running our own lives. We don't want to sacrifice ourselves for you or anyone else. Do you? We do what we do and have fun doing it. There's a big society out there just waiting to be destroyed. And we don't see why we can't have it ALL right now!

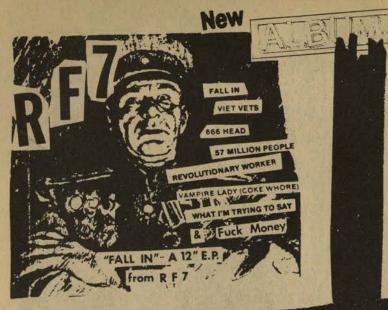

Lastly, our game is one anyone can play—you just have to decide to do it, that's all.

—Der Feederz

*If and when that would happen, our usefulness would be up, and we'd be more than happy to dissolve ourselves as a group.

 We sometimes feel that somehow we are more than objects to be used at will. Instead, we want to use objects as we wish. We can't help it if sometimes that means destroying them.

IN OTHER WORDS. WE'RE TIRED OF BEING SWINDLED.

STILL AVAILABLE!! SEVEN

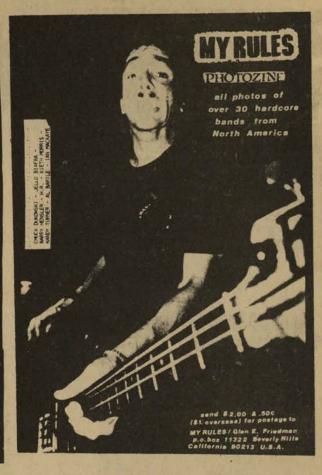

pre-war hardcore

could this happen only in America

5 HARDCORE HITS FOR 83 MINUTE WARNING!!!!! record TEN to ny me changing FARTZ CHRISLIAN prodo send 3.50 pp to blaine cook 1703 harbor ave s.w. seattle wa. 98126

Dear MRMP: I got your No. 1 issue in SF and it's great! I thought I'd write and fill you guys in on the fast-growing Sacto Scene.

The Scene in Sacrarento is growing really fast with PEPEL TRUTH, THE VACANT (from West Sac', THE LAMOS, and some other marage bands.
THE SOUART COOLS broke up, but those puys should be appearing in some new bands soon-propi TRUTY still sounds good, and THE VACANT sounds better than ever with a new cassette out. I hope they sent you a cony. THE LAMOS are pretty new, but sound great and have a lot of potential. J.I.A. and DEAD PLEDCE also often venture from the Foothills to play here, THE HANDICAPPED, from Yuba City played once here, but they need some more people. We've had about 10 shows in the past 6 months with local hands and also his well-known groups such as ELACK FLAG, CIPCLF JERKS, TSOI, FEAP, DOA, FLIPPER, D.K.'s and more-JUVENIL JUSTICE played here in a small gip to records. Speaking of records...SOCTAL put on by REREL TRUTH, and the LAMOS. They DISTORTION L.P. is duesoon. BLACK FLAG were stranded in Vacaville when their car double L.P. with Thom Wilson..second RAD small hitch-hiked We have a couple of places to play, the in- with their new lineup...MINUTETN first famous Oddfellows Hall still is available (I "real" LP cout by the time this mar is to be think) and Clunie Hall may be used some more printed...CIPCLE JFDKS new EP will be with us in the future. SOCIAL DISTORTION and THE soonest... newest FEAR single maybe think' and Clunie Hall may be used some more printed... in the future. SOCIAL DISTORTION and THE soonest... future. LEWD played in a Mexican Cultural Center; I outnow...JODY FOSTER'S ARMY album coming out missed that show, but I heard it's a pretty good place.

We have one cool radio station, KMVS in Pavis, and they let any hand play live on "The H.C. Hour" on Thursdays.

We should have some good shows coming up, I hope some small local shows, those are really They aren't as crowded as a BLACK FLAC fun. show, and the music is just as good. S -Ted

No real hig snowsin town these days, now it's smaller clubs and parties that host L.A. H.C. There is no "club" to go to to see new hands, except maybe the anti-club witch occasionally has decent hills. We also have our monthly "out-of-the-way-one-shot-dives" mainly in undesirable parts of town. Shows seem to he taking place only in roller rinks these dayz. This is the winter, when the crowds stay home by the fireplace and listen Speaking of records ... SOCIAL records. to RELIGION el pee out by spring?...SIN 34 L.P down, so they hitch-hiked to RELIGION er pee out by solid record soon nto. I don't know how they got home. in the works...CIPCLF ONF will record soon of the solid record soon to be soon t on LA's Smoke Seven records along with a RF7 12" EP...new hard, TIPISTS to putout single...more!!!more!!!more!!! "arazi news: 'M COT POINT 'Yearhook 1972' out... "anazine COT POUCE "Yearhook 1982" nut ... new issue of OUTCEY ...FLIPSIDE 36 out...Going back to VEGOT POITE, the WCP 7" multi-band comp EP is taking a while to producedue to funds! Send donations!! POUTE 3010 Santa Monica Plys., #310 Santa Montes CA 90404. Hub. Hub. LA radio: sucks major rubber hose! How are we to get ourmusic out to others when therez nodamn decent show? Tim, we need Maximur Fock back down here!! Fuck! Actually there are some cool shows on PXI." (colege station), there's al-ways rodney, and KFFK has live bands saturday nite atone like PPEA!" SINDAKIT, FLESHEATERS, YF OLD WINDTENET, etc. etc. See ya.

Dave 34

Vell here's a sorryass excuse for a Texas update...latest vinyl are the BIG BOYS FunFunFun E.P., REALLY RED's New St rings for old Puppets E.P., the INANIMATE OBJECTS E.P., and the soon to be released DICKS L.P. Also, Houston's U.S.d.r.i. have a great cassette out.

Aside from the records, the hot bands to watch for are: DISCIPLES OF CHRIST, FUDGE

TUNNELS, BURN CENTER, THE OFFENDERS, and the newly reformed PAGANS, in Austin-Down San Antonio way, boners are poppin for the maniscal MARCHING PLAGUE, and the Heavy Metal grind of the MYSTERY DATES, and (of course) everyone is anxiously awaiting public debut of the revised BUTTHOLE SURFERS.

In Houston, DRUG PUPPIES are the newest rage since their debut with MEAT PUPPETS. Oh, I almost forgot new vinyl from MYDOLS and I'LL BE ON THE FONE 2 YOU.

I don't keep up real good on Dallas/Ft. Worth, but my personal faves are THE HUGH HEAUMONT EXPERIENCE and STICKMEN WITH RAY GUNS, but I have heard from reliable? sources to watch for a new Dallas band, MINDLESS THRASH . . . good name!

Billy Sinatra Dec. 8, 1982

DALLAS/FT. POPTH, TX UPDATE

The Dallas/Ft. Worth scene is really only a few months old. We always had a number of hands and a few factions of punks, but we could never organize ourselves into a "scene" until Studio D set up the first all-hardcore until Studie P set by the life and a venue during the summer of '82. The scene gradually picked up after that, local kids had a place to go to see national and local hands that finally had a place to play. Nost of the shows we would only get around regulars, plus raybe a few "stumble ics The DTAD PENNEDY'S attracted about 6 people, mostly crossovers, but after that, the same 15 repulars. Since then we've had a lot of cool shows with SCPFAM, CPUCIAL TPUTH, CODF OF HONOP, YOUTH EPIGADE, RIC ROYS, MEAT PUPPETS, POA, LECAL WEAPON, and quite a few others. Bands in D/FW are totally hot. HUG! REAUMONT EXPERIENCE is one of my personal favorites with a self--proclaimed "Hillbilly Punk" style, but they play a full spectrum of music, a'll with fantastic tunes. Their LP was on PUSKER DP's "Reflex" label. Look out for these boys, they're bot. POYT SQUAD brings the best aspects of Oi! and hardcore together for a really powerful sound. They have a 4-sonr FP that you can get by sending to Johnny Maslow/2959 Dr./Dallas, TX/75220 The songs are good on the EP but most of BOME SOUAD's power is lost in production; the drummer sounds like he's playing a typerwriter! But it's otherwise a coel record. Look for an 8-song 12" spring... PONT SOUAD IS CREAT live. ASSASSIMS have been around and finally settling down on a fast thrash/psychedelic fu-

The records will reflect more of their previous style of artly punk. All their sones really kill, but the older set is not up to par with their new stuff. THE ASSASSINS supposedly played their last pip on October 16th, but plan to play another on sometime soon. STICKMEN WITH RAYGUMS are probably the most penetrating of the D/FV bands; seriously, these ruys get under your skin and you love every throbbing second of it. The sound is slow, satanic, and so danceable! They've gone into the studio for a possible 4-song 7", but until then, pet their single "Hate in the 80's"/"Scavenger of Death" by sending $2.50 to VVV Records/3006 Cedar Springs/Dallas, TX 7521° THE ONLY PLACE TO PLAY IN DALLAS/FT. WORTH IS STUDIO D/3406 MAIN ST./ DALLAS. Call

In Arizona, the 2 cities with known scenes are Tucson and Phoenix. Phoenix has twice as many people as Tucson and are home to J.F.A. MANY People as Tucson and are nome to J.F.A., SOYLENT GREEN, JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT, and the MEAT PUPPETS. Phoenix just recently released a compilation album called "Amuk", which fea-tures songs by a bunch of the "underground" bands from up there.

Civil Death: Nick (drums), Zach (guitar) Lenny on mike.

2 hours south of Phoenix is Tucson. Tucson's scene isn't huge, but it's growing big-ger all the time. The place to play here is a dive called The Backstage which has been having punk gigs practically every week for about 3 years now. The hangout for Tucson's punks is a small record store called Roads to Moscow, located on the University of Arizona campus. Lee Joseph, the guy who works in and manages the store operates his Iconoclast International cassette tape label out of there. So far he's got about 10 releases, which ranges from dirge to psychedelia to thrash. As far as the bands go, we've got bands to fit the basic factions (hardcore, psychedelia, art-noise). In the hardcore faction we've go CONFLICT (fronted by Punk Nurse Karen, who you might already know because she writes lots of letters) and CIVIL DEATH. C.D. are the most popular thrash band here in town right now, fronted by the animal Lenny Mellowi C.D. are planning to record, and CONFLICT have already released a cassette (already reviewed in your mag). ROTTE KAPPELLE and LES SELDOMS take care of the psychedelic faction. R.K. have Just released a great tape on Iconoclast, and LES SELDOMS, who've been around for 2 years now, have some real old and bad stuff of theirs on an E.P. out on Subterranean called "Arizona Disease" (LES SELDOMS are a completely different band now). YARD TRAUMA (a THROBBING GRISTLE-type thrash combo) and CLEAN DOG VOTTH IS STUDIO 7/3406 MAIN ST./ DALLAS. Call by different band now). IARD TRAUMA (a THROB-C214) 939-0000 for booking info. Dallas is a BING GRISTLE-type thrash combo) and CLEAN DOG must ston for every band! To keep up-to-date (an art-punk-media band who include FLIPPER on D/FW send 50c for ARA/P.O. Box and NOH MERCY covers in their set) comprise 19135/Arlinpton, TX 76019 or just arite me at the arty faction. I play drums in a beatnik-AKA for local news. Other fanzines in P/FW country-punk type band called the PHANTOM are THRORPING CATTLE/4020 Morris Ave/Ft. LIMBS. Not too long ago, we went to San Fran-Worth TY 76103. Send a SASE, it's bilarious! LIMBS. Not too long ago, we went to San Fran-Cisco to record an album for the Modern Masturals, TX 75234. -Nurry called SLIT magazine, but early on in the year my fanzine "merged" with a big statewide music newspaper called the Newsreal. The fanzine is the same and the bands mentioned are still on the garage level, but this way, the scene gets a hell of a lot more exposure. Tucson's proud of GREEN ON RED, a neo-psychedelia type band who moved to L.A. and now have an album out on DREAN SYNDICATE'S "Down There" label. In closing, all you bands out there-come play Tucson! A lot of the biggies have so far played here, and bands get good responses from Tucson! Attendance at the Backstage ranges from 75-250. Our scene is small, but it's close-knit. Fuck Boston, L.A., San Francisco, D.C.--this is Tucson!!

Mell, first of all, I don't know if you could call this a scene, because our size is fairly small, but for Montana, its pretty cool. As of right now, only one cool hand is existing - PERANCED DICTION. (I play bass). We were having some difficulty finding places to play, but now we have a couple dates lined up at a couple clubs. We are playing Dec. 4 at a local, cool punk record store (Urbane Renewal) for only $2. Should be a good time. Only about 40-50 off-on punks exist here, but a lot of granolas and hippies come to see us (IIM boyz too). We don't hate the hippies too

No major fights there. Jocks and Cowhoys are the only dicks up here. As soon as we get enough money we'll make a demo tape to send to you and others. Ropefully we'll have about a 8-12 song 12" EP out by next May or June.

Also, any hands interested in playing here, or who are passing through, please get a hold of me (address below) and we'll see what we can offer you. We should have a basement club by January or February, so we'll have a place to play. We'll also have a halfpipe ready by April for any skate-oriented hands who shred. Hafta wait for the snow to clear. Until then...

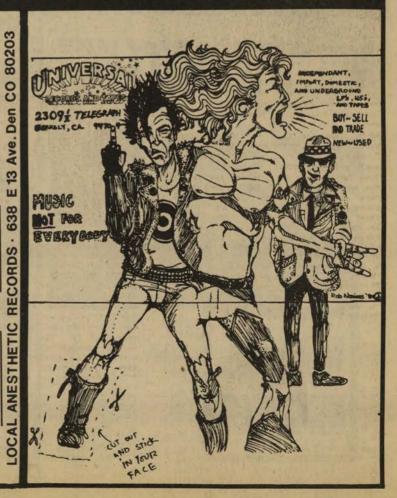

...kill cowboy jocks...

...dead.

Jeff Ament 329 E. Front #A10 Missoula, MT 59801

MADISCENE

no haven for radicals, but Madison's pot cool growing hardcore scene. Pecently all ages shows have drawn more and more new faces. We really one a lot to bandslike MUSKIT DU, DIE KREUZEN, and PLACK FLAC.

erlyn's, a local club on the verse of finanial collapse, has in the past attempted to ost some major shows, but have always been eretty stuck-up toward any threatening (not even!) local bands. Bone "Air" productions re petting things happening with all ages hows at the Will-Mar center. Including the ottest and most active bands - MECHT MENSCH a skeptic bunch of haters', TAR BARIES, (ovable goodpuys), SUBURPAN MUTILATION (you on't know what you're missing), MO and DIE REUZEN (the hottest hand in the midwest). the mid-west scene isn't just happening in lichipan and Ohio. Upcoming relases by DIF. Michigan and Ohio. Sound and MECHT MENSCH and TAR RABIES singles on Bone "Air" records are al in the works.

Area fanzines worth seeing: Reagan Death - 114 W. Gilman St. Madison, Wis. Catholic Guilt - 110 S. Plair 53703 St. 53703 Wis. dadison, Ave -53703 1840 Summit Efforts Mangled Madison, 145 Tota ct. ALAS 53703

BUCKY OF TAR BABIES

Any hands passing through the area that aren't too concerned with money but want to hve a good show can contact Robin or J.J. a Rone "Air" Productions: 311 S. Few St., 53704 (602)256-0678

THE ULIVE

@ 1981-NEGLECTED- RECORDS

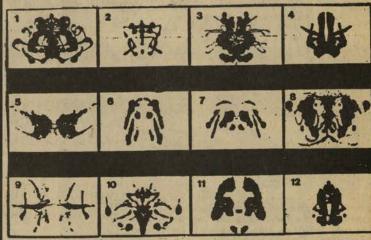

CONTACT:

BOOKINGS INFO : RECORDS: 49 BATTLE CREEK PL. HSI UNIV. AV. ST. PAUL, MN 55119 ST. PAUL, MN 55104

2167 FALCON AV. ST. PAUL, MN 55119 GREEN WORLD DISC TRADING

FAULTY

EVERYTHING FALLS APART

NEW ALBUM REFLEX RECORDS

731 PONTIAC PL.MENDOTA HTS,MN.55120

vocals/guitar Joe Scuderi puftar Pave Shield - Bass/vocals Virus X -

TYP: How's the Chicago Scene?

VIC: It's small right now, but it's good hecause a lot of the hands are real young and mostly straight-edge and positive mental attitude. But actually, hardcore alternative underground thought and consciousness is just starting out. Hopefully, we've demolished this line that if you don't "look" punk you can't come to gigs - lots of different people

RNR: Talking earlier, you said Chicago was America's most segregated city. What did you

VIRUS X :They've done these studies Neighborhoods are either like 1% Black or VIC: When we lived on Clifton, off Belmont, our side of the street was all White and the other side was Puerto Rican.

MRNP: What in Chicago enforces that division?

VIC: The city administrations, in terms of services rendered, have a lot to do with it. Daley was a big-time racist, coming from the South Side. There's a lot of that regressive working class attitude. It's a real working class town, and with a lot of the ethnic racist beliefs, which the government helps maintain and foster. The way they've carved up the city politically, with aldermen representing the wards, the way to maintain a powerhase is to keep the neighborhoods as static as possible. From block to block, it's German, Mexican, Polish, Black, Italian, etc.

JOE: An example is the Chicagofest, a big way: It's good that someone is making a disthing they have at the Navy Pier. Now Byrne tinction between what longhair meant at one (mayor) wants to break it up into all these point and what it is now. seperate neighborhood affairs.

DAVE: Yeah, in my neighborhood, which is predominately Jewish, they had Henny Youngman, Penny Goodman. Then elsewhere they have a Puerto Rican Festival, or BlackFest.

MRNR: Do you participate at all in local politics?

raised in the hardcore scene than going out to work for Mayor Byrne, and won't accomplish again; Is there a nurpose to your "community", MRNR: What about the Maffa?

VIRUS Y: You can't produce proof, but there is general knowledge of people being involved in the rackets. Like they have a lot of con-trol over clubs. If you have a club, you're If you have a club, you're conna pay to keep it open, to not get raided.

RMR: Some clubs got torched. Was that reated to the moh?

might have torched themselves for insurance.

VIC: They found some guy inside C.O.D.'s hefore it got torched.

DAME: Everyone said it got torched because they weren't going to pay the price. They had a lot of underage shows.

VIC: OZ tried doing that and the cops came down big-time and closed it down. You can see how the mob and the cops are in bed together, 'cause once you go outside the circuit, you get put down. Like last winter when Stevie from STRIKE UNDER tried to do a show in a loft. Poom! Mightsticks. sonna try to put on shows without liquor and see what happens. Pasically, the young kids don't give a shit about booze anyway.

'IRNR: I've heard you use the word "skids". What does that mean?

DAVE: Credit NEGATIVE ELEMENT on that one. It's a term for today's long bairs. hasicly look like hippies, took up the appearance, but don't really have the same progressive attitudes the Hippies had in the late '60's. They just drive around in their Camaros with the trunks up so they can blare their rusic and scream obscene things at paracore community is the whole alternative network of setting things up by yourself and doing it. Not working within the framework of the exploiters, but by your own rules. That's an attitude that can catch on.

VIC: I like to get people thinking. I can't take it further than that. Our songs are pretty ambiguous. If you look at the lyrics, they're not cut and dried. We try to take a picture of what's soing on and show you that, and as "What's going on?". Instead of saying "we hate cops", we show them a picture of cops heating the hell out of somehody, and say "what do you think?". We can help create an alternative network with an alternative system of values, but every individual has to decide on their own values. All I can do is suggest.

VIETS V: Music reaches people in an erotional I'd like to see values, emotions, and characters he radically different from pets put out in music and art. VAN HALEN is the blatant example. I'd rather project the spirit and feeling of the kid on the streets of Poland, El Salvador, or Miami. I'd like to see the total overthrow of the way societies but I don't think bands can do it. I are. think a hand can make a contribution as far as threatening the way the art is and posing VIC: It's the suburbs.

VIC: We've taken some of the hippy thing and incorporated it into one philosophy, and that's not had. Like the idea of being politically committed. Or communal living. Everywhere we've gone on our tour, there's some house with 9 or 9 people sharing expen-ses and activities. There's a lot of unity. The idea of "community" is something the hippies had that we have. If you don't have VIC: No, we find it more important to get a community, all you have is people poing at certain amount of political consciousness each other's throat, which isn't very conducive to creative thought.

this hand?

JOE: There's going to be four different oninions.

MRR: Well, let's take one person at a time.

DAVE: I'm involved 'cause its a creative outlet, and hopefully too we're helping people to think about things. We don't go and tell them things, but give them a challenge to the values of today.

JOE: Like Vic said, we paint pictures with our music, but the whole idea behind the picour music, but the whole frea result the pro-ture is something everybody has in common. Like "Father's Dream" or "Bad Attitude". It's something everyone can relate to. Also, the lifestyle we live is an example. Going the lifestyle we live is an example. from city to city, living in communal situations, relying on one another. I think individualism is a problem. We have to relate to each other as a whole.

IRNR: A lot of hands are not necessarily that aware or interested in a wider scope of the world as a whole. You seem unusual in that respect. Mould you care to comment on the world today, based on your knowledge of history, what hopes you have for the future.

VIC: I'm by nature a pessimist. I usually go ahead and do things that are the most positive, but I have this little voice in the back of my head warning me. Like about bardcore, that little voice keeps saying "It's gonna go just like the hippies did. It's gonna fall apart." I've got this pessimistic attitude that the aims and means of society's productive capacity, which right now is in the hands of a very few people who are very well equipped to administer it in their interests, cannot be changed. There's nothing we can do about it. The corporations will totally take over, and you'll have neople walking around with a very materialis-tic set of values. They'll let it happen 'cause they'll get nice little haubles like nicrowaves, computers, color TV's. They'll he man and wife living in their little part of their little town, doing their little job, working in their slot in society. It just destroys creativity in the individual. The pessimist part of me says that's the way it's coing to be. We're the last of it, we're the dying breed. But then, when we so across country and meet people who care, then I think to myself, well then there is an ability for people to set up an alternative can overtly be hought off or sell out, but that your mind-set will adjust itself to whatever environment you're in. So the idea is to set up an alternative mind-set where microwave ovens don't shit. Hardcore is really good because it's taken music and made Hardcore is misical values irrelevant in rusic. ow well it's played or how good the production is, but what attitude is being expressed. You've created a new mind-set for appreciating music. If we can continue to create a new set of values - and it doesn't have to he fust one set of values; they can he different values but a common set of principles - then even if the majority of society buys off, we'll still be able to have people with enough creativity and expression that the human spirit is not crushed. We don't ecome automatons. I'm not sure h.c. is the he all and end all of it. If hardcore fails, perhaps the human spirit will resurrect itself in another form. We'll see.

VIPUS Y: I don't feel as pessimistic. I find that just trying to exist, or trying to preserve a lot of good values, or trying to create a good value system, within the confines of what we have now, is just tilting at windmills. I support tearing it all down, which I suppose other people might say is tiltine at windmills, too. So many goddamn people I know have gotten into drugs, are dead, or spend their time getting welfare and resigning themselves to it. In a certain way they're right. They just can't create that alternative mind-set while being hemmed in by that hox. That's why I say you've got to tear down that box. Otherwise, you'll always he faced with co-optation. I agree, it's not just a straight sell-out. People just run into the limitations of trying to create a pure society in an impure world, and leaving at that. You know what it says on the CLASH t-shirt: "The future is yet unwritten". I think there are a lot of possibilities, of revolutions really changing things around. don't think these guys (ed.: the ruling class) are in such hot control of it. They can't even manage their own economies. don't think they're bringing on the pressure; I think they're freaked out that they can't manage to get out of it. I don't see them as quite the all-omniscient types.

DAVE: I don't have any predictions for the future. I have my own hopes, but I don't now how to bring about change. Hopefully, neople can change some of their attitudes toward themselves and society. That's what our music is about. Things aren't that had yet in the U.S. where people are forced to make that decision. But, when things get worse, they'll be forced to adjust their values, and hopefully will take matters into their own hands. The name, ARTICLES OF FAITH what are you poing to put your faith in? You ponna put your faith in some promoter out doine it for the money, or you gonna trust guys like you all who want to expand the scene? You gonna put faith in yourown mind, or are you gonna let someone else do your thinking for you? My hope is that eventually, people will be thinking for homeone. themselves.

don't think people do that themselves by nature. You're born into a society, which creates a set of values to maintain itself in order for you to destroy that, you have to do things as a group. I it themselves. People just grow up thinking, around with guns know what the hell they're "yeah, microwaves, that's cool by me" or "The fighting for?

Africans, they don't give a shit" or "The they got what they deserved".

Business majors in college, they don't question what they're doing. Technology is at such a point that it becomes easier and easier to create a mind-frame in people. So now, it's a real scary thing for people to step outside of the conventions they grew up with. You're gonna lose all the rewards you grew up wanting, that trickel down from MRNR: We've been talking in general terms here, so far. Are there specific approaches you advocate? Is punk the best way to affect or are there other ways to do it? change? lot of bands now urge people to question. "e've gotten to the stage where a lot of people are doing that. They'll complain about the Republicans and Reagan, and the Pemocrats sure aren't coming up with anything new. So, we all know it's wrong, but now isn't it time to try the alternative? So, what is the alternative?

VIC: You have to figure out why it's wrong, first. You have to be able to define the problem clearly. I think that's the stage we're at now with the movement. problem with people getting caught with a movement or group, without knowing what it's really all about. I like the idea of raising political consciousness, creating unified movement, but am real hesitant in deciding on what specific lines that movement should take. Because that means you're going to have to start excluding people, shaping people.

MY PATHER'S DREAMS (Sondi/Shield)

JOS: I don't agree. I think we have to get out of stressing the individual. You can only work together as a group, and you have to subordinate yourself to that group. You won't be less of a human being.

a young person, so that when they become an VIC: I don't disagree with that. adult he or she maintains those values. In dividual doesn't have power, and has got to fust hope it's a offer them an alternative, or you have to of- clear conscious decision one makes. Do the fer them enough questions that they question 12 year-old kids in El Salvador running

> IBUS X: I'm sure that they don't have a fully worked-out political framework. sure as hell know they can't stand the life they have now, and a damn good understanding that things won't change unless they do what they're doing now. I don't think change happens 'cause all at once everyone understands everything so well. People shouldn't be led around by the nose by an organization, but to wait around till there is a complete understanding by everyone is to wait around forever. I find things, the way they are now, quite intolerable. Not that we're all starving here, but the whole arrangement of things. what is done to people around the world, because that's where the United States does it "hest". Anyone who wants to tear it down, fine. I'm a communist, but if an anarchist comes along and wants to tear it down, fine! Obviously, there's a difference in overall direction. But like these kids in Europe, who call themselves anarchists, who are going ape-shit in fighting for squatters rights; that's fine. There's a spirit of heing intolerant of waiting another day. As far as hands leading change, or proposing new systems, I don't think they can do that. If individuals from bands do that, Political art usually falls flat as both art and politics.

VIC: You know, we're still harbarians - technological barbarians. It's gonna be a long time before we live in a society where you don't need a law against murder, because it would be totally reprehensible to ALL people. At this stage now, you have to force people to be part of the "collective". I don't feel that selfishness, greed, and obstinance are part of human nature, that those things can be vercome. I don't take a Hobbsian view of overcome. things, but i'm pessimistic about the next bundred years. People are basicly good, and someday will figure out how to be good to each other.

MRNR: Is there anything else you want to say that we haven't covered?

VIC: yes. From what we've been talking about, it might appear that we're real dog-matic - that AOF is an intensly political band with an intensly political perspective. Well, that's true, but there's another half of the coin which is that what we want to deal with people on a personal level. When I'm saying that people are basicly good, I mean that when I meet them I'm looking for the good qualities in them. We're trying to communicate that in our songs, like "My Father's Dreams" on our EP, which is all about how your parents try to foster all the desires and wishes they could never fulfill, on you, so they can fulfill them through you. It's personal experience. The point is that we have built up political philosophies, but the most important thing is to communicate with another person, and find out what with another person, and find out what they're thinking on a personal level, under stand their feelings, what moves them, what drives them, what makes them scream, etc. I don't what to walk into a room and say, "Are you an anarchist?" and say "great, we're brothers". I want to find out what you're like before anything. We don't wnat to deliver political treatises. I admire some hands who do that. There is a need for that, but it's not us. Pon't label us communist, anarchist. As individuals we may all have differing views, but we've found cormon ground and that's what we're trying to communicate, on a personal basis.

CHICAGO SCENE REPORT

Bad News First: TRIAL BY FIRE, an ultra-hot 3 piece hand, has broken up. They were going to release an album - all that's left to do is the final mix - but now it's been scrapped. They feel its not worth releasing, that it wouldn't get the proper backing hecause they've split up. I'm certain that the album would have easily been one of the best records out of the midwest scene. The fanzine "Your Flesh" (from Minneapolis) called TRIAL RY FIPF "Hardcore with Diversity...these guys are OUT FOR BLOOD!" Resides the heavy, booming bass & fantastic drumner, 2 things really set them apart in my eyes: the vocals (which they shared) - gruff, and sung (wrenched) from deep in the gut; and their live performances. They avoided the standard rock poses - but when they clicked (often) they could litterally rivet your attention with their intense grimness. They were one of the most intensely serious hands i've seen. C'mon, guys, at least put out a sirgle!

The NAKEP RAYGUN E.P., "Rasement Scream" (12 inch, on Ruthless) should be out in late Feb. They've been through a few lineup changes since they started out: they dropped the synth, switched basists, and quite recently added a 2nd guitar/sax player. I think this is their best lineup yet. Though I didn't always like them as much as I do now (I was in a "harder core than thou" phase, musicwise). They've become one of my favorite bands ANYWHERE. In "Ripper" (#5) chuck of BLACK FLAG describes them best: "Crazy, lots of noise and wildness. Lots can and does happen with them...bardcore with an arty edge but not dry." Categorizing them is alrost impossible. They're minimal & primitive, with noisy guitars, and drums that appeal to your most basic instincts. Check this record out!

ARTICLES OF FAITH have just returned from their tour. It was cut a little short (they cancelled L.A., phoenix, and all of Texas) due to a cash shortage and their van's breakdown. Still, it sounds as if it went pretty good. Their E.P. is getting great reviews; its great to see them finally get a little recognition. They really put a lot of sweat & passion into their music. They brought a demo tape of the various Chicao hands with them on tour, seeking out backers; so far, only rumors but no definite plans. Some of the bands on the tape so far are: ANTI-BODIES, JUVENILE DELINOUENTS, NEGATIVE ELCHENT, SIX FEET UNDER, RIGHTS OF THE ACCUSED, END RESULT, and ARTICLES OF FAITH. The ANTI-BODIES are a hand that's been playing around a lot lately. They've got a classic" punk sound, very hard driving & spirited. Their singer's voice is just right for their style. JUVENILE PELINOUENTS are thrashers, with an enthusiastic female singer. I hear they are writing all new material now, and might change their name, too. SIX FEET UNDER is back in action. They've been through a lot of shit, yet they persist. They're very volatile & outspoken; at one point they had a heated argument with hig shot promoter Eric Mihilist. After that, they did not play any Chicago gigs for about 8 months; instead hit a few midwest scenes, and now they're scheduled to play with the incredible HUSKER DU. They're not a thrash hand but play very fast, supercharged hardcore with an intense singer who is, in a pnarly. Vinyl from them is long over-The upcoming "MasterTape Part 2" alhum word, pnarly. should include RICHTS OF THE ACCUSED (don't call 'em "R.O.T.A."!) and the sparse, nightmare sounds of END RESULT, who just got turned down for Version Sound's next tape project - for heing "too negative", "too depressing" and "sexist". (Huh?!) Also being considered for the new "Master Tape" is NFGATIVE FLEMENT. They're in the studio recording their E.P. (for Version Sound) titled "Yes We Have No Bananas;" it should include the smash hits "Anti Pac-Man", "Media Punk," & (my fave) "Police Reat On Me." It's due by the end of January. RIGHTS OF THE ACCUSED are plotting an EP (Version Sound being the rumored label) but nothing definite yet. "Ganwhile they're adding two new tunes to their sonic set: "I Came To Dance" (about jocks who slam & start fights) & "Mean People Suck," a disco song(!) Steve is organizing ANOTHER tape of most of the Chicago bands, plus Milwaukee's SACRED ORDER and others. Send him a tape and $1.50, (or just $3.00) to Steve Stepe at the address listed for the Primative Noize 'zine. Comes with a booklet.

NEW RANDS: ALL these are comprised ENTIRELY of teenagers. Some have not officially debuted yet but should soon. All come from Evanston, (just north of Chicago) & a real hothet of action, especially of the skinhead variety. THE DRILL are boothoys who will debut New Years Eve. I hear they are great SEISMIC WAVE — a three-piece hand who are just beginning to gig. BLOODY WAILS — thrashers, I believe. VERBOTEN — Rockish Punk with a female singer. FATAL ERROR — From Chicago, still forming.

As you can see, hardcore is FINALLY blossoming here (after too many years of power pop bands with new wave clothes) without a doubt, the main reason for this LATE start is the fucked-up club situation here. Up until about a year ago, minors have not been able to see any punk shows on a regular basis. 266 Now that punk isn't a fad anymore, the clubs have been closing left & right; from six or seven down to the current three. The hardcore bookings are irregular, and "local" gigs are fewer & fewer. Therefore, the "big name" gigs are often the only oportunity for local bands to get an audience.

SEISMIC WAVES

Unfortunately, only one person seems to be booking those shows, a Mr. Eric Nihilist. That means he calls a lot of the shots around here. Though he's booked some great bands in the past, I don't think one person should control the scene just because he's got the financial backing; that sucks. Some of the outstanding area bands that wanted to play Chicago but didn't (Eric apparently wasn't interested) include MAN SIZED ACTION, ZERO POYS, CRUCIFUCKS, & the great DIE KREUZEN. He's also not committed to doing all ages shows -- he's committed to being a promoter so he's reluctant to push this unpopular issue with clubowners. So the kids (the heart & future of the scene) are being stifled. (Almost worse are the stupid people who won't see a show unless it's the DK's or anyone English, no matter how had). It's ironic that the bars are going under now that there is a wealth of local talent emerging. There is good news though, the possibility of two new alternative venues; one a loft, the other a hall. It's still tentative, but if they come through, it would be the single most positive thing to happen on the scene here. BANDS! If you're a midwest area hand ready to play here (or a level-headed national act interested in promoting the real alternative scenes, & not just making lots of money) write for info. Inquire to: NAKED RAYCUN c/o Ruthless Records P.O. Box 1458 Evanston, IL 60204 OR RHONDA OAKES c/o ARTICLES OF FAITH 3257 N. Seminary Apt. 2E Chicago, IL 60657

Think about it; hars are a stupid place to have gigs. Not only are there the stupid bouncers, age limits, & steep prices, but the owners, (who make the most profit) are exploiting your music for cash; with very few exceptions (here in Chicago there was "OZ") they have nothing in common with the deals the music trys to promote. WE DON'T NEED THEM!

Skank not slam, Yen B.

NEGATIVE

ELEMENT

Although almost totally unknown to anyone outside the bible helt over the past few years the state of Indiana has produced some oreat bands. From the early days of "Muff Divin'" with the GIZMOS to "I Wanna Kill My Mom" with the PANICS, or real noise bands like the CHEESES FROM FRANCE who's rendition of "Heart of Gold" has got to be the most obnoxious recording ever, and the GYNECOLOGISTS who's first E.P. "Fecies & Phycopaths" is so sick it could make Tesco Vee toss his

Today there are many young hands keeping in the tradition of scurity. Bands like the REPELLENTS from Anderson who manage to blend D.C. style thrash with CRAPPS style savagery. These guys shred live. They have the best unemployment anthem ever with "TECHnorama": "Tell me what fun is watching T.V. When I don't have nothing to eat." statement coming from people that live in a city that has 13% employment (no shit). The PEPELLENTS are on "the Master Tape" compilation L.P., and have plans to release a 6 song E.P. in February on Affirmation.

BANATANA

Another upcoming hand in the area is KILLING CUILDREM. This hand was formed by the PATTERNS bassist Scott Colburn, and they hail from Columbus Indiana. Although I haven't seen these guys live in some time. I was there when they recorded their new E.P., and it sounds great. I think this record should turn a lot of heads in this direction. Also to be released in February on Affirmation

THE SLAIMIES are no more after a final appearance at a place called the Chase. This had to be their worst show ever. Singer Stan (Cave Brain Jerry) was so drunk he couldn't sing any of the songs. It's a real shame be-cause the rest of the hand was really tight. Later that night when the PEPFLLENTS were playing Stan managed to throw himself through 4x8 foot mirror (Smart!).

Other new hands include noise makers WE'RE JIMMY MOFPA. Including ex-members of LAD, CHERSE FROM FRANCE, JOINT CHIFFS OF STAFF, and the 3 O BAND. These guvs own Hardly Music Records. So I expect either record or tape soon.

Yes it's true the ZERO BOYS have called it quits after almost 3 years. Tufty, the hass player, moved to S.F. with TOXIC REASONS.

BATTERED YOUTH also split up. Steve and Rob Schick moved to Richmond, VA with family. It's a shame because they were responsible for turning alot of local kids on to bardcore.

e Master Tape Vol. II" is well in the "The Master Tape Vol. II" is well in the works. Some of the hands that will appear are SAND IN THE FACE from Pine Brook, N.J., "ECHT PENSCH from Madison, WI, KILLING CHILDPEN from Columbus, IN, THE ANTI-BODIES from Itasca, IL, SACRED OPPER from Milwaukee, UI, FID RESULT from Chicago, IL and MALICANIT CROUTER from Location of the should be CROUTH from Louisville, KY. This should be out next March.

Well that's all for now. If your hand is interested in playing in Indiana just give a call to one of these people: Paul (317) 283-2635, Joi (317) 844-7164, Scott (912) 372-4383. All the above deal only with all

Last Minute news, looks like THE CHEESES are back together, and the CYNECOLOGISTS will be poing in the studio to record a new single (look out).

Punk rock riot by fans of S.F. band HANOVER, West Germany (UPI) — About 200 youths threw rocks and bottles at abop windows and police cars yesterday, injuring five officers and one youth, in a protest against police keeping track of punk rock fans.

The violence began when the youths were refused entry to see the San Francisco band Dead Kennedys because the club where they were playing was already full

Police arrested 12 youths in the violence that followed a demonstration of about 500 people, at least half of them punk rockers to protest "punk files" police have recently introduced to record information about the The violence followed a similar rampage by about 200 youths in the northern city of Osnabrueck Friday night, who attacked offi-cers and patrol cars after being denied admission to a rock club.

The local police, overwhelmed by the youths, were forced to call in officers from other towns as reinforcements. There were no reports of injuries.

Modern Method Records PRESENTS

NEW

GUILTY FACE available 2.50 postpaid

Modern Method Records 268 Newbury St. Boston, MA 02116

Other records available postpaid: The Freeze "I Hate Tourists" 2.50

"Unsafe At Any Speed" 6 Band EP 2,50
"This is Boston Not L.A." 30 song 7 band LP 5.00

"Guilty Face" Additional copies 2.50

This kind of freedom is perfect for you as long as you can get away with what you do, but everything you do is in such bad taste and it's your fault the media is such a waste.

Scott (bass) 20 years old (young)

Influences and likes: M.D.C., 7 SECONDS, S.S.DECOMTROL, GIL SCOTT HERON, CRASS, ZERO DEFEX, JOHN LENNON, DISCHARGE, JUVENIL JUSTICE, JELLO BIAFRA, TIM YOHANNAN, JEFF BALE, SOCIAL UNREST, STARVATION ARMY, MINOR THREAT, TESCO VEE, MOTORHEAD, TIM SCHWARTZ, MARY, STEVE, DOC, GUS, VICKI, MARK DUBIKI (M.D.C. roadie and my buddy), TAMMY, and especially my MOM, and anyone else who thinks that they can give a shit about the world!!!!!!!!

Here are some thoughts: It's as difficult as this. Delete all discrimination from society; keep continuous communication with allies; be aware of authority and make sure that all authority figures are dealt with in a proper manner; don't do anything that you don't want to; you have to be totally committed to a cause to make it work. The world sucks in its present state. I'm continually over-whelmed by what "rich and powerful" fuckers get away with and how ignorant he "general public" is to what their beloved leaders are doing. Total fucking apathy all around me, and I swear it's gonna drive me crazy until "we" wake these people up. PEOPLE HAVE JUST GOT TO THINK, BUT THAT'S TOO DIFFICULT, I puess?!!!!!!!! THE WORLD OWES ME A LIVING, THE FUCKERS!!!!!!!!!!!! LOVE YOUTTITITITITITITITI

Doc Dart (Vocals) 29 yrs. old

Influences: Ozzie Nelson and others too numerous to mention.

Violence: It's a byproduct of ignorancepart of our culture- if we have to have it for now, it should be redistributed or better yet, rechanneled.

Capitalism, Military, Patriotism, Nationalism: Obsolete.

Cops: I hate them-there's no excuse for them. I'd like to kill more than one. They won't fucking leave me alone.

Religion: Worse than violence. A stupid way of coping with fear.

Personal Coals: A new Jonestown for the rich. A part in a movie based on Green Acres.

High Unemployment: They wouldn't help the poor when they had money, so fuck 'em.
They've learned to kiss ass they'll get

Coals in music: None yet.

What do you hate: Almost everything and everyone, at times. I love my dog Scirbbles.

Do you consider yourself a radical: Is it radical to want to live without fear? and nauseating environment, people and al1?

Detroit??: Worthless except L-7.

Heroes: Why not? You can get disappointed but some men are worthy of admiration. We live our lives from birth by example don't we? The so-called heroes had examples to follow as well. How did you learn language?

Drugs: Stupid but so is life. I like beer se Dart, lead singer and spokesperson for the Krucili-s band (from left). Ron DeMangd, Mayor Terry McKane's exceptive sidatast and Suphus Sawyer, city attorney met Teseday afternoon at Lanning City Hall to discuss reasons why the way cannot play at the North Lanning Community Caster Theoretic sight.

Lansing won't let punks play and ciggies and acid and benzedrine and mushrooms and THC and mescaline all in moderation of course! Pot sucks.

Straight Edge: I heard the straight was the testing ground for the CIA. I didn't drink beer when I was seventeen either. Big fucking deal-Nothing better to sing about? A pompous Marcus Welby Trip. Go brush your teeth and do commercials you nairly drove me crany in your asshole schools, grooming us all to be fucking fools, working for the government as semble tools, but we won't be satisfied till we trash your rules.

put a gun in my book and I'll do what you may but I'll burn down your bouse if I get away, three me in fail and I'll spit in your face, our marchy is gomma take your facking place...so

I would like to see a lot more cooperative action among all people against those who control, manipulate and kill and torture and

Gus Varner (Guitar... new..)-33 yrs. old Influences: Pink Floyd, Black Flag, Joe Dart, etc. etc.

Attitude: Close minded people, macho smashers etc. in a scene is more damaging than cops. We could change things if we quit defeating ourselves with negative head sets-I haven't done much but I would like to find people who want to move in a positive direction. Alot of people are cool but.... I'd like to grow, and see a "movement" arise from all the cliques. Punk snohs bullies are no better than frat rats or g-men. I don't know what to say to those types... just wish they'd wake up. My parents are more suppor-tive of what I want to do than most of my peers.

Steve Shelley (Drums) 20 yrs. old

Influences: Gene Autry, Marty Robbins, The Chipmunks, Beatles, pizza, echo and the Bunnymen, Killing Joke, disco Scott, Tim Foljahn, Mike Love, L-7 people in Midland, Saturday Nite Live, high school, quadrophenia, Mississippi Fred McDowell, the Jam.

If you like to hear it or see it, it Art: could be called art or fun. If it makes you think also—good. Not absolutely necessary. For example; emotional music including love, hate, confusion, and everything.

Violence: avoid if possible.
Government: You can live without the povernment. Live without it. Any Utopia is probably impossible but worth striving for. Each system will destroy the one before it -- but we still have a system. Maybe they will slowly get fairer to all people.

Punk rock: If you want punk rock watch t.v. This is beyond everything is beyond

Karma: I know this is a stupid sixties term but usually when I do good things, good things happen. Everything comes back to you.

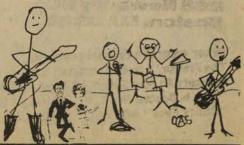

Music: Good music can be found in any penre...content and emotion are priorities.

Religion: must be a very personal thing.
Anyone who claims to know the one way is lost. All religions have good points--you learn from any of them-I still am. I believe in good and evil. It is hard to separate them at times.

Immediate plans: Hope to be playing out west this winter ... we're working on it. Record out soon??

Change: positively. The best change is to get yourself together. Only then can society get hetter. Something new happens every day ... look for it ..

Things are bursting all -new fanzines in the collectives shapes of Smash!, Suburban Punk, Connect and Concentration X....potential new venues in the forms of the Allston Knights of Columbus Hall (site the October PROLETARIAT/F.U.'S/JERRYS KIDS / DEEP WOUND big 'un) and the Cambridge First Congregational Church(locale the December for MISFITS/F.U.'s/D.Y.S./NEGATIVE FX bash), plus a new spot rumoured to be in the works in suburban Brockton. Other than those, venues are just about non-existent, with the always friendly Gallery East having closed some months back, and with most clubs refusing to comprimise either their inflexible tastes or their ridiculous door policies (20+...but skinny tie 'rockers" like BILLY IDOL still have all-ages gigs). Notable exception -- the Channel (25 Necco St., 617-451-1050, ask for Mark), who have occasionaly tried(and occasionally succeeded) in putting on all-ages shows with decent bills and easonable admission. Other than that, Boston is a town with an incredibly fast-growing HC audience, but there's no place to play, nor is there any consistent radio airplay or press coverage(save for Forced Exposure or Conflict). Sole radio bright spot would have to be WZBC's Dave Smallee (also vocalist for DYS) who has 15 minutes on Thursdays and 30 on Fridays with which to spew forth a pretty impressive variety of HC, noise, thrash, HM(KISS and MOTOTHEAD being faves). Emerson every night...)...

BANDS: SS DECONTROL: after quickly selling each and every copy of the first pressing of The Kids Will Have Their Say(2000), they decided not to further promote a record they felt to have been less than perfect(enter, collector's item status, plus pretty high standards on the part of a pretty integrity-filled band).

College's WERS offers a Sunday night laughable(eg. records often played at 30-mintue program, but it's pretty the wrong speed, the same material

last few months laying low('cept for gigs with MINOR THREAT in NYC and NJ), writing new material, enlisting a second guitar player, and recording a second album. I'd rather not get into a discussion of this band's relative strengths and weaknesses --- because the same points have been rehashed time and time again, so let me just say SS DECONTROL sing about more things than straight-edge, nor do they practiseany kind of facsism against those who disagree with them. They're an open-minded, concerned bunch who almost single-handedly got things going around Boston. As a result. they also become easy targets for those who refuse to take a look inside. MISSION OF BURMA: The city's best band as far as I'm concerned, if not the best band anywhere. Their first album proper, Vs. is out now on Ace-of Hearts, and it's an brilliant display of anger, energy and emotion. Hopefully they'll be touring the West Coast again soon... THE PROLETARIAT: an incredibly exciting band who simultaneously

THE PROLETARIAT: an incredibly exciting band who simultaneously recall the FALL, KILLING JOKE and first LP GANG OF FOUR. If they sound slightly British, that's OK because vocalist Richard Brown pulls it off with no hint whatsoever of phonyness. They're featured on both Modern Method sampler, have released one cassette EP, and are currently working on their first LP. They can relate to '77 political fervor better than anyone else here.

THE FREEZE: Strong songwriting

THE FREEZE: Strong songwriting abilities, not a heck of a lot else in terms of originality. They have a new EP("Guilty Face") out on Modern Method.

THE F.U.'S: Regarded at one time by me as not much than an amusing joke, the F.U.'S are now terribly strong, guitar player Steve Grimes suddenly sounding as loud as he should've....they can be heard on both Modern Method Samplers, the Master Tape Compilation, and on their upcoming LP....

JERRYS KIDS: Somebody give them a gig and then maybe I'll find out for sure. Good but nobdoy'll know unless they play out more...

D.Y.S.: My current pick for world domination...new guitar player plus some great new material...no vinyl yet, so I'm pissed...

NEGATIVE FX: Knocked out of the box after only 2 gigs(lead vocalist Choke was injured at a BLACK FLAG/MINOR THREAT gig on Long Island), FX have recently returned in triumphant style...Choke looking like an extra from a lumber jack film. The legend only grew during their long hiatus, many think they're the town's best. More tapes like the new "V.F.W." and I'll agree...

GANG GREEN: the best band from the Modern Method records, GANG GREEN have recently failed to live up to the promise of their initial buzzsaw attack. Last few gigs have been sloppy at best, breakups have been rumoured(bassist Bill's head supposedly on the chopping block at times), with a new record possibly in the new year. Key word: possibly. This band is too damn great to lose...

DEEP WOUND: young, loud and snotty from the Amherst/Northhampton area. Their horribly raw live cassette is a true howl....

DAVGEROUS BIRDS: great new single "Alpha Romeo"/"Smile on Your Face" out now on Propeller, sorta like a poppier version of the FALL, but much better than that discription can imply...

KIL SLUG: Unnatural acts with a stuffed panther. Some people find this kind of thing amusing. SMEGMA & THE NUNS: Mohawks and songs called "Napalm Sticks To Kids" do not commitment make.

commitment make.
CHRISTMAS: self-styled,
"avant-garage", always brilliant,
rarely booked by cowardly clubs.
PLIES: Not really a band, but a one-shot studio-concoction engineered by Mr. Nat Freedburg, with a blazing new EP out now on Czech Records...
NOVEMBER GROUP: Highly profitable synth-pop combo whom must rank style over substance, 'cause either than or they're stupid and untalented(which is probably the case?)

NATIVE TONGUE: Andy Schwartz called 'em a GANG OF FOUR ripoff, I call em better than PYLON. MINUTEMEN fans take a look in here... DEL FUEGOS: grundgeabilly, heavily lubricated and perfectly growled ... SORRY: ex-MISSION OF BURMA rip-off teenage combo who now hope to rip-off BLACK FLAG and the MEKONS at the same time. Actually quite good. BEANBAG: Makes THROBBING GRISTLE, WIRE, the VELVETS and anything else even remotly "influential" seem boring. Average age: 16? BOYS LIFE: Better than most jealous people are willing to admit. New 12" soon come. SICK SOCIETY: suburban "hardcore" band not doing CURE covers. Maybe not horrible if they ever learn to write a song.

PEACE LOVING ECOLOGISTS: My own revolving artsy project, named after the French Terroist Group that shot a missile at a nuclear power plant in the name of ecology. We specialize in playing a FLIPPER-like noiserush in front of agry High-School burnout audiences. Fun. that's all; If I forgot something, it probably didn't deserve to be mentioned. If anyone wants more info, a place to play, scene report, or a copy of my fanzine, write to Gerard Cosloy, co/CONFLICT, 9 Jefferey RD., Wayland MA. Ø1778(or those of you w/loads of cash to blow on phone calls, call #617-358-7065).

peace, love, etc Gerard

Punk in South Africa? It seemed inlikely.

But it exists. The movement small, and non-punks dismiss it. But its existence is important. The outspoken political views expressed on the next pages are rare. Most alternative music in that country seems to speak a sort of code, concerned only with jols (parties) and good times. But keep in mind, the entire country is ruled through fear.
As one South African friend wrote,

There is a high degree of apathy and disinterest, people are paranoid. Punk was never a real protest in South Africa, because whites didn't master, a bone like the "homelands." save much to protest about since they statistic. The whites, representing are unaffected by apartheid."

This 'disinterest' is a chilling ribute to a government's ability to mean to you? Gold? Diamonds? if they dare open their mouths in Sunshine? Cricket? Rugby? Apartheid? defiance. And losing your legal right Yes, South Africa is like any other to work in South Africa means country- there are those that rule starving in your resettlement and ealth. luxury, and alongside poverty, deprivation, and employer who isn't fussy about whom alongside poverty, deprivation, and employer who isn't fussy about whom starvation. There are millions of they employ. Yes, the "Final people exploited to keep the few in Solution" is almost with us again, luxury and power. There are people (If it's not here already). kept in ignorance of a better life, Modderdam was a squatter camp in shielded from those that benefit from the Western Cape. The people there their labor by the lines of police had come to find work, and despite and army conscripts, carefully large fines imposed on employers brainwashed at every turn, never caught using illegal labor, most did given any room for doubt or humanity—have some work. With the typical uthlessly turned into killers and

Yes, South Africa is like many other states, only one difference exists there. It is the perpetuation of the mentality of the colonizer, the imperialist, the doctrine which the doctrine which became a political mania under Hitler and his followers, the myth of the master race and the inherent genetic inferiority "colored" people. It of is that one difference that makes the South African regime so abhorent and the focus of so much attention.

I remember my parents telling me careful planning of the authorities, once how, when they had come to South the camp was raided and destroyed Africa as teenagers forty years ago, just as winter set in 1981. Over the country was a "paradise on earth" 1,000 people were arrested, given a the country was a "paradise on earth 1,000 people but had slowly gone downhill over the mock trial, and return the hloody blacks respective "homelands."

Yes, it is sick I know, but that is be legacy of South Africa, the disted distorted minds of the twisted distorted generations brought up and educated in such a system. The whites- the masters- educated to be boss, the ruler, with easy access to the wealth of the land- the technological rape of a beautiful country to satisfy the greed of the few. And the blacksslaves- un- or undereducated to keep them ignorant; the faceless fuel of the factories and mines. The dog Braaivleis, rugby, sunny skies, and RIOT SQUAD thrown the occasional bone by its

Statistic- The whites, representing about 16% of the population, have laid claim to about 85% of the land, olind its citizens to the obvious "tribal homelands" with each black the other part being divided into through isolation, fear, and apparent tribe having their own piece of land. JC, the author if this piece, was In reality, these homelands are no the drummer for RIOT SQUAD, a more than large scale concentration tow-defunct punk band which was camps/pools for cheap labor, set in courageous enough to denounce the the most desolate and underdeveloped apportisy that is South Africa. As an parts of the country. So far, four of the country is the set of the country. observer wrote. "RIOT SQUAD were these homelands have been given tucky, as the police did not "independence." All this means is understand what they were on about, that millions of people have been until they were safe." JC is now made citizens of these countries, and living in exile outside of South been forcibly dumped there. Those Africa to avoid service in the army. working in South Africa suddenly find themselves considered foreign migrant laborers. with the SOUTH AFRICA - What does that name deportation hanging over their heads those that are ruled. There is camp/homeland, or illegally entering decadence South Africa and finding work with an or humanity-have some work. With the

1,000 people were arrested, were arrested, given a and returned to their were never satisfied, and continually authorities admitted that most would wanted more and more. Don't they know return, because it was that "Fun in the Sun" was written starve. at that time. A "braaivleis" is the same as a barbeque, and is as much a part of South African culture as South African culture as apartheid. A line in a vast advertising campaign of the time went- "braaivleis, rugby, skies, and chevrolet ... " swimming pools A land of flowing milk and money Money and power The power of a gun and stick The power of the fools A land of plenty- hate, fear, and war The master race must have its sacrifice But for too many the wounds are still raw.

FUN IN THE SUN

Braaivleis, rugby, sunny skies, and big brother The ever present, all-seeing eye Playing the game of i-spy Playing games with people's lives One step forward, two steps back Back, back, back to the wilderness and the shack Back to the starvation, back to the desolation In the camps of no-hope lands.

Braaivleis, rugby, sunny skies, and warfare A war on the border that cannot be Hate in the cities that cannot be The iron fist of destruction It patrols the streets at night The numbing grip of the media shouts CHANGE, CHANGE, no change No change, no chance, only bloody, bloody revolutions.

Braaivleis, rugby, sunny skies, and genocide.

IN SOUTH AFRICA. . TO BE PUNK IS TO PUT YOUR LIFE

ON THE LINE.

separate completely from South Africa, that it you're confronted with a racial is difficult to comprehend what is problem, and it seems to overwhelm happening in that country. What we people to the point where they're 45 country ruthless lie, its inhabitants regard as home. We recently had the for white people... you're not opportunity to interview two South responsible for your actions. Life is African exiles now living in Northern so incredibly easy if you're white African exites now living in northern so increality easy if you're california. We began by discussing that you have two alternatives... the alternative music scene in the you're either numbed because you country, but this soon developed into don't give a fuck and want to enjoy that fear-dominated country.

MRR: How long have you been out of South Africa?

B: About two years.

MRR: And what is the music scene like there?

It's really closed. I can play a song that speaks out against the police, but South African record companies will not produce it. because it is not in their interest.

The media is tightly controlled.. the TV, the radio, the government controls them very tightly. Two stations operating outside of the country, in the so-called independent areas have been interested in the records and tapes by bands that would normally not get played in South Africa, playing more political, playing reggae-oriented 'alternative' music. Before that, no bands could make it by just playing, and those that did lived on the skids. The political music movement is very small. It's music movement is very small light definitely not featured on the local NAZI POSTER radio station.

circulated painful. MRR: Are tapes underground?

who produce them come from very well music anyway. Clubs open and to do backgrounds, sort of rebellious flourish, but when they become too youth. They do have a small popular the cops jump on them and youth. They do have a small popular the cops jump on them and following, but they're getting close them down. changed around so much, what with MRR: What kind of clubs? people going into the army and D: I guess you'd call them decadent everything... But they have a to break up the youth movements. in the army for two years right after they live, not getting married, not school, and they've just upped it so treating blacks like servants. that you have to go to military camp There are advances on the music for a certain period every year. level, the pressure is building on are really alienated. There's this stronger.

terrible feeling among South African MRR: But these people can exist only youth, sort of an inferiority as long as the government allows them complex... that Europe and America to, right? know better, which is kind of true D: Right. If they get too strong, because there is so much more the government will knock them downinformation out here. Censorship is The music scene is definitely get very little information.

groups that I thought were positive own culture. People latch on lifestyle and make them more than MRR: But does it exist? what they are." But because of the D: There are a few bands who play censorship, they can't really it, the younger bands, but it isn't understand what goes on outside. mean, you can buy a punk record, but the strength of the movement it represents is shielded from you.

Also, you're so overwhelmed with immediate problems that vour can't deal with anything further like EDITOR'S NOTE: Distance, history, and the nuclear problem. Every time you so open your eyes or look out your door, living a only concerned with survival.

South Africa is like a Kindergarten a more general discussion of life in the pleasures, or you're numb because the whole situation is so incredibly

> FACISM tical HITTERJUGEND CORTREKKERBEWEGING . S. AFRICAN STAMP

MRR: Are there changes coming? There are a few, but the bands D: There are some changes in the everything... night clubs. But they have a following of people who are more to break up the vouth movements. not oreak up the youth movements. politically active, but trying to in a sense, yes. You have to go break the social barriers in the way

Usually you have to do this on your the government, the tensions are vacation time.

The state of the state o MRR: How do people in South Africa saying there must be change.

maintain contact with the outside like anywhere, there are two th there are two things You do kind of keep in touch, but government is getting worse and the so rigid inside the country that you elitist. The magazines you see are get very little information. from the artier people, the new D: Having travelled outside the wavers, really trendy and upper country, and gotten information on class. The country doesn't have its from the artier people, the new or encouraging, I would go back to outside movements, whethr it's punk South Africa and think, "If these or disco. The real hardcore music is people only knew what was happening not the order of the day. It isn't out there, it would change their the music that is listened to.

> the younger bands, but it isn't generally accepted. The RADIO RATS who were considered to have punk attitudes in that when they were on stage they didn't try to please the audience... that was considered a really punk attitude, and even they weren't considered hardcore. I mean, attitude, and even they they had a hard look, but they didn't stand on the stage and say, you, fuck you..."
>
> MRR: Can the punk bands that do exist

tour?

B: There's not much room! Basically, there's Johannesburg, Durban, Capetown, a range of about 500 miles. Johannesburg is real conservative, and Pretoria, which is where all the government files are, is very government files are, is Afrikaans. Afrikaans, who are of Dutch ancestry, make up about 60% of the population and control government.

MRR: So the English are actually a minority too?

B: Yes, sort of. And there are a lot of Portuguese who fled Angola and Mozambique when those governments changed. And quite a number of Europeans, especially Germans. Among the whites there are a lot of segregated groups... the youth are not united, they fight a lot amongst themselves. When you go to parties fights break out. There's a need to prove your identity, a need for young men to be strong and fight. It's really primitive.

And this is a very important part of the government's policy, divide and conquer. They've done it with the blacks as well, because they all come from different tribes. In townships

(where black workers are stored while they work in white areas), people come from all over the country, but they're still kept in tribal groups, so it's very difficult for consciousness leaders to get everyone together soon. You live in fear. To stand and oppose it, to be punk, is to put your life on the line. And the more the you. successful you more are, dangerous it will be for They have numerous ways for getting rid of you. You can be busted on any charge, terrorism, drugs, anything, and they can take you away without formal charges. There's this fear that people here do not understand. You ask a friend about so and so who died in prison, and it may be a close friend, but they won't want to talk about it. It's nullifying. You don't act under fear.

The frustrations must really their annual leave from work. MRR: build up.

MRR: Can you explain the government's homeland strategy?

B: About six years ago, the government established the Transkei and Bophutatswana which Johannesburg as black homelands. They did this so they could control the number of blacks who live near urban white areas. Every black person has a homeland, and each of the homelands is a barren, infertile, pretty useless place. If blacks transgress in any way, they're sent back to the homel ands. children live there, return three weeks out of the year on with very, very, paranoid people. For at all times. A policeman can stop bomb. one thing, they have no place to go. you at any time and demand your D: It one thing, they have no place to go. you at the control of their white blood is very passbook. If you don't have it, you have their white blood is very passbook. If you don't have it, you have their white blood is very passbook. If you don't have it, you have their south Africa is another the precious to them. They have this go to jail. That's why South Africa South Africa is another the genetic thing going just like the has the second highest number of against the Russians.

Nazis.

D: It's very easy to become Russia.

Something like 600 U.S. companies that in South Africa. Every control of the south Africa is aware of the moment. Apartheid, but they want their moment.

that and who previously employed you. If company that deals there is aware to me you're not employed at the moment, apartheid, but they want the up you have no right to be there, so factories there because the labor you're thrown in a police van, taken so and shipped back to to jail. homeland where there is no barren work, malnutrition is rife ... termed them 'dumping grounds.' priest

"The United States is South Africa's largest trading partner, its second largest everse investor, and the supplier of nearly one-third of its overseas credit." Dick Clark, Chairperson of Subcommittee on African Affairs, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, New York Times

MRR: What can people in the U.S. to support the movement in South

B: First, they must become aware of D: They do seem to be accepting how much your government is involved certain Usually, the women and in dealing with South Africa. America unfortunately it's a responsibility and the men under Reagan is now supplying a new for profits, and therefore they send of the year on computer to help them in the arms and ammunition.

: The frustrations must really their annual leave from work. construction of nuclear bombs. And ld up. Blacks who sneak into town what's really interesting is that It's incredible. When you deal illegally live in continual fear, every time there are riots in South with the government, you are dealing because they have to carry passbooks Africa, they speed up work on the cheap, and their profits are the higher.

I was just starting to think ... one there is a lot of hope Africa. And it isn't something I know much about, but the black has really grown in the last ten years. Before, blacks were servile, they expected to be inferior. And that is changing really a lot. There's not the acceptance any more. There's a strong resentment, and a working toward solidarity.

On that, it's really positive.

requires that people here become aware of what is happening, and make a stand to effect change. Accept responsibility not only for South Africa, but also for Central America, and almost every war on the planet.

What a big load!

It is, but at least it's acting semi-appropriately

MRR: Do you really see the U.S. government doing this?

responsibilities,

Interviewed Nov. 20th at CBGB by Lyle Hyson with assistance of Paul Praver & Carly Sommerstein

Dave Insurgant - Vocals Al Pike - Bass Paul - Cuitar Steve W. - Drums

TRR: What's the deal with your record? Al: It should be coming out within the next onth or two, possibly before next year. : It's going to contain "Degenerated", MRR: Nowhere", "Reagan Youth", "Brave New simul World" It should be out on Rat Cage.

fRR: What would you feel if there was a total commercialization of REAGAN YOUTH with I'd be very upset; I don't want to see that.

wanna pet our message across, that's it. Is this an anarchy band?

Paul: No, this isn't an anarchy hand. We're Dave: Well there is Afront, which isn't just a rock and roll hand with a political trying to keep people aware, through our nave: We aren't, and then we are. It listen and to be aware.

Paul: We're just trying to arouse reaction; Al: Just for the record, we are not an anarwe are not telling anyone what to do. Just chy hand.

against the circle?

like sheep in one direction, and if they see MR: one poor soul really enjoying the hand and "scene?" then all of a sudden the arm comes out of Al: We are here, we can't go anywhere.
nowhere-ham!-the puy goes down. Not cool. Dave: I think it is full of shit. I think assage from "Brave New World", what was your or kicks ass.

It is about how kids are being brainwashed, from hirth on. A reality is being created, it's brainwash, and that is what is happening here. You are conditioned from day one for hot dogs, America, this is our country, freedom, kill communists.

MRR: Do you think anyone really understood that?

Dave: I don't think so.

MRR: You help put out "Vegetable Digest", and the Anarchy paper, what was your purpose in doing that?

Dave: To educate. It's geared towards punks who run around with circled A's and have no idea what it is about.

MRR: What is the anarchistic message that you are trying to put across? Pave: It's really hard to define, everyone has their own personal interpretations, the thing that holds it together is everyone holds onto similar ideas and characteristics and heliefs. It just comes down to showing no authority over other people.

RR: No authority? The authority? "on and dad authority?

Pave: Just no authority, like government, like presidents, the church.

MRR: No social system whatsoever?

Dave: Whatever develops.

MRR: Start over all over again and see what happens?

Dave: Start over in your lifetime. Live your life the way you want to live it.

Al: Anarchy as in self anarchy, no one telling you what to do.

MRR: Does that apply to everything else? Dave: It's just recognizing bullshit.

Al: Realizing it is bullshit.
Dave: Live the way you want to live, recognize the bullshit, and do what you want about it. I know we are also saying people should unite, and live peacefully and get together and not fight.

Obey the trut

Anarchy, unity and "Brave New simultaneously.

Dave: Right, and its not a contradiction like some people think. It's just people doing what they want to do, and living with ee-shirts, buttons, arm-bands, posters, other people who live the same way. Start a commune if you want, start a revolution if you want, even though I don't think personally revolutions are going to be successful be-Paul: I don't know what I'd think. cause you are just roing to have another Al; I don't want to be a superstar, I just authority taking over.

wpq: Do you associate yourself with any political groups or organizations?

really an organization, it is a sort of label message.
Al: We don't preach political anarchy, just I don't like using labels, it's a social self anarchy. We use the political message group or people who get together and just so people (will) keep aware about what communicate, through music, literature, art, anyway they want. in which we can centralize. We are using it, I don't like using labels, it's a social

We write our own melodies and the depends on how you term an anarchistic band. lyrics contain the problems of society and You can term PIL an anarchistic hand, you can how to cope with it. We are not telling term CPASS an anarchistic hand, but they people to do it, but we just want people to differ. They are both anarchistic bands in en and to he aware.

Al, when you dance, why do you dance and take it for what it is, REAGAN YOUTH. It is better if you don't label, Pecause everyone is going around just ideas, these are just my ideas.
sheep in one direction, and if they see MRR: What do you think of NY and it's pot a lot of ideas, everyone in the hand has

Dave, at the Mudd Club gig you read a it is cool when you go out and no one fights and that is great people let each other do what they do, that is preat. MP: How come you are one of the few bands that can draw from different cliques?

have: It is an attitude, not us vs. All these bands with cliques have this big separatist thing. This hand is against that band, that band against this band. I might not like a lot of bands' music, I hate a lot of bands' music, but I'll still support them hecause that is what they like to do, except if they're nazis. I'm only going to if they're nazis. I'm only going to criticize a band, if they say they wanna kick someone's ass. Music is music, but bands are like, we rule, NY rules, Foston rules, DC rules and this hand rules, that hand rules that really pisses me off. What we are saying is unite, maybe that is why. It is like you should limit yourself, but of course you have your best friends, the people you feel close to. If that is a clique, that is OK, as long as you are not exclusive or elitists. Elitist in the sense that you are hetter than someone else. It is stupid to think I'm not conna talk to him, because they're hard, they're too hard, they're soft, I'm not going to talk to skinheads, I'm not ponns hangout with hardcores, mods, or punks, all these words are stupid, they just divide instead of uniting. The people are being deceived, the kids are being deceived about the whole theory of divide and conquer. Recause they have you against everyone, against each other, against women, whites against blacks, freedom against democracy, it's all bullshit.

MRR: What do you think the difference between punks and hippies is?

Dave: I'm not really all that sure. I sup-nose it's a different type of music and hairstyle.

Al: A lot of people like to go against hippies: "Look at that longhair, let's heat the shit out of them!" but those peoplle never really knew what the hippies were for. he hippies were for the peace, they were for that, and people wanna go and hash thier

Pave: You can consider us a hippy hand or a hardcore hand or a punk hand; labels don't matter. You have to treat everyone on an individual message - PEAGAN YOUTH says this or REACAN YOUTH says that - NO, someone said scrething specific about something, everyone is treated individually, it's not dogmatic or anything like that. That is what we are against

TALSE PROPHE

BAND: Stephan - vocals Peter - quitar Patrick - drums Steve - bass

The FALSE PROPHETS are a New York band with a distinctive sound and approach. Seeing a FALSE PROPHETS show is really seeing one they employ all types of entertaining stage ntics and theatrics, and an intelligence that elevates them above labels. We did this interview after an early Dec. matinee at Carly: What happened to your old drummer? eter: You can take the boy out of Brooklyn, out you can't take the Brooklyn out of the He's a great musician but he wants to fool around, whereas we have vision and a direction we want to go Patrick is sitting in with us and we're noing with Natz (both of the UNDEAD) which we esnect.

Stephan: Unless we slip into his apartment one "You want night and stick the electrodes onto be a FALSE PROPHET, you want to be a FALSE

Carly: What's it like living on Avenue B? teve: (sings) Broken glass everywhere eople pissing on the stairs like they just don't care

Rats in the front room, roaches in the back Junkies in the alley with a baseball bat Peter, Stephan: That's it

Some of the lyrics to "Good Clean are- "Anarchy is not no Rollerderby" How do you feel when you're playing that and people are slamming around?

Stephan: I get a kick out of it, it's funny. The words "kill kill kill" and "main main are so pronounced you dont hear "brain" not an anti-slam dancing song, it's anti-mindless violence. A rollerderby is a priece of entertainment, a put on show. If the violence is going to happen, make it be real. Something that stirs you.

Sometimes it really depresses me to play to people knocking the shit out of each other, but like today dozens of people were diving off the stage and that was great. I ove the chaos.

eter: The thing about violence everybody knows that New York is a violent place, and living on Ave B we see it, and we experience it. When I'm having a fight with some drug crazed Sid-clone and then I go in kids are slamming, it looks like child's play.

Stephan: We live w/ too much real violence. This studio was baptized the first night playing here by a muy across the street blown away with twelve of thirteen shots riddled into his body.

Carly: How do you think the false violence, the negative violence could be changed? Peter: Change the pace of the music.

Stephan: The message has to get that it's for each person to get their own agression out and getting beat up just gets you more frustrated.

How did you find the Marat/Sade opera you did today?

Peter: Um, when I was younger, I used to listen to a lot of different kinds of music and that was on a Judy Collins record.

Stephan: Oh, you blew it! Peter: The play is really great, it's about the Marquis de Sade in a mental asylum with Jean-Paul Marat (the 18th Century French revolutionist), I really like the music and the spirit of it. Stephan: We want to be the Channel 13 of I really like the music and hardcore. (local educational/arts channel) Peter: The music doesn' matter, where it's from, as long as it expresses what we want it

There will always be people down, Stephan: revolution is timeless. I think the feelings hehind it could be easily translated into something like "Rise Above".
Carly: I like the lines "Were poor. And the poor stay poor'

Stephan: It could be the bands and the clubowners. We will never make a dime off this unless I dye my hair blond and join MISSING PERSONS. It's just that feeling of being put down all the time, because punk is a minority.

Carly: What are some of the things you like and don't like about punk today?

Steve: There's a lot of great bands coming I think BLACK FLAG and HEART ATTACK in) might and should get together for one last "Till we get a new bass player" gig sin-Ce Tucky (hass) is going back to school in January. Becently the U.K. SUBS played C.P.-G.P.'s with THE MISGUIDED and were real-But of course, the N.Y.ers showed ly rood. how Anglophilic they are. By crowding up to the stage for the SUBS and either going outside or in the dressing room with the Limeys. If the SURS weren't playing and it was only THE MISCUIDED they would've all been crowded up front. But since it was a hand from Fngland, or anywhere other than N.Y., they had to show'em how hardcore they are. Well, had to show'em how hardcore they are. as Mike from THE NIHILISTICS put it "The Beat goes on". If anyone knows about whats going on in this heautiful (sic) world it's Mike. Well, it's a short report, but it says it.

Thanx-

Raw Peartless (Ex-Fathead Suburbia) were the first two. Also, kids, fuckups, and misfits all together, 15 years old or 30, all them getting together toward a common thing, to knock down the faceless monster that's trying to squash us. Things I don't like are the bands with ten songs that sound the same. A lot of times it's an all-male thing which I don't like, when you're playing to fifty guys dancing. Carly: There's a lot of sexism. Stephan: We like girls. We want to be the

Alan Alda of hardcore.

Peter: Put is it really sexism? Is it anymore sexist than the desire to go play football, which isn't completely anti-woman, just pro-male. I don't think it's on a conscious level.

Stephan: It's ignorance. What I like is the enthusiasm. I like it that anyone can be a star, you're only about a foot higher than everyone else when you play and then after you're down with everyone. I don't like the you're down with everyone. bands that showe a philosophy down people's throats. Rastafarianism is sexist and racist and to preach (it) and also preach unity is as good as having a swastika and an anarchy symbol next to each other, which gets back to i onorance.

Peter: I like boom bam boom; you can take all the philosophy in the world but we all respond to the energy and power of the music. Patrick: The thing that's good is unity. The thing that's bad is labelling.

Carly: What kind of music do you listen to? Stephan: I listen to anything with words, with subtle messages. IAN HUNTER, MOTT THE HOOPLE, PATTI SMITH, LOU REED. To me it's poetry because it's realistic, somebody cut-ting through the bullshit. BIAFRA's oot something to say. Jessie Malin (of HEART ATTACK) Ian Curtis had great has something to say. Ian Curtis had great things to say. I also like listening to horror movie soundtracks- the Exorcist, the Shining, anything that can creep me out and get me in the right mood to write a song.

"I love Steve: (a la Oscar the Grouch) "I love trash. . " I listen to a lot more rap, reggae, and funk than everyone else in the band. JOY DIVISION, PATTI SMITH, SEX PISTOLS, DOLLS, BLACK FLAG's album is great. The first side is all anthems and the second side is really disturbed. You play it when you're over your friend's house the morning after and his roomate is passed out on the floor turning blue. Early STO rock, SAVAGE REPUBLIC, FLIPPER STONES, girlgroup

I've been listening to THEATRE OF HATE, WIPERS, BLACK FLAG's "Damage", BEASTIE BOYS !

Carly: Any final comments?

Steve: Don't take us too seriously. Stephan: Don't listen to a god damn word we say cause we're... FALSE PROPHETS (sings) Sometimes we lie sometimes we tell the truth. Most of the time we verbally masturbate everywhere!

RAT CAGE RECORDS ·SAT.NOV20-BEASTIE BOYS REAGAN YOUTH THE YOUNG AND THE USELESS · SUN NOV2I · MEATPUPPETS BLOODCLOT! RONTLINE BOWERY AT BLEECKER

NEW YORK SCENE REPORTS "ey, whats going on hereyeah here's a report of a so-called scene, New York Sure we have hands, people, more or less of a club, maybe even a hangout. But there's no imminent scene! Well anyway I hope The hest hands (in my print this. are THE NIHILISTICS (even though they re from Long Island) and THE MISCUIDED. KPAUT blow for all I'm concerned. Vinyl has been coming from N.Y. lately, the best being (who else) THE NIHILISTICS and MISGUIDED. ADPTVALIN O.D. are cool, they're from New Jersey but who cares. So far 2 compillations have come from M.Y., "The Pip Apple, Rotten to the Core" and New York Thrash" cassette and they both suck! Javi Savage from the now defunct SAVAGE CIPCLE is going to put out a 7" comp. on his own Big City label. This just might be it. I think THE NIHILISTICS.

PEAGAN YOUTH, UPPAN WASTE are poing to be on it. FATHEAN SUPHERIA (the hand I used to be

Yawn. The past couple of months have been pretty slow. As quickly as the club doors open to "hardcore" they shut down because of (heard this before?) violence, or lack of

CLUB 57, NY's best club, re-opened temporari- Editor, now featuring Tim Sommers on hass. The club print this letter, 'cause it's real imnortant then featured a great show with MINOR THREATS/SS DECONTROL and MDC. MDC shows are show with MINOR planned, BUT there are rumors about the clubs' current state of existence (or lack

MY FATHER'S PLACE is not really a "home of the club is closing at the end of Dec.

FILMORE, which featured DISCHARGE, feel welcomed. EFFIGIES, closed for renovations, but will be reopening. Supposedly it will be turned into a "major" club. CBGB is still having REAGAN YOUTH have all played. They're having 3 nights (3 NIGHTS!) of the UK SUBS in Dec. The BAD BRAINS just played with DOUBLE-O, and SCREAM. This is supposedly Darryl's last show.

FALSE PROPHETS have lost their drummer, MATTY Well, that's that! Lyle ly with ADRENALIN OD, KRAUT, and EVEN WORSE I'm writing to you guys hoping that you'!! happpen to be in New York hardcore hands.

First off: I want to say that A LOT of us kids who are in the New York hardcore scene are fucking fed up with all the assholes who keep on saying how fucked the scene is in New York. There's a couple of us hands here who hardcore", but did feature shows irregularly. are breaking our halls - really trying to The CIRCLE JERKS are playing there soon, but make the scene better and unite both punks annd skins. Whenever bands or people come in from out of state we always try and make them feel welcomed. Ye, that's not always the case though when we go to other scenes. I just hope that someday instead of all the a "major" club. CBGB is still having different scenes talking about how much that matinees on a regular basis. FALSE PROPHETS, particular state or scene talking about how much that particular state or scene rules, all the kids will just be friends and united, instead of fighting and putting each other down. For instance on Nov. 20, 1002 the BYO in Philly orpanized their first pip which took place in Camden "I with: MI"OP THPEAT (PC), S.S. Cameen "J with: MIMOR THREAT (PC), S.S. PECCOUTPOL (Poston), ASNOSTIC FRONT (PY), CRIP DEATH (Philly), FLAG OF DEMOCRACY (Philly). SUPPERTY to love and Long Island. PATRICK There wasn't one fight. Everyone had a great (ex-UNDEAD)is filling in temporarily. tire, and kids from 4 different scenes got along real good.

The PYO in Philly is the best thing that ever happened to the east coast, and the kids who are part of it should really be congratulated for what they are doing.

Another very important point I want to bring up is this thing about how HARD you can he. Very recently I told this girl who I was going with that she wasn't HARD enough to hanr out in the scene. Yo, when I calmed down an hour later and thought about what I had said, I felt like such an asshole. The next day I lost a real cool girlfriend (Wednesday, AKA Emily), but gained a lot of fucking sense. So all you kids out there, hefore you so telling someone how HARD they are or aren't, remember all that really matters is your attitude and how much you helieve in yourself and the scene.

One last thing: more and more I have seen pirls at hardcore gigs dancing and even diving off the stage, side by side with the puys. That's fuckin creat. So, you guys when you're out there on the floor thrashine and there's rirls out there with you, rive them some room and let them participate too. And when anybody dives off the stape, yo, don't be an assholle and move out of the way, because hitting that floor really SUCKS. And one thing, I've noticed is that when anyhody does hit the floor the kids are helpine them up and that's so fuckin cool. Roston - New York - Philly - DC: let's be friends and cut all the bullshir, because "NO ONE PULES".

-Ray (drummer) AGMOSTIC FRONT, N.Y.C.

ardcore has spread like the plague in the nited States during that past two years, and preatest thing about it is watching a cene prow. Who ever thought that in a state hat hoasts heauty papeants, barbeques, and shopping malls, an important scene would ew Jersey's theme is to have as much fun as cossible and to kill the monotony of whurbia. This theme is reflected in New

he proun I drum for is called ADPENALIN O.D. de give new meaning to the words obnoxious fise asses. Our smart mouth sense of humor shines through songs like "We're Gonna Hijack the Senior Citizen's Rus", and "Old People Talk Loud". (We have nothing against old people, we think everyone should hury one.) We really don't have any strong political themes. Besides, when you live in New Jersey, what is there to complain about exept the smell? We have 2 cuts on the upcom ing BAD BRAINS compilation, and a 6-song EP called "Let's Barbeque with ADRENALIN O.D.", which should be out by Christmas '82. 1v> MOURNING NOISE is a four-piece band from the MISFITS town of Lodi. They are great musicians and real cool guys. Mike their singer is the four time winner of the Meatloaf look-alike contest. They have only played twice and have already been gaining They have a song Zero" onthe Me recognition. called Meathouse Underground compilation.

SURURBICIDE has a mean thrash and skank sound. Their lead singer RAVENX is a maniac and their newest line-up includes MISFITS photographer Eerie Von Stelman on drums. They, too, have a cut on the Meathouse cassette called "Furitive".

CRIP DEATH adds a change of musical pace. They are the world's first psychedelic, hardcore, heavy metal, surf, art damage hand. Some of their songs actually make your ears

Other great M.J. bands include TDV, DOOM PATPOL, SAND IN FACE, THE FARTHEADS, AUTISTIC BEHAVIOR, and the now defunct NO DEMOCRACY.

Due to the depressing club scene we have at the time, an organization called the NEW JERSEY ALTERNATIVE MUSIC SOCIETY has been formed. It includes members of AOD and CRIP DEATH. They have rented out a hig theater in Mewark and are putting on their own shows, in the vein of E.Y.n.

One thirr that makes New Jersey outstanding its radio stations. There are many hardcore and underground college stations across the state. The best by far is Upsala Colleges, WFMU. Every Thursday night you can tune into Pat Duncan's show. Not only is the Maximum Rock-n-Roll show played, but once a month Pat has live on the air concerts with local and out-of-state bands playing in the

THE MOST IMPORTANT THING TO HIT NEW JERSEY SINCE THE DISCOVERY OF BAD ODOR

THE NEW JERSEY ALTERNATIVE MUSIC SOCIETY

Proudly Presents

Hardcore Holiday Bash

THE FUS From Boston ADRENALIN O.D. CRIB DEATH & GUESTS

> Saturday Dec. 18th N.I.V.P. Theater

SHOW STARTS AT 8:00 P.M.

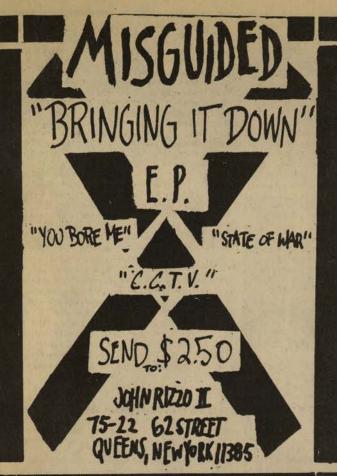

New Jersey hasn't really fallen into the ranks of the violent scene which is destroy ing many good places. This hopefully will enable the state to prosper in a healthy way As of now, the only violence in the scene ar old ladies chasing us around with brooms.

For more info on NJ or AOD wriite:

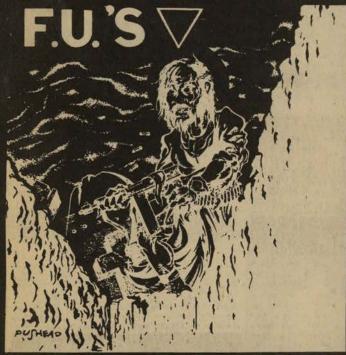

Dave Scott Grant Clifton.

Also hands could send me their tapes and records for airplay on Pat Puncan's show or review in ASSASSIN OF YOUTH magazine.

MATERIA CHECKS NO YOU'VE COURT OUT TO JOHN MET OF THE STREET THROUGH ROUGH TRASS L FANT MODULES

KILL FOR CHRIST OUT NOW!

F.U.'S

60 BOB FURAPPLES

45 LYDON WAY

DORCHESTER, MA 02124

E.P. ELAIM! ARE YOU A REAL RECORD HUNTER?!? HAVING TROUBLE TRACKING THAT VINYL?!?.....

Joe's

Record Paradise

FROM ABWARTS TO ZEV WE GOT IT ALL . SEND FOR OUR FREE
CATALOG

2229 BEL PRE RD. SILVER SPRING, MARYLAND 20906 301-598-8440

Philly BYO - 11/20/82 - Camden, NJ: MINOR THREAT/ SS DECONTROL/AGNOSTIC FRONT/CRIB DEATH/FLAG OF DEMOCRACY

Since the two Punk Festivals that were organized by SADISTIC EXPLOITS in late '81, Philadelphia has had an alternative scene, completely independant of the big money clubs. There have been hard times and lost venues (some due to stupid trashing inside the halls), but the energy is always there. Some big shots attempted to monopolize the alternative gigs, which did not help the scene at all, but their names mean nothing around here any more.

After a rough summer that included a big hust at an outdoor gig (with AUTISTIC BEHAVIOR), an intense violent attack in a white phetto (the DK gig), and confrontations with Jah's soldiers in BAD BRAINS, a small group of active locals had a meeting to begin a Philly chapter of PYO. In the spirit of unity, we formed with the hope of finding a permanent hall, promoting the local scene and bands, doing rigs with bands from elsewhere, and to form networks with other punk organizations, e.g. BYO people in California, REACAN YOUTH's projects, and and whoever else is similarly Philly BYO is non-profit, non-profit, active. non-hierarchical (yes, organization is pos-sible without power) and has a variety of participating members. This includes people from local zines (Savage Pink, Die Young, Anarchy for Punks), and HC radio (WKDU - Riot Show - soon to host Maximum Rock'n'Poll). Philly BYO recently had a Video Party (of Philly pigs), and put on its first show: November 20- Ruff Hall (Camden, NJ - right next to Philly).

AGNOSTIC FRONT, from NYC, opened and went still through an excellent set, showing much impression and a positive/united attitude. Their energy and dedication suggest that this hand will be around for a long time.

The next two sets were from local bands who have renently formed. It was FLAG OF DEPOCRACY's first gig, and one of the earliest gigs with CRIE DEATH. They were well received and both show potential. CRIE DEATH has recently been responding to a bit of controversy over a song entitled "I Hate Girls". They feel misinterpreted and have since clarified that they "do not hate women, just girls." You can decide your own conclusion.

CRIB DEATH

It was predictably wild when Boston's SS DECONTPOL roared through their highly energetic set. They were both positive and supportive when speaking between songs and had left an unforgettable mark with their first gig in this area. One of the highlights was when they were impersonating cops, complete with flashing lights.

DC's MINOR THREAT played last and, needless to say, kept the energy up with their intense ultra-thrash set. This was in spite of some moron who drove high speed on the street, which the hall was on, and barely missed hitting a skateboarder, crashed into the front end of SSD's van and caused leg and head injuries to Ian (who was walking to SSD's van). Ian was in pain, but was quickly released from the nearby hospital. Their set was still fantastic and included some very impressive new material.

MINOR THREAT AT PHILLY BYO GIG

It was really sad that Ian and SSD had to go through all of that shit. There were a few other incidents in this generally rough and junkie-plagued area. Fortunately a hiker group, The Ghetto Riders, were on the same block, and were not only friendly, but had done a lot to keep things cooler than it would have been without them. They also got into the thrashing, in a positive way, and loved it. The local cops were well-behaved, unlike the notorious Philly cops.

It seems like a consensus that this gig was a true uplift. The punks from the four cities got along fine, as well as punks from the Alhany, North Jersey and other regional scenes. A hig thank-you is due to the bands and to everyone who came to the gig and made it what it was. This marked a turning point towards a new, forward beginning. Stay tuned — we'll keep you posted.

-Ronald Thatcher
Philly RYO
P.O.Box 40193
Philadelphia, Pa. 19106

P.S. There is at least one other band also using the name of CRIB DEATH

uNsCene Report

So here it is, the "N.C. Scene Report". Wow. First the Bands; NO LABELS; started this summer with several personnel changes in the beginning. Hard & fast & lots of great songs. I like 'em. CORROSION OF CONFORMITY; also started this summer. Great thrash band. You can tell the DISCHARGE influence, but lyrics somewhat lack. COLCOR; First lineup were really, good- great songs + lyrics. New lineup will have new name. Haven't heard them lately, but I hear they've improved alot. NO ROCK STARS broke up; but were a really good band when they weren't doing covers. They plan on getting back together for the No Core Tour at Christmastime. These four bands are all on the N.C. hardcore compilation tape "No Core" It's $4 pp. Get it from 1005 St Marys Street, Raleigh, NC27605. Buy it or else. For you fanzine collectors, we have Southern Lifestyle, lots of record + live reviews, interviews, and pics. A really good fanzine 75c at 1005StMarysStreetRaleighNC27605. New Breed; a big zine from Charlotte. Lots of original art and pics + reviews. New Breed editor, Jeff Clayton, is the singer for WORTHLESS CREED. Haven't heard them yet but I'd like to. New Breed c/o Jeff Clayton, 3135-I CentralAve.ChaNC 28205 75c. Now I get to plug my zine Death Skate, art, interviews and of course skating w/ pics, too701 E.WhitakerMillRd. RalNC27608 50c+post.

NO LABELS SINGER WAYNE KERR

The NC scene has definitely picked up over the summer with lots of new kids and stuff. As far as clubs go, the Pier sometimes books the local bands but most of the time it's either schlock rock or arty pop muzak. (Out of towners visiting call LEE(919)8320809 for info on booking NC) Instead of complaining the locals just get organized and put on a show at the infamous Turner St Party Grounds. Where many a great party has been had. When the local kids ain't on the stage, they're on the street pulling out their boards and hitting the many banks, ramps, and parkinglots. So buy the tape, buy the zines, and everything will be cool. The END

Errol EngelBrecht

FLORIDA: KEY WEST

My name is Toledo and I came to K.W. when the scene was starting. I was hired by METPO a power pop band, as manager in '79. (I for-merly jammed w/ECROS as a guest nuisance and played in another Ohio band - DANGLING ADSTRACTIONS). A K.W. club, Capt. Tony's. receptive to new music so METRO became the house hand and started playing less pop, more punk. I quit 'ETRO to start my own band in '31. Slamfests occurred with alarming regularity at Tony's until last month when the management announced that the only non-pay/non-Jimmy Buffet club in town didn't want to scare off tourists. Bands were told to tone down or play elsewhere. The scene is small but tight. THE METEROS, my band, have a loval following and although slamming is banned at bars (and THE HETEROS can't play at the Keys College, the Sands, or Capt. Tony's nymore) there are alot of parties to play. KWF had an alternative hour which was run by ruce Youngblood. All of the local punks got guest host the show until the station fired Bruce and went hip hand format(?!). Meyt to go was a local fag mag which Morld's Fair, T.V.A., Clinch River Breeder Reactor and in the heart of the "Bible Belt". Knoxville has a thriving yet totally ignored punk scene centered around a dingy biker har called BUNDULLEE'S. Local H.C. favorites S.T.D. to release a 6 song 12" E.P. in January. ANGRY YOUTH, Knoxville's first H.C. hand broken up after 1 1/2 years of headhanging. Art damage favorites TURBINE 44 played their first out-of-town show Oct 22 in' Nashville to a crown of 15. Remnants of ANGRY YOUTH form different hands - ABSENTEES & RICHT GUARD, the 1st H.C. band w/a sax player. Look for S.T.D., RICHT GUARD tour in Atlanta, Nashville, Akron, Cleveland, and possibly N.Y. & N.J.

Hello, and Greetings from England! First of all, let me introduce myself...my name is 'Dig', and I'm a 22 year old punk living in Nottingham, in the Midlands area of England. I run a fanzine (the only "punk" zine in my city) called "The Dawning of a New Error" and have been involved in putting on shows in the city for the bands which I like, and also happen to know personally—like FLUX OF PIMK INDIANS, RUDIMENTARY PENI, and the SUBHUMANS, to name a few.

I received a copy of your first Max R 'n R zine from Bill who runs Toxic Shock record Pomona with whom I correspond ly, exchanging views, records, irregularly, exchanging views, tanes, etc. (Ouick plug for Bill there!). Anyway, I was so impressed by the quality of your zine that I just had to write. particular, the letters you published showed that your readers seem to have a very high level of awareness of what exactly con-stitutes the "punk" scene, its limitations, its poals, and especially its political values. This is in stark contrast to the majority of "punx" of my acquaintance here in Porland-most of whom are only interested in when, say, the next EXPOLITED (sic) e.p. is due out or where the next tin of glue is coming from. There are, of course, some punks (usually CFASS-influenced) who treat the whole scene as something more than an excuse to jump-un-and-down and act obnoviously, but these are, sadly, in the minority. It's fair to say that, in my experience, probably 70 - 90% of puny at any particular of a harm POT of numr at any particular of have never read a fanzine! And the 20 -307 who have read zines probably do their own anyway!

Another thine which impressed was your exhaustive reviews of the British new releases. The reviewer's showed great insight into the current U.V. punk scene, as evidenced by the amount of very incisive remarks made about such lame-brain acts as the EYPOLITED (sic) named Jon Lutes. Apparently the articles got a little too H-C for the magazine who informed us that our column was pre-empted for Currently. Uncool advertising. (HETEROS sax player) is working on a fanzine. In Miami H-C bands (THE ESSENTIALS, ABUSERS who opened for BLACK FLAG, and assorted others fluctuating between defunct and active phases) can be heard at Finders lounge where sympathetic owner states, You punks are weird but fun to watch." The New Have Lounge no longer hires hands and bouncers prevent any enthusiastic dancing. 27 Birds still hires hands but frowns on slamming. Open Pecords is now recording local hands and has botline for info on acts at local clubs. Underground radio is alive in Miami on Monday nights in a show calld "Radio Free Living Room" which airs from 12-2 A.M. open records supports local bands at little or no profit and they publish a fanzine, Suburban Relapse. Underground press/vinyl is available is Key West at Car-tunes. (1510 Bertha St)

Later,

HETEROS

P.S. Write the HETEROS (the only hand that doesn't matter) at P.O. Box 2888, Key West, 33040

P.P.S. A new punk record shop, R.P.M., is opening soon! It is located at Petronia & Whitehead in K.W. Open Records address is 401 Propresso Pr.,Ft. Lauderdale,Fl 33304 They have details on punk press/radio in Miami!

i.e., "U.K. version of the PLASMATICS -fexactly true!\ or the BUSINESS i.e., "Generic Oi with a five-year old theme" -(spot on apain!\. I'd he interested to know how you get your information on the U.K. scene? Presumally from the capitalist-owned music weeklies--N.M.E. and Sounds? In my orinion, the writines of Garry Pushell in Sounds have been very damaging to the punh:

scene. In your introduction to the U.K. reviews in $1 you accuse him of heing "uncritical". I would go further than that -- in my estimation, he has totally abused his privileged position as being the U.K.'s most widely-read "punt" journalist by being downright biased against some records (CRASS and their ilk' while being unduly sychoantic toward any hand featuring a skinhead singer. For instance, the whole "Oi!" categor (formerly "Oi! Oi!") was nothing but a fig category ment of his own imagination -- at least in the early days (1.e., 1980). Bands which harely existed, let alone played any pigs, were men-tioned for months in Sounds on the strength of a few rips in the East End of London. This was nothing short of downright MANIPULATION of the power of the press which re possessed. It was his very own Rock and Swindle, and the mass of new punky recrufts (there being a punk resurgence at that time' fell for it immediately--purely hecause they did not know any better. Bands such as the EYPIOITED, 4 SKINS, INFRA-PIOT, BUSINESS, COLARS (Ha! Ha! Many people haven't pot the jole vet--I'll explain later) cured record contracts on the strength of a clutch of music-paper front pages, and so gained a certain amount of respectability. By sheer "co-incidence" all these bands all these bands signed to SECTET Pecords, a newly-formed 'independent" financed by a millionaire backer, and without fail their records were sure-fire "simples of the week" in Bushell's In fact it soon becare painfully columns. ofvious that SECRET and Rushell were somehow connected-even such ridiculous acts as TUISTED SISTER received Pushell front-page-treatment when they recently had an L.P. out on-ves, you puessed it, SECRET Records. The final straw was the episode. The GONADS' E.P. "Pure Punk for Row People" was reviewed in your #1 with the words "VERY clever and VERY funny". True to form, it was released on SECRFT Records. What your reviewer neplected to mention was that the COMADS do not exist, have never played a ris. They are, or rather were. Carry Pushell's Old: hand-no wonder he mentioned them in almost every article he wrote in the preceeding 6 months of its release! Conveniently, and most disturbingly, he neplected to mention THAT fact in his articles, though. Of course, he adds weight to the widely-held theory that all music journalists are frustrated front-men, but I wonder how many people, after huying that E.P. in good faith after his countless recommendations, felt completely let down and shit-on once they found out they were not a bona-fife group at all. The hapless punks were the losers in a cruel SVINDLE, HOAY, HYPE of immense proportions permetuated by Rushell with the help of SECRET Records. It seems to me that Bushell fancied himself as a Malcolm McLaren of the 80's but whereas McLaren ripped off Record Companies (A & M, E.I. etc. in a spate of enterprising zeal, Bushell ripped off the punks with the help of record company. A subtle and despicable fference. Yes, the Great Rock and Roll difference. Swindle continues, and I feel your readers ought to know about it.

Anyway, that's enough about Oi! crap...now onto other matters. The PEAD KENNEDYS are midway thru their U.K. tour as I write this. I saw them on their second date of the tour at Sheffield, 50 miles away from my home city. If you are interested here are my impressions...

Three pounds to get in was excessive, by comparison to usual gig prices here (1.50 - 2.50) but having come quite a distance I paid record shop someone had set up in the hall, are called ANTISECT and I'm sure in about 6 up unquestioningly, and besides, the D.K.'s so a lot of people must have liked 'em.

HAD come a LONG WAY for this tour. The place great they are! I recently organized a pig was already pretty packed with punks, and a high proportion of "normal" people were in attendance too—a sure sign that the D.K.'s "cult" transcended their previous notoriety and now appealed to the average "Rock/"ew Wave" fan as well. Naturally these notoriety and latter persons kept well away from the stage front area where a papele of young punks and skins had assembled in expectation.

ly all heard by now. Their stage performance was quite frenetic, the singer rushing around the stape in time honored style; unfortunately the sound was a dirpe to my ears--more Oi! than thrash but neither one nor the other; they sounded like 1,000's of other punk hands in this country--very uninaginative, very up were M.D.C. who I had especially wanted to see after hearing their mini L.P., and liking it a lot. The stunid punks (average age 13 or so) at the front gave the hand a hard time at first by spitting at them, especially the bearded bass player; (it's kind of like an initiation ceremony reserved for "foreign" bands, I think, cos its diced out completely at usual gips). Anyway, the hand sensibly didn't let it affect their excellent rapport with the rest of the audience and after about 4 or 5 of their super-fast thrash songs a section of the stage-front audience were converted, and started to popo wildly and a couple of young skins attempted a few mild stage dives. By the end of their set the whole of the stage front crowd were really getting into it, after taking a while to wake up to the fact that this was a GOOD PAND they were looking M.D.C. came back for a couple of encores, and more people entered the chaos at the front. Afterwords, people were queing up to buy their L.P. from the makeshift PFTER AND THE TEST TUPE BABIES were the next This "funnny-punk" hand seemed like strange addition to the tour because, unlike the P.V.'s or M.D.C., they are ANYTHING BUT a political hand-maybe it was planned that So as to add a bit of humour to an eswav. sentially very serious and committed line-up of hands. Unfortunately, the type of punx who buy the TEST TUPES' records are not, it seems, the type who buy D.K.'s records. And First up were the MAU MAUF, a local hand so they were disappointing, because with whose "Society's Rejects" E.P. you've probab- trite and contrived somes like "Moped Lads", "Up Yer Rum", etc., they are not even funny, especially when you're soher, and the venue had no har. Pest forgotten about.

> Finally the DEAD KENMEDYS took the stage, and all of a sudden the volume of sound seemed to surge to twice its former level-it was LOUP! Total maybem ensued for the next 60 or so minutes, as they raced thru stuff from their frminently-released new albur as we'l as older material. Jello was his usual self-making short speeches on the evils of Peapanism, Pacism, etc., before the relevant songs, then launching hirself headlors into the stage-front crowd. Towards the end of their set, Jello became increasingly agitated just doesn't happen, and they never did, but hothered to it added to the excitement of the final no-him is ever ments of the gip. A great gip by a great communicate! hand. Come back soon, D.K.'s!

Now I'd like to take this opportunity to tell you about a great new English hand who not Pesist and Exist! many people have heard of in the U.K., and have no records or anything out yet. They -Dig for them in my city.

DISCHAPGE will love ANTISECT, cos they are musically in the same high speed thrash genre, although I believe ANITSECT are more politically minded than DISCHAPGE because they sine about other things apart from the horrors of nuclear war, such as the abuse of the animals in vivisection experiments, etc.

If any of your readers want a copy of their tape they should write to me -PIC/42 Hazelwood Poad/Sottingham/ NG7 5LB/England. I'd he willing to trade the tape for other (poor quality only) live tapes especially about the presence of the police outside the DISCHARCE live in U.S.A. tapes of their gig. He seemed to be under the impression recent tour. So is anybody willing to take that the cops were about to burst into the me up on this? Also if any bands reading Venue and breakup the gig or something. This this want a bit of publicity in my zine may be something that happens regularly in please write to the same address, and I'd al-San Francisco, etc., but here in England it so like to correspond with anybody who can be hothered to put pen to paper because if anything is ever coing to change, we've pot to Thank for reading this,

OUT MARCH 1-THE GREAT LOST AVENGERS ALBUM, WHICH INCLUDES THEIR FIRST IMPOSSIBLE-TO-FIND EP, PLUS UNRELEASED STUDIO AND LIVE TRACKS.

IMPORTANT. ROUGH TRADE, CITY HALL

THE DIFINITIVE HARDCORE COMPILATION

SEND FOR COMPLETE CATALOGUE 1230 Grant Avenue #110 SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA 94133

10 NEW SONGS BY T.S.O.L.

BENEATH THE SHAPONS

also available on cassette.

AD KENNEDYS

Plastic Surgery Disasters New Album and Cassette includes 28 page luxo-demented libretto contains "Bleed For Me" and "Halloween."

A TASTE OF STARK REALITY

Alternative Tentacles Records. Manufactured and distributed by Faulty Products, Inc. PROD

Oh Canaduh

The sea's getting blacker
the sky's turning brown
You ain't got no jobs / can't pay your rent
And now we're paying interest on the money we've been lent

Oh Canada / What's wrong with you You hetter wake up / now what you gonna do

The big companies / are milking us dry
Our corporation nation / is soon gonna die
And in the capital / they sip on their tea
They care about their paychecks
but not 'bout you and me

Oh Canada / What's wrong with you You better wake up / now what you conna do

You spent all your money on a lot of useless toys
You're so fuckin' dumb, you stupid cowboys
You ain't got no jobs / can't pay your rent
And now we're paying interest
on the money we've been lent

Oh Canada / what's wrong with you You better wake up / now what you gonna do

Subhumans

Canada, the third largest country in the world, has long been overlooked, taken for granted, and economically, and culturally dominated by its smaller neighbor, the good ol' USA. We thought it was about time to check out what is happening across that broad with D.O.A. and the SUBHUMANS, Toronto had the VILETONES, but little else was known. Since many touring bands from the U.S. have come back with reports of many up-and-coming bands and scenes there, we felt it was update time. What follows is an interview with the perennial D.O.A., their associate, ex-manager Ken Lester, an article by Pushead on Victoria's NEOS, and a scene by scene report complied by Lisa Smith of Toronto's Rip the System fanzine. Hopefully, more hands will consider adding our northern punk brethern to their tour itineraries. For other info on where to play there, please see the Tour Guide in Max.R'n'R #3. We would also like to thank Deanna of Shrik fanzine for photos, and Tim of Youth Plague zine for graphics.

On Lake Ontario is situated one of the largest cities in Canada, Toronto. The scene in Toronto has been happening for quite a few years now, so there are mmany established and new bands expanding their energy across the city. Most of the hands from such as the VILETONES and the DEMICS have such as the VILETORES and the DEMILS have taken over. YOUTH YOUTH 10 one of my personal favourites. Their music comes straight from their heart and into your bloodstream. Y.Y.Y. (why, why, why) has been together for a year and a half, supporting and strengthening the scene. People are arrested. together for a year and a half, supporting and strengthening the scene. People are attracted by the intense, emotional punch of the sound and held in mid-thrash by the lyrics. Brian Taylor discharges the bands ideas concerning personal hypocrisy, police domination and basic human emotions. But they are not a preeaching hand, shoving political theories down our throats. Instead, they express their opinions to digest instead of forcing them only to be regurgitated. Politically, Y.Y.Y. has formed ideas towards freedom from the masses, and personal "anarchism" (in the true sense of the word - not violence and pillaging). These ideas are explained in greatter detail on the pages of Civil Disohedience, a rag put out by Rob Mallion (the boss of Y.Y.Y.), with inspiration from the hand and people involved in the scene. Hopefully, Y.Y.Y. will be recording their frenzied, but controlled (most of the time) sound on vinyl and then touring soon. Until then you can listen to them on tape (see review section).

check out what is happening across that broad stretch of land, in its punk scenes. In the early daze of punk, Vancouver came on strong with D.O.A. and the SUBHUMANS, Toronto had the VILETONES, but little else was known. Since many touring bands from the U.S. have come back with reports of many up-and-coming bands and scenes there, we felt it was update time. What follows is an interview with the perennial D.O.A., their associate, ex-manager extremely hard for C.S. to get gigs as they are all under sixteen and the drinking age is nineteen (there are no minor shows except for the hig name hands). Thank to the business minded people in the scene, underage hands can play and supporters can hangout at an independant after hours warehouse that doubles as rehersal space. Out of town hands also seem to enjoy an underground gig much more than a constricted club show. From outside Toronto, loud enough to be heard in the city is ZERO OPTION. In retrospect to CRONIC SUBMISSION they present solutions to problems with a fast grinding, hardcore beat. One of the older, underground bands still around are the YOUNG LIONS. Their style is rebel rock'n'roll with a meaningful, positive message. The YOUNG LIONS also have a tape out and contribute to a rag called Rebel Rock. Oh, yes, also from Ontario are the FORGOTTEN REBELS, a satirical punk rock group with two good albums to their credit.

Montreal

In the French-English metropolis of Montreal the scene is strong. All of the hands' lyrics are in English but it is helpful to know French to communicate with the punx there, comprende! One hardcore hand worth checking out in Montreal is SCUM. Let me explain their name, in Montreal the police logo is the same as SCUM's

C.U.M. are the initials for the police department, put an "S" in front and you have

No Hope Religion -Scum

You are loved so they say Rex Humbart you're a cunt, that's what I say Christian slaves, send me all your money And you'll be freed until next Sunday No hope religion, nobody's there No hope religion, ain't that a scare Pay and pray to the holy bible Better buy a gun to get rid of your troubles

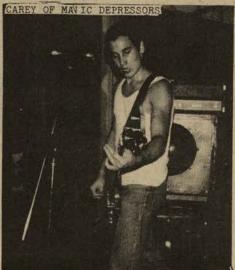

With raunchy vocals and a screaming guitar, these guys kill. SCUM are in the process of recording a single now. Montreal has a great club called The Hardcore Club, they play good recorded music throughout the week and live bands on the weekend. One of the bands I've seen there are the DISCORDS. They are an English influenced Oi band with a single out on their own label. Many of the punx in Montreal still prefer English music but North American hardcore is breaking through with such hands as ALLERGIC. One of the fastest hardcore bands around and with two guitars, ALLERGIC wails.

Winnipeg

youthful scene in Winnipeg is like a breath of fresh air to me. The general atmo-sphere is positive with many kickass bands for a city of its size. Showing the way there is PERSONALITY CRISIS. After returning from San Francisco, they broke up for a while but are again blasting out noise. Richard P.C.'s original bass player back playing guitar this time. I've heard that they will soon he going to Vancouver to record. Hope to hear something from them in the new year. Another together, aware, band from Winnipeg is SUDDEN DEATH. With three new members, I feel they might benefit from a vocalist although their music is powerful and intense as I just received their new tape which they recorded live in their basement. Loud and aggressive are LAST GASP, a fairly new band in Winnipeg. Although they are young (15 through 17) they are tight musically. With a touch of heavy metal, they screech out their songs amongst an active stage. LAST GASP is getting real hot. Also kicking ass are the STRETCH MARKS, MANIC DEPRESSORS, and THE UNWANTED. Although I haven't seen them, the STRETCHERS are supposed to be a thrashing, trashing, fun hand to see. Also new are YOUTH WAR (rumored to be the rawest band in existence) and SOCIETY'S GRUDGE. The manager of SUDDEN DEATH, Mike Lambert, also hooks and helps out of town bands. A really promoter. You can contact (204) 943-9276 130 Fort St Vinnipeg, Nibs Ryc 107

Amongst the rough rednecks of Calgary, the punx prove their dedication just by existing. The city of Calgary is new and modernized but the general population are extremely old fashioned with their ideas. Protesting against these ideas is VILE. A newly formed all-female band, who break the norm from the male dominated scene, they are mesmerizing. VICTIMS, all from different former bands have united to form VICTIMS OF A NATION with Terry Cox from CRUCIAL STEPPERS on drums, Gillie from STINGGZILLDA on guitar, Scurvy from the same band on guitar and Yoda from SOFUCK YOU on bass. Vocals from the whole hand knocks down the walls. Fast songs with great stage moves. With a single out RIOT 303 are the most established band from Calgary. Although their music is fairly Calgary. good, the lyrics tend to confuse me.

British Columbia

Don't have any first-hand knowledge of the scene in Vancouver or Victoria, but here's what we've gathered. Vancouver doesn't have too much in the way of new H.C. bands, but from Victoria and the interior, there's alot happening. The NEOS (see separate article) are young, inventive, and rip. They have 1 E.P. out and, another on the way. Also, SUBURBAN MENACE have great tracks on the Chainsaw magazine "Annoy your neighbor" com-Chainsaw magazine Annoy your neighbor com-pilation cassette. GENTLEMEN OF HORROR, later becoming DOGS OF WAR, are in limbo, but have a good E.P. to their credit. NO MEANS NO, who are more experimental, have 1 45 out, and more on the way. NO EXIT, one of the early Vancouver hands, are still around in some form (JJ of TOXIC REASONS used to drum for them) and will have a second to the second t for them), and will have a new record other hands we've heard of are NEW SOCIETY and 134. Also, methinks the DAYGLOW ABORTIONS are from Victoria, and their first L.P. is a must classic, in the mold of the ANCRY SAMOANS .

MATILON ABORTIONS ADDRESSES 567 Head St Victoria, BC V94 505

Idle Thoughts Sad Attitude 44 28th Ave So. 5462 44th Avenue Chabrook, SC VIC 3/8 Delta, BC V4K 1C7

NEOS®

...I'm sick of this plastic youth rehellion crap...Ah yes youth rehellion, hey I mean everyone knows that that means getting wasted every weekend, fucking anything that moves for the wild thrills, and listening to the wild 1960's-70's Geritol bands that constantly fill the top ten (obvious proof that they're still the best bands on earth) right?...Fuck no! Fools... You're everything your parents, peers and media friends want you to be. How different are they from those they rehel against? No different. Everyone grows up to live for themselves, a nice joh, a nice wife, (but she's gotta be stupid enough so that she'll believe you and wouldn't ever helieve those masty rumors about you)... Fuck off!" -Steve/June 1982

Three young mates ages 16 to 18 who live in the sheltered town of Victoria, British Columbia, Canada, make up what is perhaps the fastest, most exuberant, teeth gritting outfit of unhesitant accelleration that NEOS persists. Welcome to the NEOS, who punch out tremendous doses of manifesting opinions written obstrperously vital and exploding into invincible statements crashing down on social pillories!

DESTRUCT: "You've got a mouth, you've not a heart/using no reason to reason a reason to start/if you've got a label, or if you've got a name/you'll use it to give the innocent hlame./Blind ignorance, breed blind ce is ignorant/and you're the only cause./You've got a fist, you've got a knife/on a Saturday night you've got to fight/you want the power, you've got the cock/No glory in pain, but you're too weak to stop./You've got the power, you've got a homb/and a world full of innocents to drop it on./ Blood splattered brains, death acreams, burning flesh, stink/if you've got a mind, then use it and think!"

VEOS RECORDING THEIR GREAT NEW EP Claiming to be not new wave, punk or hardcore, not a label...refer to us by our nare, THE NEOS release unrelenting energy, sometimes uncontrollable, always frantic, manic thrusts of clamorous fury and power. Split second velocity flails to the boiling point abrasive lashings that bulldoze insistent ebullition upon the cranium. The songs are sung and written by each member of the hand, doubling occasionally in a florid frenzy of chaotic maybem.

saints...Steve and Savage, through numerous member changes, Steve's destination was to be the fastest hand in the world until May 1981 when a secure line up of Steve-guitar, Key-hass, A.P.-drups, started straining the decibels and bashed out the excitement. Feb 1992 the NEOS "End All Discrimination" E.P. came out, 11 songs of burly electric skull crushing exhilaration. Through the help of Tim Y., Jello, and Rough Trade, the "TOS were exposed and the first pressing of the EP quickly sold out. A second pressing was made. Now work is being done on the NEOS second EP "Haisha Gets The Martian Brain Squeeze" which is fourteen (count 'em) cuts of unbelievable speed, faster than the first shoul4 be out sometime in early 1983. heliefs range from anti-poison, neti-racist, anti-war, anti-horedom, anti-povernment to think for yourself, he vourself. Live and in practice sessions, NEOS strength poes into their music. Young and vivacious, they take a stand, say their thoughts, express their aggressions, and deliver it to the extreme end. So, in the finale, all energy is drain and the NEOS collapse to the sweating pavement. A definitely dedicated trio.

OUTERWORLD: "Went back; nothing changed/everyone looked and acted the same/I don't care; I never did care/I don't want that other world/ just keep it off my mind/it's just a dead loss."

Pushead says: "Write the Neos">

1706 Mortimer st Victoria, B.C. VRP 3A8 Canada

KEN LESTER-FRIEND AND SOMETIME MANAGER OF D.O.A.

through the radio and concerts, come to lis-

MRR: You have been around since the early days of the Punk scene haven't you?

KL: Well, yeah, I guess you can say that. I can actually claim to have seen the SEX PISTOLS I suppose a lot of people in San Francisco probably can too, but in other areas people were not as fortunate. I remember coming into S.F. just to see that show. I was really happy when they broke up, cause they really made a point about everything.

MRR: You were living in Vancouver when the scene there gave birth, right?

KL: Yeah, I've always been into this kind of music. I mean, I remember listening to the MC5 when they were around. In fact, I actually had seen them play in S.F. at the Straight Theater when they were playing gigs. Then in the late seventies I got into the RAMONES and alot of the New York bands, the DOLLS and stuff like that. Soon after that I began to hear about all the British bands, through the music press and just the general publicity that the PISTOLS and bands like them were generating. As soon as their records were available I just picked them up.

MRR: So, you have always been into politically oriented kind of music?

KL: I guess you can say that. I don't know, I just liked the music. I've always thought that music is a way to communicate ideas, and in the sixties I saw how music from fairly straight sources like the BEATLES and the STONES could actually get a message across to people and directly relate to their lives. Through the San Francisco late sixties scene, like COUNTRY JOE AND THE PISH, BIG BROTHER AND THE HOLDING CO., you could see how it had a social significance. It had a way of joining people together and helping them express ideas of their culture. I have always It's one way seen music in that sort of way. which you can communicate directly with people. It's not like handing out a leaflet to them, or creating something on television. People on a day to day or week to week hasis, ten to ideas and participate in a certain way viewing the world. I feel pretty strongly about that and that's why I have always been interested in D.O.A. Like when D.O.A. first started, I guess it was late '77 and it wasn't called D.O.A. it was called the SKULLS at the time, and it was almost the band that it is now. It was Wimpy, Dimwit, and Joe playing all the same instruments, the addition is Dave who's an extra guitar. the only original guitarist is playing with some hands in England. So it's almost like old times again, with everybody playing together. When I first saw them I was just totally knocked Here were some people with energy and out. something to say and doing shows all be themselves, they used to put on their own gigs, that ofcourse was the only thing they could do at the time. It seemed as if there was no room for this kind of music, everythhad been homogenized and sanitized, all neatly packaged. It was the "ME" generation. People's attitudes were like "Oh, look at all the trouble we had in the sixties, it's all over how and we have a new understanding". Alot of people ofcourse knew that this was all bullshit, and all of a sudden here were people who just came out and hit "bullshit". I was really exbullshit cited and I just got involved from that point on. I got directly involved with D.O.A. through Rock Against Racism. I had gone to the very first R.A.R. concert that was held in Chicago and D.O.A. had played that and I just sort of met them there and we went up to New York together to terrorize the people there. It was real fun, at the time the DEAD KENNEDYS were on tour there, as were the DILS, and they all played there at the same N.Y. didn't know what hit them. It was really an interesting confluence of people & we had a really good time. I think that it really helped solidify the relationships between west coast bands. Since then it seems that west couast bands help each other out more and there is a little more of a cooperative spirit, whereas if you go elsewhere it appears as if there is alot more rivalry amonest different bands in a sort of traditional music sense.

MRR: Do you still think that holds true right now?

KL: It's hard to say. There are two levels of things happening from my point of view. You have your headline bands who have been around for a while & they have to look at the economic and business aspects of what they doing and are they have to be kind of careful of what they are doing. I think people are not too had when it comes to support. We are don't know in a specialized situation. I what the support is like for younger bands. D.O.A. always tries to play with hands from the local community where we are playing. If a hand comes up to us and says they are really good or just says "give us a chance", you know we'll try to put on as many people as we possibly can. At the same time, though one has to realize that many bands really aren't very good and everybody wants to get on, so have to balance it out and figure out how MRR: You don't feel it's a contradiction?

be a good show from the standpoint of business, as well as an entertainment point of view. When you start get-ting up into DK's, BLACK FLAG, sort of strata, at a point where people are paying them lots of money, plus ticket prices are going way up, the bands have to put on a cer-tain kind of show, otherwise people are going to feel cheated. And in fact they are if a performer just gets up there and wanks off for an hour, not really giving people their moneys worth. We have found ourselves in that position alot of times, most recently when we had played in southern California and we found that the promoters down there are alot more crooked than the promoters up here. I'm sure that everybody hates the promoters up here pretty much but by and large we find that they are better than promoters in alot of other places, like the east coast and southern California. We had gotten into a situation where we were added on to a bill and the ticket price was like 6.50 and there were 150 people who we believe came explicitly to see us and there were only about 250 people there so the promoter said well you guys just shouldn't play and I wont pay you. This was because the guy, after he had finished paying all of his expenses, didn't have any money left. So we found ourselves playing for nothing, since these people had already payed to see us and we felt if we did otherwise we would be cheating them.

There is a delicate balance between

KL: I mean, it would be a contradiction if alot of these bands that have become successful, only played to thousands of people at a time, like the audience at a show D.O.A. played at California Hall with Siouxsie and the Banshies, also a Bill Graham What happens is that alot of these deal. hands have ahandoned their roots, so to speak. All of the sudden, they are going "Holy fuck, we can play to a few thousand people" and then they go "Well, we were Punk Rockers once and that was because we couldn't play our instruments but now we are actually quite good and want this refined audience, we people spitting us.....bla, bla, bla..." It seems like there is a real trend in that, I read all these interviews and all these people wouldn't even he around to be playing the music if it erent now, that they are trying to push certain different ideas, they seem like they have to totally abandon or contradict what they were doing in the past. In my opinion, you have got to play for people and you have got to play where it is possible to play. In alot of communities the only clubs that are available to play in are the ones that are controlled basically by the local music mafia "o.k. or whatever. So you have to decide. are we or are we not going to play in beings and they have always treated us like human beings, so we always try to give places like this a certain amount of gigs to support them. I mean like Reno, we always play there and we always lose money when we play there (especially when we hit the casinos), but there is a really cool scene there and the people are really fun to be with, so that's why we do it.

MRR: What's the song "Kenny Blister" about?

KL: Uh, oh. Actually there is a much longer version of that song that, for the record, I wasn't for all the stuff that happened to can't say I condone. I think it's a funny them through the Punk era. Instead of just song, the song is a joke on my name saying that they are doing something dif- obviously, and the band was fooling around in the studio they started thinking of what the vilest stuff they sing about would be, and that's how that came about. I thought it was rather tasteless and really didn't seem to make any kind of a point and I really didn't want to see anything like go down just for the sake of posterity. If people want to hear the whole song, they should demand it at concerts. Actually, it is a bit humourous.

> There have been personnel changes in D.O.A., and the last time I had seen the hand it seemed as if it had lost some of its original intensity or power. Do you share the view or do you think that's a temporary thing until each of the band members gets used to the set-up?

> KL: Well, the gig that you saw was the first time the hand had played like that in that form. I think they have improved a whole lot since then. There were like ten shows between that first time we played around here and the most recent show which I felt was really hot, the one with BLACK FLAG. It feels like things are coming together really well. The way I look at it is you are either D.O.A. or you are somebody else. The thing is all of the people who are in the hand now are different kinds of people but they share the same kind of intensity. I believe that comes through most the the time-things change suppose, Bisquits was a really important spect of the band. He was pretty powerful but Dimwit is his brother who's now drumming for the hand, and he taught Chuck how to play. D.O.A. has been fortunate to find some pretty good musicians. For example, I think the hand has really expanded its songwriting capabilities with Wimpy joining the band. They are much more interested in putting out newer stuff because D.O.A., with, say Randy and Chuck in the band, was really only Chuck maybe writing one or two songs and mostly Joey handling the rest. Plus the band hardly ever practiced then, whereas, now they are more interested in a lot of different aspects. We will probably get criticized for that to a certain degree but I think if people examine it they will notice it's still pretty strong music.

MRP: Are you still optimistic about the possibilities of Punk music? Do you still think there is a force behind it?

KL: I dont see how there couldn't be. I I can't see what the alternative is. mean. Everywhere we have gone things ebb and flow. Like right now it's a little bit of a depressing time for people playing intense kind of music like we are, but I have already heen through that two or three times already in the last 3 1/2 years. Wherever you go it goes up and down like that, at one point people may go, "Ah, nobody wants to hear this shit anymore!" and then six months later, you've got a couple thousand people coming to your shows.

ethics and business sense. D.O.A. has been nown for its support of local scenes but there was one incident about a year ago which some people view as a transgression. was when D.O.A. played for Bill Graham at the Old Waldorf. Do you view that act as a mistake, or was that part of this balancing KL: We talked about this a great deal. We felt that we wanted to play for the people who would come to see us in that type of a venue. We don't just want to play for one type of people who are already in agreement with us, so to speak. We wanted to take what we were doing out to that kind of an It was quite a different audience from the kind we would get at the On Broadway or Elite Club. Actually, we got ourselves into more trouble because of that Graham gig, because we also played a gig at the Sound of Music the night after and the people over at Graham's organization got quite freaked out about this since they wanted to make as much money as they could off of us and they felt it cut into their draw the night before. fust because you play a place like that foesn't mean that you ahandon all hope and all principles.

Philadelphia?" If you decide you are not going to play there because the promoter there is a rip-off artist and they control the music scene, then all that means is that you are just not going to play to any people in that area. You're not doing any harm to the promoter, you're only not making yourself accessable. Vancouver is kind of like that to a certain degree. Every hand that comes into town plays a place called the Commodore Ballroom, which is controlled by Peri-Scope, the Bill Graham-like organization in Vancouver. It is the best place up there to play, and the wouldn't let Punks play there the longest time, buteventually we got them to put us and the DK's on. It was really good show, totally sold out, and it shot the shit out of the opinions that no one wanted to see Punk music. That changed things in Vancouver a bit. It made it possible for bands to play a lot more places, since the place didn't get destroyed, it was just a really good show. I think its really strange that a lot of people are down on the likes of folks like Dirk Dirksen at the On Broadway. I mean, he has always given us a place to play. I'm sure all promoters have their little scams going but the place is here and the people running it are human

10PM (2) (3) (3) NEWS

After a boy is murdered at a nightclub, Quincy (Jack Klugman) claims punk rock was a contributing factor. Emily: Anita Gillette. Asten: John S. Ragin. Monahan: Garry Walberg. (60 min.)

......Melora Hardin MollyKarlene Crockett Kip Kelly Ward Fly Fester Richard Dano Zach Dennis Madalone

"GUNS DON'T KILL PEOPLE, SONGS DO" by Tim Tonooka

You may remember hack on December 1st the "Ouincy" TV show had their punk episode. By now we have come to expect very little from TV coverage of punk, and this show provided no surprises.

To summarize it briefly, the program opens up at the punk club, where a hand called Mayhem is playing. The singer looks something like the Misfits, the rest of the hand looks like Fear. And the music sounds maybe like Fear, hut more like Rocky Horror. Out on the dan-cefloor a bunch of Rocky Horror rejects are colliding with each other in a human demolition derby.

The viewer's attention is focused on a bunch kids sitting off to the side. This one puy gets up after awhile and heads out for dancefloor, announcing to his friends "Vatch this, you're gonna see some REAL slandancing.

But he doesn't make out very well. He gets kicked and tossed around, eventually winding up lying on the floor where he gets trampled on hy all the violence-crazed "punkers." camera angles swirl around into a chaotic nightmare that gets worse and worse until we fade out to the office of coroner Cuincy, where the young punk lies dead on the autopsy table, the victim of an icepick in the neck.

The rest of the story revolves around whether or not the pirlfriend of the dead punk will have her life ruined as well by this punk rock menace. Nine minutes into the show we neet a glamorized version of Serena Dank: a psychologist named Dr. Emily Hanover who counsels the parents of these "punkers". She describes the problem facing this girl's mother with melodramatic seriousness:

PANOVER: She comes home, and she finds her daughter hurning cigarette holes in her arm, shredding her clothes to BITS, taking PILLS, and locking herself in her room listening to that VIOLEMCP oriented punk rock music that does nothing but reinforce all those bad feelings.

OUINCY: Emily, you're not blaming what happened to that pirl on MUSIC?

IAMOVER: Don't underestimate this particular kind of music, Quince! You tell a kid, a vulnerable kid, OVER and OVER again that LIFE isn't worth living, that VIOLENCE is its own reward, and you add to it the kind of intensity that this music has, and you just might convince her.

OUINCY: Sometimes I see these kids on the I never give them a second thought. thought it was just another silly fad, omething that would be blown away by the I never thought it went DEFPER. PANOVER: Silly fad, huh? Let me take you down to one of these clubs. YOU'VE got to see it with your OWN eyes to believe it, Ouince. I've seen children some off that ancefloor with CRUSHED ribs, and BLOODY faces, like soldiers fighting some kind of INSANE war.

files his coroner's report, attributing the Rock Contributed To Teen's Death.

The controversial topic is picked up by the local TV talk show, where Ouincy, Dr. Hanover, and a bunch of "punkers" appear in a sort of reenactment of the Donahue show on punk. Dr. Hanover presents the Serena Dank viewpoint of how nunk is a danger to today's youth because of its "relentless negativity" with no positive aspect. Then they let the kids reply with the punk viewpoint, but they're presented in such a way that it vious to the viewer that they're irrational. patterned after the kids interviewed in the "Decline" movie, there's the same air-headed lack of intelligence.

But the talk show host is still shocked by Ouincy's analysis of the murder: "Now you're Ouincy replies, "Yes, I am. I believe vou?" that the music I heard is a killer. It's a killer of hope. It's a killer of spirit. The music I heard said that life was cheap, and that murder and suicide was okay." And Ouincy poes on to chastise the "punkers" for their negativity: "You know, not so many years ago, there was a generation of young neonle, who were as mad as you are about the world, only they WORKED their tails off to change it. Trying to end a war they didn't believe in. Trying to correct the injustices they saw. But all you do is pripe. Has it occurred to you to do something else with your anger besides venting it?"

The show goes on to a predictable TV story ending, with the pirl reunited with her nother for "a fresh new start." But what we is offered. have to deal with is the way that punks are Put as Ouincy says, "Thy would anyhody want portrayed to the general public. And that is to listen to music that makes you hate when a movement that is completely nihilistic, with no hope or positive way of dealing with They say that punk encourages blence. They say that punks the world. mindless violence. engage in self-nutilation carving X's in their arms and things like that, and are on a road that leads only to self destruction. So cut your wrists and let your life go down the drain.

tainment industry for technical accuracy, consisted of people from within the actual The show is praised for its attention to nunk scene who were paid as extras. I would detail. One prime time variety program like to believe that at least the people who showed how the coroner's lab in Quincy has read this mag would have more strength of all the latest medical equipment and how they consult medical experts to insure accuracy. Examples are cited like how after one Quincy show about Tourette's Syndrome, three people watching it recognized the symptoms previously unidentified problems they'd been having, and were able to go and seek treatment. So the program has much more credibility than most shows, and the general public watching the punk episode would be very inclined to believe it was factual.

They don't realize how twisted and slanted the media coverage of punk has been. For example, just the word "punkers" that they're always using, it's equivalent to calling black people "niggers." Which just goes to show how the newsmedia can bias the public against something while passing it off as objective journalism.

To us, the distortion is ohvious. Nohody Convinced by his friend Dr. Hanover, Cuincy ever gets trampled on the floor at a punk show. Once in awhile when someone miscalcukilling in part to punk rock: "All I know is lates a stage dive and knocks themself unconthat whoever killed that how was listening to scious on the floor, several people always words that LITERALLY cried out for murder." come to help. And the idea of screened earns come to help. And the idea of somebody going The next morning the city is shocked by the to a punk show and getting completely spaced newspaper article "Coroner Ouincy Says Punk out by the music so thay lose all control and Rock Contributed To Teen's Death." kill someone in a homicidal frenzy, is just too ridiculous to take seriously.

Maybe if that Quincy episode was being made about 13 years ago, it could have been a dramatization of the rock'n'roll stabbing death at Altamont. But I thought Quincy said that those young people back then took a constructive approach. Somehow that's not the way the establishment saw it in the heyday of the sixties when drugs, riots and hombings were making the headlines. I guess now that the sixties rehels have melloed out and as-Their punk characters appear to have been similated into the middle class life we can look back on it all with rose colored calsses.

Too had they couldn't use some of that perspective to see the positive side of punk. Like in Minneapolis, hardcore punk hands are not really saying that music can KILL are doing a series of benefits for senior citizens, at a club called the Upper Deck. As Fred Cartder, who hooks the shows, says, "The stereotype, created by the media, of the punks is that they are wild, vicious, and destructive. The fact that they are thoughtful, intelligent, caring people is never presented.

> The Ouincy episode and other recent anti-punk media coverage has reinforced the public's hostility towards punk. Not only that, but they suppest ways of dealing with the "orohlen". Like in fuincy, to track down a suspect, the police force the owner of the punk club to fingerprint the kids by threatening to close down his club if he doesn't cooperate. In less than one minute of dialogue, any ethical questions are quickly dismissed, and a tactic for police control as insecure, confused young kids caught up in you could listen to music that makes you love." And he cites as examples Tommy Porsey, Benny Goodman, and Glen Miller. Too had their hig band music couldn't generate enough love to keep Glen Miller from being killed in World War II.

One thing that bugs me is the fact that some The songs that they presented on the show as people within the L.A. punk scene knew about being typical punk anthems have lyrics like the Quincy episode before it even went into production. Considering our experience with the "CHIPs" show, some concern was in order, and if enough of it had been expressed to NBC We've seen punk depicted on TV like this before the show was produced, maybe the out-before, as on "CHiPs," but what makes the come would have been different. But in bet-Ouincy episode different is that this is a ween all the punk caricatures, it was ap-show which has a reputation within the enter- parent that part of the crowd in the show consisted of people from within the actual read this mag would have more strength of conviction than to sell out their scene for a few quick bucks. It's easy to talk taking a stand about the system. I'd like to see more people actually live up to those ideals when confronted with a situation like has been a puzzle since the first grasping to replace Lenin. There is no formula, no established pattern for succession, and secrecy around the internal political workings of the Soviets has left Westerners anxiously noting who sat next to whom at the opera to try and figure out who is on top at any given time. In the early 60's, the term "U.S.S.R., Inc." was coined to demonstrate that this chaotic power struggle most closely resembled the internal workings, not of countries, but of corporations. What could be more perfect to describe a "State-capitalist" country?

Forget what you've been told all your life, underfoot. there is no communism, socialism, or workers control in the Soviet Union. What there i What there is is capialism, without capitalists. get all about the "new hourpeoisie" of the Soviet leadership too. They don't own a thing, no farms, no factories, and not a share of stock. They are the well-paid managers of a company whose total assets are owned by the state. As is the case with other corporate officers, the struggle is for power and the perks that come with it. Leonid Breshnev is dead, and Andropov is now the head of the Secretariat of the Party, the most powerful position in the Soviet Union, ing there can be much harder.

Andropov is being heralded in the West as a Seemingly the only reason this is that he voted in the against the invasion of Afghanistan. The he stands on Poland today. of the K.C.B., and understands very well the in brief, the Urhan analysis says no major chan-was not suicide, but murder, and there is a ge in Soviet policy, save possibly a speedy suggestion that Ulrike was raped and beaten end to overt action in Afghanistan. The prior to her murder. Soviets always prefer detente to Cold War, always prefer covert to overt actions, and

This Issue I'm taking more space, because I want to do a long overdue tribute to a fallen and too-often forgotten comrade. Recently, I went to see the film "Marianne and Juliane", which is about the life of Ulrike Meinhof. Ulrike was one of the leaders of, and the the for, so-called "Baader-Mainhof Gang", properly known as the Red Army Faction (Rote Armee Praktion). In the early 70's, Ulrike was one of my hip wants to keep his position, he has to fend as their own, though there is no basis for off a number of enemies in the leadership, this. The politics of the R.A.F. were not fill key positions with his supporters and unlike those of the Weather Underground-"New clients, etc. In the Soviet Union, getting Left" third-worldism, with strains of Che, clients, etc. In the Soviet Union, getting Left" third-worldism, with strains of Che, to the top is only part of the battle; stay- Mao and Ho. They trained in the guerilla ing there can be much barder. camps of Al-Patah in Lebannon, staged a series of dramatic bombings, shootings, and high jackings, and finally were smashed by the Meinhof, along with other leaders of the rest of his record makes him look like a very R.A.F., was imprisoned in isolation, in senhard-liner indeed. In the 50's, he personal- sory deprivation cells, designed to break the ly oversaw the crushing of the Hungarian prisoners mentally, and render them harmless revolt, which might give some idea of where to the state. Meinhof could not be broken, He was the head so shortly before her trial, she was murdered her cell, and suicide was claimed. crushing of dissent in the Soviet Union. In Evidence is now available to prove that it

Then they killed Ulrike Meinhof, they killed always move to protect their national something in me as well, something soft, and interests, crushing international socialism weak, and afraid. The case is not unusual, shortly before his death, Pobby Sands said, "They may kill the revolutionary, but never the revolution," and of Joe 1111, it was said, "What they could never kill went on to organize." When they killed Meinhof, in me was born a hate which is unquenchable. The to organize. cause of socialism has produced martyrs for each reneration, and from these we rain strength. Our victory will be testimony that the lives of these revolutionaries were not given in vain. For all of Meinhof's political and tactical blunders, she remains an heroines, desnite the fact that I was in al- inspiration. Her blood joins with that of most complete disagreement with the politics all those who have made our flag a crimson

A CFY PRODUCTION

The Sound of No Hands Clapping

Featuring 17 original HARD-HITTING songs

Ask your local distributor, or send $7.50 (post paid) to: Eugene, box 6271, Stanford, CA 94305

NO MORE TAPE ORDERS PLEASE!

a local hand BLACK (since HUMOR broken up' put out a record that caused some intense reactions. - some labeled their some labeled their statements as racists or cruel. One sone "Aufweidersehn Juden", was done because it "nost dismusting the song I ever heard"said one hand member. He went on tosay that if they dispusted or turned-off people, that's fine. "Everyone's running around trying to make a point, so we made a point hat we could make sonps that were totally nihilistic". So what is this nihilism anyway? Jerod Poor has done some research on this subject which has, in some form or another, found its way into much of punk rock, since its inception. Here are his findings.

n a nation whose population was enslaved by poverty and ignorance, whose government was kept in power by a brutal police force, whose leaders were interested only in personal pain, and whose church was a center of wealth and nower, there was formed an extremely nhilosophy of individualism adherents of this have been described as dishelved, untidy, and unruly people who rebelled against tradition and social order, and whose movement was derided by the media as wholly negative, destructive, and a social menace. Nihilism In 19th-century Russia was constantly getting Prince the short end of the stick. Kropotkin, in his Memoires, defined nihilism as the symbol of struggle against all forms of tyranny, hypocracy, and artificiality, and a fight for individual freedom. He saw a restless adolescent generation that cherished infinite faith in scientific truth. Everyone else saw nibilists as demented terrorists employed by some secret society to assas-sinate the royal family and destroy moral rinciples.

Fundamentally there is little difference between anarchism and nihilism. Nihilism is far more individualistic, and to hell with society, than anarchism. As well as being a philosophy and socio-political ideology, nihilism is, most importantly, a psychological state, the achievement of which frees the individual from the formless mass of society and social structure.

Politically and philosophically, nihilism represented a negation of aestheticism, the science of heauty, and advocated beauty, science utilitarianism and scientific rationality. destroying whatever was otherwords, useless, primarily traditional values and conditions within the social organization. The social sciences and classical philosophical systems were rejected entirely. Nihilism represented atheism and a revolt against the established social order, negating all authority exercised by the state, the church, or the family. Its heliefs were based on nothing but scientific truth; science became the cure-all for social problems. All evils erived from ignorance, which science alone tould overcome.

Nihilistic philosophy was influenced by such moment, the hiblical prophesies spain damaged girus happy mood changed to anger (center) a violence (Right) by electric pulses

NIHILI5M

y Jerod Pool

as Darwin and Herhert Spencer, their thinking was formed by the existential foundations of Socrates, Soren Kierkegaard, and later by Frederich Nietzsche; all of whom agreed that thought was the rost important aspect of nihilism and humanity.

While the politics of nihilism are harsh (I have a regard for aestheticism and some useless things like art), the psychology is harsher. Psychologists even have a special niche for "nihilistic delusions", a peculiar form of insanity where the patient helieves he is insane and that everything around is purely hallucinations. This malady is none from the truth for the tenets of psychogical nihilism border on madness, and often come from the exhaustion of spirit that cores from seeking for a "meaning". This ex-haustion is accompanied by terror, and the is a kind of death or paralysis. feeling The thresholds of rase, suicide and murder are low, for if nothing exists, does death The stark frands of society become crystal clear, and every committment seems a lie. It is no wonder that the nihilism of Pussia eventually devolved from faith in science to a justification of terror and destruction.

Nietsche, in his 'The Will to Power', distinruished three phases in the experience of nothingness. First, when a "meaning" has heen sought in all events that is not there. and one recognizes the waste of strength, and the deception of the search. Secondly, when one assumes there is some totality, such as God or a governmental system, infinitely sunerior to him and upon which he may be dependent, then realizes that there is no universal and is able to believe in his own value. Thirdly, upon realization of the first two insights, there is an escapet to pass sentence on this world of socioeconomical, racial, and sexual roles in percentions have pre-arranged and one's life predestined, and to invent a true world beyond, and within one's self.

Granted, this borders on insanity; that there is no "real" world "out there", and the true world is created by the individual. However, under the examination of Quantum Mechanics, that is the exact nature of the universe. Miels Bohr's theories on the smallest of particles hold down to: Atoms don't exist until you look for them, reality is what we are taught it is. The Copenhagen Interpretation of Quantum Mechanics was known as Dada Physics, now it is called Taoist Physics. When the boys at Lawrence Livermore aren't building a better H-bomb, they're proving Bohr is right.

Dada Physics applies not only to the individualistic nihilist, but to the deadly realities of Christianity. Consider, for a moment, the hiblical prophesies concerning the end of the world; one third of the water becoming poisoned, one third of all life dying, plagues, volcanic eruptions and "...men were scorched with great heat..."
Pev. 16:9. Sounds like the symptoms of nuclear holocaust. The Born-Again Christians helieve this will happen within our lifetimes. Famous Born-Agains include President Peagan and lots of congressmen. With one button Reagan could fulfill the prophesies and the Will of Cod. Who could pass on such a chance?

Now there is reason for one to enough to kill. Violence is a common reaction to the experience of nothingness: as vell as the reaction to repressed creativity and the antidote for suicidal depression. The nihilists deteriorated to violence, but if violence is a natural reaction to enlightment, could it be their repressed need for violence exploded years later in the form senseless terrorism? Is there a human need for violence? Perhaps. Have you ever experienced the serenity one feels when prac-ticing the martial arts? I have, for the past six months, and I am never calmer than after I have crippled non-existant opponents for an hour and a half. Other students have testified to similar feelings. There's one person in an advanced class who is on parole; he's yet to get in a fight since he's started Yarate. Consider thrashing, slamming, etc. Once you start, how can you stop? Or the football lockos and their fans. The fans marvelous new order of peace and security taste the euphoria of violence and go out for a little of their own, killing themselves and others on the hiphways, abusing their wives and bids. Meanwhile, the players are relatively calm off-field, during the season answay. PeSade said eventually we will be able to kill thousands at one time, but it is better to kill one with passion.

Now we come to Nihilism today, in a society subtlev similar to lath-century Russia, tust of into a "doolworth's and you'll see the modern Amrican serfs. Today's moral principle is suicide, be it by drugs, repressed violence, or nuclear war, and the only way to survive is to isolate one's self from the faceless mob of a society eager to kill itself. Once you realize there is no "meaning" to life, and that Cod or the povernment is not going to take care of you from cradle to grave, you can laugh at the world when they're in Raptures, and live your own life.

Bibliography, and other Suggested Readings:

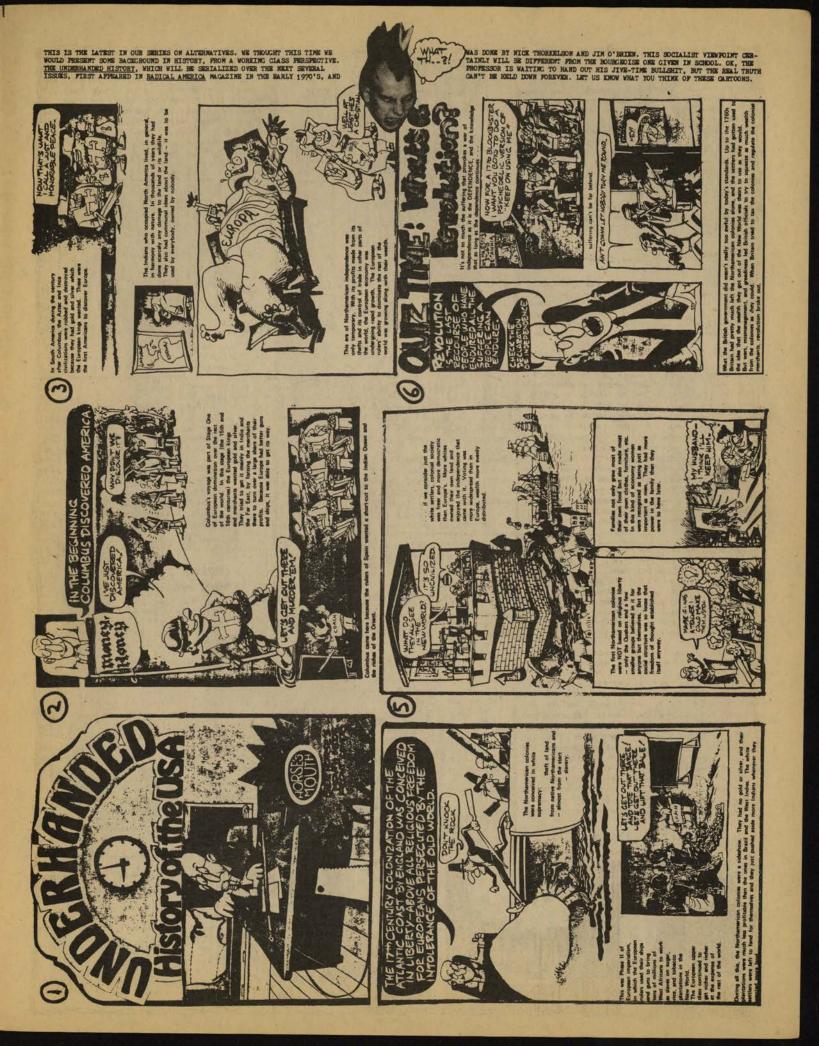

THE EYPEPIENCE OF NOTHINGNESS, Michael Novak FIFPETCAARD'S EYISTENTIAL ETHICS, George J Stack

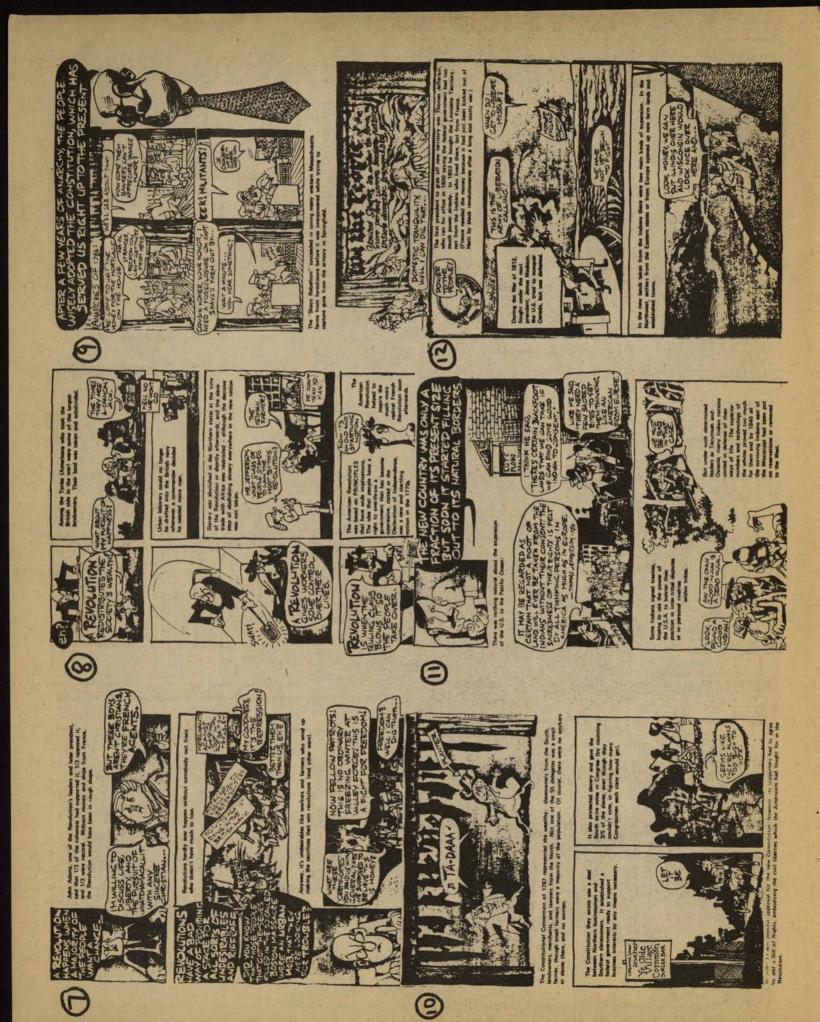

TAVING THE QUANTUM LEAP, Fred Alan Wolfe FATHERS AND SONS, by S.I. Turgenev, just to see how the Nihilists were panned by the media in the 1860's.
EITHER/OR and THE CONCEPT OF IRONY, Soren

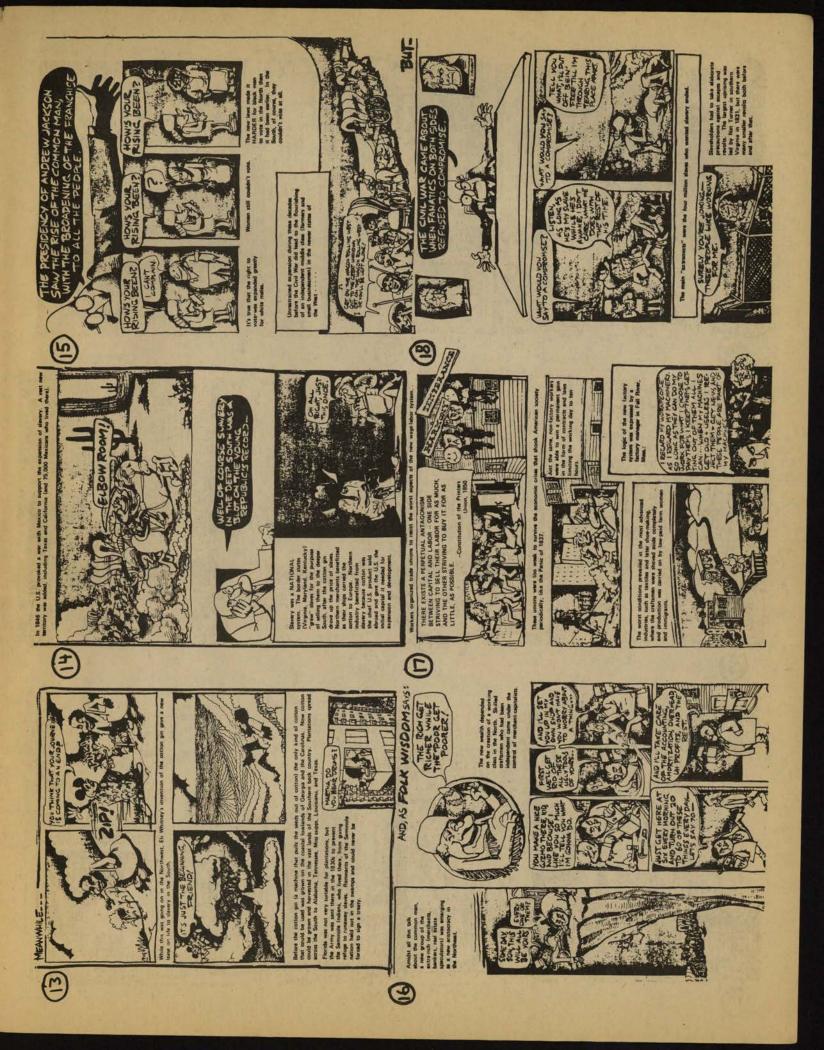

Pierkeraard

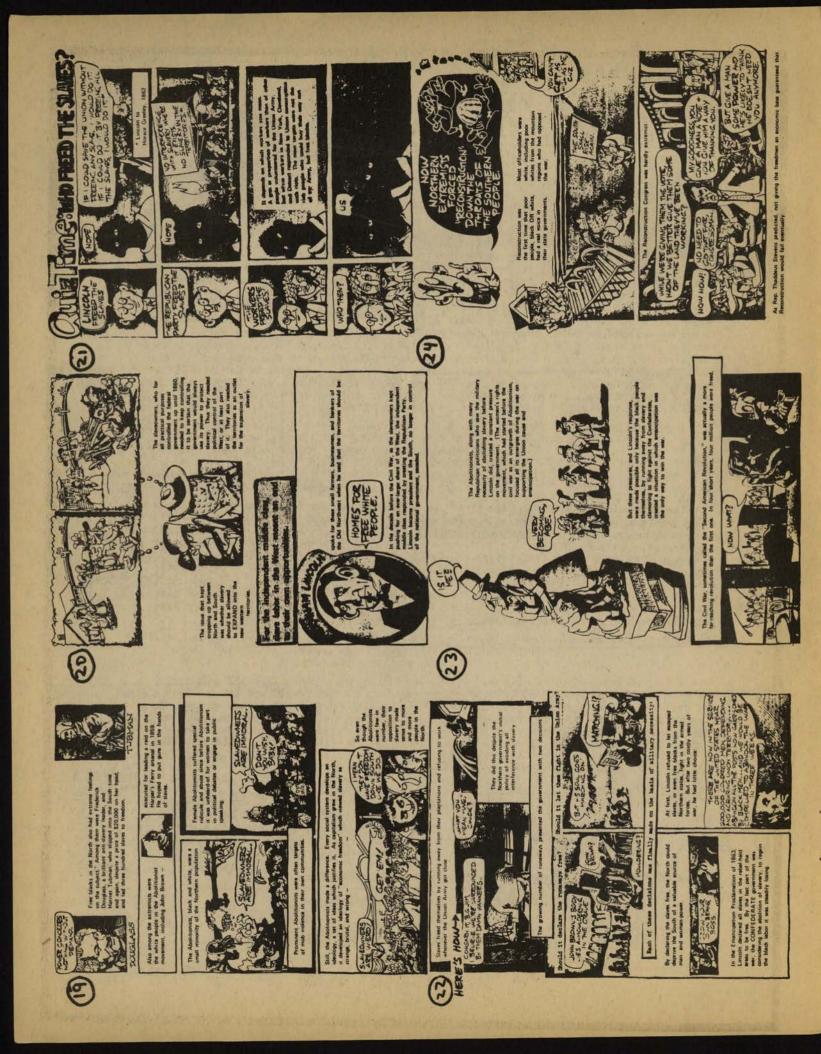

Welcome to the System

version sound flyer #3

Version Sound (re: alternative music and film organization) is an outlet/outpost for striving/starving musicians and artists. it is our hope to make available all sorts of new and unusual music, films and publications that would go ignored by previously established mass media outlets.
this new year promises to be an especially creative, productive and turniltuous one, with a good £ deal of new releases and publications in the works and lots of big-time plans. we are also attempting to (still) get a steadfast distribution network in order (sub-underground). if you would like to be placed on our mailing list, it is as easy as a self-addressed, stamped envelope.
we are not a hardcore label. that would be that way too limiting, we are a label dedicated to American roots music, this include almost every concievable form/combination of American music; hardcore punk, jazz, blues, surf, country & western, the list goes on. Music is music is music is s music.... While we may be working with a lot of genres and sub-genres, it is our hope to bring out only the best, the most radical, the most dangerous, the most creative of these groups, this is a goal that still has to be realized. (patience, please). we are a music label, to align ourselves with any specific musical trend would be way too boring.

I believe in music as a positive life-force. it is usually the key to solving a lot of my hangup s and problems. when i am working with music and feel i am contributing to some "artistic" movement, i am happy. we are at an extremely exciting period of American music. all the major labels are stagnating/stewing in their own shit and are at a complete loss to figure out why people are no longer purchasing their Muzak drivel. Meanwhile, the independant record labels are thriving. Good, honest, exciting music is being churned out by the truckload. Hundreds of bands are surfacing with every type of music imaginable. And it is only the tip of the iceberg. And H.C. punk is only a portion && of that tip. & Hardcore has been very dissapointing to me of late. A lot of bands have lost their soul and are playing their version of generic political thrash. Only the truly original/creative/intelligent bands will survive.

As a label, we are open to all sorts of music. Demo tapes are welcomed from all ends of the country. We are especially interested in music that defies categoriztion and labels, that goes way beyond the norm of accepted musical styles/trends, music that has relevancy at any time, not just while Reagan is president (chortle). I don't really know what I am trying to say with this "editorializing between advertisements" business. I suppose I just want & bands to think a bit more for themselves and && be as creative as possible. break new ground. i would also like to offer my energy and effort to the bands that are really struggling to do something different and not just the same old song. thanks for listening. -r.moore 1/83 coming in '83: Negative Element 8-song "yes, we have no bananas" e.p.

Jody Foster's Army "surfin' J.F.A." e.p.

CHOKE RAVEN KILL PUPPY compilation LP (double maybe)

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER

BY JEFF BALE

REVIEWERS:

(JB) JEFF BALE (RF) RAY FARRELL (RS)RUTH SCHWARTZ

(JS) JOHN SILVA (SS) STEVE SPINALI (TY)TIM YOHANNAN

If you want your stuff review ed, please send all records and tapes to JEFF BALE, MAXIMUM ROCK REVIEW EDITOR, Box 9760, Berkeley CA 94709. Note the new address! If you want it reviewed and gi-ven airplay on the radio show, send two copies to that address or to TIM Y., Box 288, Berkeley CA 94701.

I'd like to begin by thanking Tim Y. for filling in while I was on vacation in Chicago by writing more than his usual share of record reviews. Next issue things should be back to normal if I don't pass out or flake out.

Next up on the agenda is the answer to an important query. J. Lindley of Bellingham, WA asked how to get those great Finnish punk records we raved about. Well, now there's two

1) You can order some of them from Rough Trade (see ad for address). Call them to find out exactly which records they

TARDS EP, the Propaganda compilation LP, and upcoming RIISTETYT and APPENDIX LPs from Propaganda-Box 393--00101 Helsinki 10--FINIAND. LPs are $9, 12" EPs are $6, 7" are $3. For postage, check the ads in our Finnish scene report in MRR #3.

If you want great non-stop thrash, don't miss out. By the way, James, I'm glad they sing in Finnish--I hate it when people from other countries try to copy English punk bands. India probably will be the next hardcore paradise!

Finally, I mentioned in MRR #1 that we'd be have before ordering.

2) You can order all of them from P. Tuotanto--c/o Voitto Vasko--76780 Lamminmiki--FINLAND; you can order the BASWe just don't have the time to do it ourselves.

Wê'd appreciate any intelligent reviews of books about countercultures, rock music, politics, economics, or social movements. Please keep them short or make them highly sophisticated analyses. We're not printing any long reviews that just blather on about nothing. For the proper format, consult any scholarly journal. Movie reviews should be short and to the point, unless they deal with extremely complex issues that demand lots of consideration. Please note: we reserve the right to refuse or respond to any material submitted for publication. Also, send us a copy of what you write and keep the original, because we can't afford to return things we don't use. Thanks.

That's all for now. folks.

U.S. U.S. U.S. US U.S. U.S. U.S. U.S. U.S. U.S. U.S. U.S. U.S.

AFFECTIVES - "Unrequited Love" 12" EP

If the CONTRACTIONS were from New York and sung about typical teenage themes, this is what they'd sound like. The AFFEC-TIVES play inoffensive pop-rock with an occasional good hook, but there's nothing here that'll make you sit up and really pay attention. "You hate Me" is a catchy teen lament. (JB) (Griss Cross--P.O. Box 459--Radio City Station--N.Y., NY 10019)

G.G. ALLIN - "No Rules" EP

Hey, this is even better than G.G.'s usual garage punk offerings, being faster, tighter, and minus sexism. Amazing! The background choruses turn "No Rules" into a classic, but this guy still serves as a constant reminder of how absurd people can be. That's a recommendation. (JB) (Orange--639 Broadway--Box 902--New York, NY 10012)

ANTI - I Don't Want to Die in your War LP

The most intense thrash album from L.A. in quite a while. The music is pretty generic, but it's also plenty loud and fast. Lyrically, ANTI range from intelligent ("Fight War, Not Wars," the title track, and "The Cycle") to the semi-moronic WASTED YOUTH level ("Poseur" and "I Hate You"). Go for it if you can't get enough thrash punk, but not if you're searching for something unusual. (JB)

(New Underground-4305 W. 153rd St.--Lawndale, CA 90260)

AMPS - "Wall of Flowers/Suicide Note"

Are the AMPS one of the missing links between the 60s and the 80s? Perhaps. "Flowers" is 60s-style garage rock with overlong guitar leads and anti-censorship lyrics. But buzzsaw guitars, a gradually accelerating tempo, and one of those goofy are solos that only untutored musicians can produce make the flip a stronger and more modern song. Pretty cool scord. (JB) (Faster Fidelity--P.O. Box 326--Millwood, N.Y 10546)

AUTHORITIES - "Soundtrack for Trouble" EP

Musically, this is sorta like early T.S.O.L. or BAD RELI-GION, which is nothing to complain about. Lyrically, it has your basic punk themes, but there are a few lines which almost negate the sentiments because of the ignorance dismost negate the sentiments because of the ignorance displayed. For example, on "Achtung," a don't-drop-the-bomb song, they say, "The Russians say they don't want mar, but that's because they're on top." They then go on to say that you can't believe anything the government says, so why do you believe the Russians have military superiority, which most experts deny. Also, in the anti-police song ("I Hate Cops"), the line "cops are all niggers" comes up. Huh? Then how come they're always busting and hassling Blacks? Wise up, guys! A little knowledge is dangerous, but the record still sounds good. (TY)
(Selectra--216 Patricia Ave.--Stockton, CA 95210)

AFFLICTED - "Snuff Squad" cassette EP

Four very well-produced tracks of slower, more powerful British-style punk, without the Oi posing. At first, it didn't do much for me, but after seeing them live, I like the tape a lot more. Watch for wax. (TY) (Dan--1153 San Anselmo Ave.--Millbrae, CA 94030)

BIG BLACK - "Lungs" 12

This Chicago band produce an original sort of quasi-industrial sound reminiscent of early PERE UBU and DEMEN-TIA PRECOX. There's all sorts of weird frills and noises that suggest hammers hitting anvils and pistons driving machines. But don't think these guys are arty--their music has a vague punky sensibility and primal hypnotic rhythms. If depressed factory towns like Cary, IN ever need a theme song, they should turn to BIG BLACK. (JB) (Ruthless--P.O. Box 1458--Evanston, IL 60204)

BIG BOYS - "Fun, Fun, Fun" 12" EP

A real mixed bag. The BIG BOYS are at their best when they play punk ("Fun.."), thrash ("Apolitical"), or jittery punk-funk like the MINUTEMEN ("Nervous" and "Frison"). When they branch out, they totally blow it. Here they butcher KOOL & THE CANC'S "Hollywood Swinging" and do awful PIC BAC imitations ("We Got Soul") that must be aimed at audiences in New Wave discos or something. This gets a qualified recommendation at best. (JB) (Moment--P.O. Box 12424--Austin, TX 78711)

BRUCES - "I Don't Care" cassette EP

As unlikely as the name of the band is, their music turns put to be really cool modern day thrash, albeit quirky. Seven songs which are a bit under-recorded, but that is more than compensated for by the fun and energy put out. (TY) (S. Briscoe--763 Bird Ave.--San Jose, CA 95125)

ALEX CHILTON - Live in London LP

This was recorded in 1980 with the SOFT BOYS as a back-up band. He covers old ghosts like "The Letter" and "September Curls," as well as R & B and rockabilly. Better sounding than most of his latest work. Chilton is the only guy that could musically give FLIPPER a run for the, uh...money. A current pick hit. (RF)
(Aura--10 Kendall Pl.--London W2--ENGLAND)

CLAUDE COMA & THE I.V's - Art from Sin LP

A garage rock record with punky and psychedelic overtones. Most of it is pretty uninspiring (especially Side 2), but they do come up with occasional nuggets like the punked-out "Let's Go to Hell" and the catchy, scathing "Minimum Wage." The lyrics are more intelligent than usual for this genre. Worth a listen. (JB) (Goverment--5210 Adams Ave.--San Diego, CA 92115)

CRUCIFIX - "1984" EP

An unexpectedly strong release. CRUCIFIX may look like English punks, but they definitely have that American intensity. "Prejudice" and "Rise and Fall" are two songs played at thrash speed that are both powerful and distinctive. Real great stuff! "Steelcase Enclosure" is far less interesting, and Sothira's wonderfully raspy vocals are mixed a bit too low, but this ?" stands spikes and shoulders above their 12" debut. (JB) (Freak--P.O. Box 331--S.F., CA 94101)

CRAMPS - Transylvanian Tapes LP " - Tales from the Cramps LP

These are two separate "disques especiale," as they say in the biz. They're made up of demos from the real early days, as well as comical Chris Spedding sessions and the wild Chilton tapes. There's live versions of obscurities and B-sides of singles. This should satisfy you while Lux stays nailed to the parlor T.V. (RF) (bootlegs)

CRIB DEATH - "Spoil Your Party" cassette EP

A young band hailing from the Philly area. Their sound falls somewhere between some generic English punk bands and 7 SECONDS. As they're pretty new, I'm sure they'll be refining that shortly. (TY)
(903 South Park Ave.--Audubon, PA 19470)

DEAD KENNEDYS - "Halloween/Saturday Night Holocaust"

Not one of the DK's finer moments. "Halloween" is too rock-oriented and makes me long for the MISFITS' song of the same name. "Holocaust" starts out like an art-damaged neo-psychedelic track on the WITCH TRIALS EP, then mercifully snaps into a fine older-type DK's punk song. Good lyrics as usual, but... (JB) (Alternative Tentacles/Faulty--633 N. La Brea, Ste. A--Hollywood, CA 90028)

DEAD KENNEDYS - Plastic Surgery Disasters LP

The DKs are the only group around whose new releases I approach with the same expectation, apprehension, and critical ear that I did for each new STONES record 16 years ago. You just know alot of thought, work, and possible innovation will be invested in the grooves. Whether a self-appointed or media-chosen representative of "punk," Biafra must be carrying alot of weight on his shoulders. As for the record, side 1 is more like their live selves and more like their earlier recordings. No real let-down, though there are no immediate "classics," either. Side 2 contains longer, more dramatic, and varied pieces which, while bravely breaking the norm, can be very trying. I'll try more later. Meanwhile, the DKs keep subverting middle America. Keep it up. (TY) (Faulty)

DESCENDENTS - Milo Goes to College LP

This L.A. garage punk group bids farewell to vocalist Milo. Well-produced and snappy-fast, they are as tight and fun as they come, somewhat reminiscent of the DICKIES. The songs cover teenage problems like conformity, parents, drugs, and suburban life. One disturbing note--in "I'm Not a Loser," they resort to the all-too-prevalent "you fucking home" name-calling. Maybe these teenage insecurities will ease up after graduation. (TY)
(New Alliance--P.O. Box 21--San Fedro, CA 90733)

DOUBLE CROSS - "Here to Stay" cassette EP

A 15-song demo from a wine country band whose influences are M.A.D. and CODE OF HONOR, among others. They've got a real tight, thrash-oriented attack. It's not too distinctive yet, but I wouldn't be surprised to see them develop into something special as time goes on. (TY) (657 Denmark St.--Sonoma, CA 95476)

END RESULT - "The Seven Year Locust Returns" cassette EP

Minimalist art-noise meet hardcore attitudes, with some Japanese musical influences. Huh? They sound a bit like early TUXEDOMOON, the SCREAMERS, or maybe a rawer UNITS with intense lyrics. (TY)
(S. Smith-4558 S. Paulina--Chicago, IL 60609)

EVEN WORSE - "Mouse or Rat/1984"

These two live songs by New York's EVEN WORSE are a bit sloppy and incorporate some HM guitar damage, but the band's sheer exuberance and chutzpah easily manage to overcome such piddley faults. They've got a chaotic, amateur charm all their own, and the singer's sarcastic onstage raps sound frighteningly like mine. Yeah, I like this record, especially "Mouse or Rat." (JB)
(Worse than You--c/o Corradi--249 Eldridge St.--Box 14--NYC, NY 10002)

ESSENTIALS - "Past Music in a Slow Town" EP

Cool pop-punk, maybe the closest thing to hardcore that can be found in south Florida. All the songs except "Johnny are real zippy and guitar-heavy, so if you're looking for basic rock and roll fun, this is for you. (JB) (Safety Net--P.O. Box 4546--Fort Lauderdale, FL 33338)

EXECUTIONER - "1-9-8-4" cassette EP

A strong, driving thrash sound with interesting twists and great lyrics. Another fine young band emerges from the South Bay, which was the home of punk rock in the 60s. Tim Tanooka said they were excellent; he's right. (TY) (Dave Burks--1929 Fillmore St.--Santa Clara, CA 95050)

FANG - "Land Shark" 12" EP

Eight-song release that captures their older sound (somewhere between FLIFPER and CRUCIFIX) and a faster-paced raging style. Very tight, with lots of distortion, lyrics of a vague, cryptic, humorous, and sometimes dubious nature. (TY)
(c/o Tom Flynn--2146 Bonar--Berkeley, CA 94702)

FLIPPER - "Get Away/The Old Lady that Swallowed the Fly"

Even though I think that everyone in FLIPPER is egotistical, self-indulgent asshole (except the ever-cool Ted), I've got to admit that they've put out some truly great singles. "Get Away" is no exception, with its powerful driving beat, noise guitar, and clever, venomous lyrics. The 33 1/3 rpm flip is another humorous, annoying novelty, but "Get Away" makes this one a must. Amazing cover, too. (JB) (Subterranean--577 Valencia--S.F., CA 94:10)

FARTZ - "World Full of Hate" 12" EP

Not quite up to the standard set by their debut EP, but still excellent. Some of the thrashers run together indistinguishably, and slower Metal songs like "Hero's" and BLACK SABEATH's "Children of the Grave" don't cut it, but in general, the same qualities that made their 7" mo great--sneering vocals that could strip the paint off walls, raging instrumental power, and perceptive lyrics--are well in evidence on this 12". If you play it loud enough, you can a) make the Silent Majority wilt with "Battle Hymn of Ronnie Reagan," b) do agit-prop work on the R.C.P. with "Don't Want no Gun," c) put fascists on the run with my fave "Take a Stand (Against the Klan)", d) drive your nosey neighbors crazy with any of these 16 tracks, or e) manage all of the above. This record's an all-purpose ass-kicker, so use it. (JE) (Faulty)

FASTRACKS - Play Five of their Favorites" 12" EP

This refreshing, bouyant platter of pop-punk would have been highly recommendable even if it didn't have one of the best songs of '82 ("In America") on it. Seattle's FASTBACKS rely on amphetamine velocity and memorable songwriting to fuel their better compositions ("No Lethal Hope" and "Wait"), and on ingenious changes of pace for the stunning "In America." Enormous fun! (SS) (No Threes/Safety First--P.O. Box 5940--University Station-Seattle, WA 98105)

FATALITIES - "Yeah, Right" cassette EP

Medium-fast punk, FLIPPERish drone, sharp lyrics ("Reaganomics"), funny lyrics ("Gotta Piss"), and really dumb lyrics (especially in the xenophobic "It's Time for the Bomb Again"). They also throw in the kitchen sink, and have a "sine called Corrugated What. (TY) (c/o Lopsided--5 DeForest Lane--Box 171--Lagrangeville, NY 12540)

FEAR - "Fuck Christmas/Bleep Christmas"

A 44-second ditty that sums up my feeling about the depressing "holiday" season. The B-side is for the radio. (TY) (Slash--P.O. Box 48888--L.A., CA 90048)

5.0.5.1. - "El Salvador" EP

A very hard-to-come-by EP by this San Diego group. The music is medium-paced punk with occasional rapid-fire out-bursts. The production is very powerful and English-like, and the words are really good, covering cliquishness, religion, paranola, and intervention in Central America. (TY) (out of print)

FREEZE - "Guilty Face" EP

More "Boston-paced" music from this Cape Cod outfit, no letdown from their previous material. The playing is solid, tight, and inspired, with good hooks all around. As the liner notes say, "this record has been inspired by warmongers, social pressures, police oppression, and rednecks...their necks are getting redder. (TY) (Modern Method-268 Newbury St.--Boston, MA 02116)

HUSKER DU - Everything Falls Apart LP

This is it! The HUSKERs have finally come up with a great the abum, and if it doesn't put them right up there with the top bands, then everyone's lost their hearing listening to too much FLIPPER. The LP has got the power of their live performances, combined with a clean, crisp recording quality. Even if they can't play Risk too well, they sure can play

(Reflex--731 Pontiac Pl.--Mendota Hgts, MN 55120)

J.I.A. - "Corporate Interest" cassette EP

From the foothills of northern California's Sierras come JUSTICE IN AMERICA, blazing a trail with great thrashing lyrical assaults on the contradictions of life in the U.S.A. today. Very tight, very powerful, and the sentiments are right on the money. (TY) (Sandy--324 Jan Rd.--Grass Valley, CA 95945)

IAST - "Up in the Air" EP

Wow! The IAST have finally reverted to their earlier fast and raw form on 2/3 of this EP. "Up in the Air" is a super cut with great 60s organ swills and a short but sweet psy-chedelic guitar break. "Wrong Turn" is almost as good, but "Leper Colony" has an awful, pretentious chorus. Still, it's good to see the LAST get back a bit closer to the roots. (JB) (Warfrat--P.O. Box 25A39--L.A., CA 90025)

LOST GENERATION - "Never Work" EP

The A-side has a very long slower punk song that rags on working; the B-side has a very long slower punk song that rags on working; the B-side has three thrashers, the best being a great anti-drug song called "Mind Control." They also do a breakneck speed version of "Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds." But guys, why "just another bitch?" Are you just another bunch of "punkers?" (TY)

(Incas--272 Benham Ave.--Bridgeport, CT 06604)

MINUTEMEN - What Makes a Man Start Fires? LP

Do I really have to describe them after they've put out so much vinyl? No radical departures here, as their whole style is a continuing radical departure. You'll knew if you like them by now-I sure do. (TY) (SST--Box 1--Lawndale, CA 90260)

MUTANTS - Fun Terminal LP

A good pop album that could have been a great pop album. The songs still have a thousand hummable hooks and the background vocals are as coy as ever, but what the fuck happened to the heavy dual guitars that feature so prominently in the MUTANTS' live shows? Unfortunately, they've been almost obliterated in a mix which overemphasizes Fritz's weird voice. The "wimpifying" technique turned the GO-GO'S into stars, but I wish someone would make a bootleg out of the MUTANTS' earlier demo tape to provide a contrast and illustrate their real potential. (JB) (Quality-380 Birchmont Rd.--Scarborough, Ontario Mik 1M7--CAN)

MASSACRE GUYS - "Devil's Slide" cassette EP

The Mormons must be shitting! This young band combines thrash pacing with elements of jazz, pop sensibilities, and intelligent lyrics to produce a clean (too clean?), distinct sound that you'll hopefully soon find on vinyl. (TY) (c/o H-Block--1588 Princeton Ave.--Salt Lake City, UT 84105)

MISSION OF BURMA - VS. LP

Boston really loves its rock 'n' roll. MISSION OF BURMA aren't hardcore or the typical Boston bar band. This first album is faster and louder than their other stuff, at least most of the time. The almost accidental meshing of the guitars is better than ever. (RF)
(Ace of Hearts--P.O. Box 579--Kenmore Stn.--Boston, MA 02215)

NEGATIVE APPROACH - "Can't Tell No One" EP

Another Touch and Go midwest classic along the lines of the FIX and the NECROS. All ten songs are manic, even when they aren't totally fast, but, uh,..the lyrics will make you understand their name, because they're sick sick sick of all this pressure pressure or something something something. (TY)

(Touch & Go--P.O. Box 716--Maumee, OH 43537)

OCTOBER DAYS - "Do the Right Thing" 12" EP

This group from Connecticut decided to move to the sunny climes of SoCal, with it's recording advantages. Their new release is a 5-song effort that with a sound somewhere between early SHATTERED FAITH and the DREAM SYNDICATE. It has the edge of punk, the vocals of pop, and the structure of more melodic rock. A good effort. (TY)
(Aim--6733 Greenleaf--Whittier, CA 906Q1)

OVERKILL - "Hell's Getting Hotter" EP

The long-awaited debut of this medium-fast metal punk band. The songs are positive, spirited, and catchy, with lots of power to 'em. (TY) (SST--Box 1--Lawndale, CA 90260)

PANTHER BURNS - "Blow your Top" 12" EP

Not as hot as before. In fact, this is contentabilly, or even "whichwayyougoinbilly." Still, the PANTHER BURNS have that certain-dim the lights--"mysterious" edge. "Panther Man" makes the STRAY CATS sound like a showbiz snowjob. Keep cool, fans, 'cause ol' Gustavd is already lookin' for a otter band. (RF) (Animal, dist. by Chrysalis)

POLICE STATE - "Police State/Rich Punks" cassette

A new East Bay band, including ex-INTENSIFIED CHAOS person Brad, Jake, and Jake's mom on guitar. This is real good bone-crushing hardcore with a British feel. I'm looking forard to seeing them live. (TY) (Jake Smith -- 3024 Wheeler -- Berkeley, CA 94705)

POP-O-PIES - "The White" 12" EP

Perfect! Captured on record before they become a "good w Wave" band. Anybody that's from New Jersey, has worked in a bakery, thinks California is funny, and will play one chord for an entire song, is O.K. with me. (RF) (415-F.O. Box 14563-S.F., CA 94114)

RF 7 - "Fall In" 12" EP

Musically, I like it better than their LP, but the words are, uh, confused, to say the least. They put it best in one of their own songs, where it's admitted that they one of their own songs, where it's admitted that they "haven't the faintest idea what [they're] trying to say."

And they prove it--"666 Head" contains some retarded racist shit; "Revolutionary Werker" attacks the R.C.P. for all of the wrong reasons; "Vampire Lady(Coke Whore) is just plain stupid. I could go en, but it might be contagious. (TY)
(Smoke Seven--7230 De Soto Ave.--Suite 104---Canoga Pk, CA 91303)

RIK L. RIK - "Dominique/Soul Power"

Remember NEGATIVE TREND as they appeared on the old Tooth and Nail compilation? Well, Rik L. Rik was a member of that seminal outfit, and now he's back with a new single. The A-side is an overproduced, almost syrupy psychedelic number. The B-side is better though, sounding like a cross between the early SLEEPERS and late IGGY. (TY) ('82 Rite--P.O. Box 3911--Hollywood, CA 90023)

RANK AND FILE - Sundown LP

The Kinman brothers could pull any sound off. The WHO, the VELVET UNDERCROUND, any real rock 'n' roll. I'm biased. If I didn't think the DILS were better, I'd really like this record. But there was something about the way the DILS could play "Mr. Big" right before the EVERLY BROTHERS' "Cathy's Clowm and be more energetic and original than RANK AND FILE will probably ever be. But Chip and Tony are different now. They're friendly! Shit, they're almost as warm as Springsteen. (RF) (Slash--P.O. Box 4888--L.A., CA 90048)

REAL KIDS - "Outta Style" 12" EP

Alright! The REAL KIDS have been resurrected for the benefit of all. Their forte--60s pop-punk; their trademarks-heavy guitars, sizable hooks, and the plaintive voice of John Felice. Here the combination works best on the seductive "No Place Fast," the driving "Senseless," and the rock 'n' rollin' "It's Been Real." The production could be dirtier, but this is still super bad Bosstown bop. (JB) (Star Rhythm--P.O. Box 94--Malden, MA 02148)

SEISMIC WAVES - "Fucking Fashions" cassette EP

A spirited young band from outside Chicago. They play a variety of styles on this tape, ranging from the FLIPPERish "Fucking Fashions" to the thrashed-out "I.R.S." to the funnypunk classic, "Burn, Jane Byrne." The lyrics to "Morton Grove" are a bit muddled, but SEISMIC WAVES have potential Livest have they get along the (IR) tial. I just hope they get some gigs. (JB) (lost the address--we'll print it next time)

SUBURBAN MUTILATION - "Daddy was a Nazi" cassette LP

These guys get "worse" all the time. They even make DE-MENTED YOUTH and LENNONBURGER look good. If you don't love the thrashed-out noise these jokers make, then you better go back to '77. Armed with psychotic stuff like this, I'm ready for the future. (TY) (c/o Norb--708 St. Joseph St.--Green Bay, WI 54301)

SILLY KILLERS - "Not that Time Again" EP

Musically, this is a neat garagy record with both punk and rock overtones. In the midst of all the new political thrash bands, the SILLY KILLERS actually sound somewhat refreshing, even though they employ older stylistic devices. But the lyrics--yeachN! I'm getting real sick of all this exist and homophobic shit coming out now. Just because you guys are insecure about your own sexuality, you don't have to foist it on others. (JB)
(No Threes--5940 U-Station--Seattle, NA 98105)

SHATTERED FAITH - LP

A really unpleasant surprise. Musically, it's more of the standard SHATTERED FAITH sound--mid-tempo punk with melodic choruses and occasional heavy metal guitar frills--but the production is too restrained and their newer material is less engaging. Worse, the live side is filled with standard rock and roll bullshit (Don Kirschner-like intros, artificially heightened applause, iname raps like "God bless you"), and the lyrics are unbelievably stupid. The clichéd songs about girls are bad enough, but "U.S.A." plumbs the depths of ultra-patriotic retardation and makes it clear that earlier cuts like "Reagan Country" should be taken a face value rather than as satires. If this is L.A., give me Boston. (JB) (Prophet, dist. by Thunderbolt)

SUPER HEROINES - Cry for Help LP

Help! The SUPER HEROINES fancy themselves the cutting adge of the oh-so-trendy "horror rock" now smanating from L.A., but despite their pretentions, this LP showcases little more than regurgitated Heavy Metal. In a word, awful. Bemisbrain should concentrate on releasing more MODERN WAR-ZARE material. (JB)
(Bemisbrain-200 Terminal Ave.--Long Beach, CA 90803)

THROBBERS - "Unrequited Hardon/Dear One"

A neat little garage pop record by some clever Chicago teens. Acoustic-type guitars create a bouncy background for the hilarious lyrics and catchy chorus in "Hardon," which describes an all-too-typical situation facing males. "Dear One" has more of a 60s pop feel. Not bad for a first effort. (JB) (no label name, no address)

TOXIC REASONS - Independence LP

The TOXIC REASONS finally have their own LF after two 7" EFs and cuts on various compilations. Here, they re-do their first single, cover MAX FROST & THE TROOPERS' "Shape of Things to Come," and rip through the whole gamut of their live set--punky reggae, punk, and thrash. The liner notes are great and there's a glossy magazine included. A must. (TY)
(Risky--1280 2nd Ave.--S.F., CA 94122)

T.S.O.L. - Beneath the Shadows LP

From their inception, T.S.O.L.'s finest efforts used both hardcore energy and a fiery dramatic tension to fuel their compositions. Sadly, there's surprisingly little excitement or drama on their latest LP; instead, they've opted for a heavily atmospheric approach to hold together a set of weak post-punk songs. I will always admire T.S.O.L.'s contributions to the California punk scene, but I cannot recommend this record. (SS) (Faulty)

TAR BABIES/MECHT MENSCH - cassette EP

Two absolutely great bands from Madison who have had cuts on the Meathouse compilation. Both bands are recording with Bob of HUSKER DU, and hopefully will have some vinyl out soon. If it's half as good as this tape, we're in for a treat. (TY)
(Robin Davies--311 S. Few--Madison, WI 53704)

U-BOATS - "Government Ripoff/Breakout Tonite"

This sounds like U.K.-'78, not FIA-'82--you know, that slow-paced Oi sound. The best part is the totally fuzzed-out guitar. (TY)
(row--3126 E. 54th--Zephyrhills, FIA 33599)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Rat Music for Rat People LP

Live recordings, ostensibly taken from various shows produced by Paul Rat around the Bay Area over the last six years. This contains cuts by the DKs, FLIPPER, D.O.A., CIRCLE JERKS, BLACK FLAG, T.S.O.L., BAD BRAINS, CRUCIFIX, and the late, great DILS and AVENCERS (though the latter two's cuts are from past their prime). Most tracks are good quality, so this album should do well. (TY) (GoI--1230 Grant Ave.--S.F, CA 94133)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Annoy Your Neighbor with this Tape cassette

From Chainsam fangine, this collection ranges from hardcore to hard noise. On the noise side, we have SMERSH (a lot like the SCREAMERS), SENSELESS HATE, BLIGHT, and ATTRITION. There's slower punk by ROACH MOTEL and the BAD SEEDS, TION af few cuts that have already been out on record (CRACand a few cuts that have already been out on record (CRACMED ACTOR, ANGRY SAMOANS), but the hit for me was Canada's SUBURBAN MENACE, a totally great group. (TY)
(Chainsam--Box 5356--Bethlehem, PA 18015)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Amuck LP

A compilation of Arizona bands. One side is arty/experimental, which I'm not competent to comment on. The other side is a mix of thrash, punk, New Wave, and experimental. Probably an up-to-date anthology of Phoenix today. Faves are JODY FOSTER'S ARMY, SOYLENT GREEN, and the MEAT PUPPETS. (TY) (Placebo--5820 W. Virginia--Phoenix, AZ 85035)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Mindrocker LP (volumes 1,2, and 3)

Three new releases of 60s punk re-issues, à la Febbles. Volume i focusses on California bands like the ERCCUES and the OTHER HALF; #2 has mostly Chicago-area bands, including the DEL-VETTS and the great SHADY DAZE; #3 is a potpourri and includes the MYDDLE CLASS and the classic BALLOON FARM cut, "A Question of Temperature." These are the lesser-knowns, the equivalents of 90% of today's punk bands, who managed to put out that one great single before fading into obscurity in one flash of purple Owsley. The sound quality on these records is stupendous, somehow enhanced to today's standards. Now you can compare these old gems to today's neo-psychedelic bands, and guess who pales in the comparison? Rave on! (TY) (Line--16 Papenhuder Strasse 16-D-2000-Hamburg 76--W. GER.)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Kitten Kompilation cassette LP

A potpourri of Minneapolis-St. Paul bands, all on the punk side to varying degrees. My faves are GROUND ZERO and WILLFUL NECLECT. Thank MUSKER DÜ, who also appear here, for this project. Unfortunately, the tape is already out-of-print. (TY)
(Reflex--731 Pontiac Place--Mendota Heights, MN 55120)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - No Core cassette LP

Four groups--COLCOR, NO LABELS, NO ROCK STARS, and COR-ROSION OF CONFORMITY--share this effort to show the world that hardcore lives in the American South. Well, if this is reprentative, it not only lives, it thrives! The cassette's cover sums it up; it shows a Rebel flag being burned. (TY) ($4 to 1005 St. Mary's St.--Raleigh, NC 27605)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Rodney on the ROQ-3 LP

Like the earlier volumes, one side is punk and one side is pop. Lots of the bands are new to vinyl, including KENT STATE, ILL REPUTE, CATCH 22, and RED SCARE. The vets are CH 3, J.F.A., NO CRISIS, PARIAH, and RUDI from Ireland. Most of Side i is anthemic, melodic punk. I won't deal with the flip except to say that the BANGLES track is much rawer than their EF. (TY) (Poshboy--P.O. Box 38861--L.A., CA 90038)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Valley Fever cassette LP

This compilation from Tuscon is an admirable effort. The tape features good production and wide variety of bands. There are punk bands like CONFLICT, who have a strong thrash attack, and the UREAN GUERRILIAS, who have a garage tinge like the CHURCH POLICE—grinding, profound, and original. The defunct SELDOMS do a JAD FAIR imitation, GREEN ON RED have a live track that's not as good as the stuff on their 12", and the PHANTOM LIMES have a track that sounds like Jello Biafra playing with the PANTHER BURNS. There's other pop, electronic, and psychedelic cuts that have a certain spark. Something for everybody, and a chronicle of Arizona's musical history in one package. Let's have some more, Lee. (RS) (Iconoclast—44447 E Eastland—Tucson, AZ 85711)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Sudden Death LP

Yet another L.A. compilation, and like most of the others, this is well worth the cash. The sound quality is mostly good, and it features well-knowns like RED KROSS and JODY FOSTER'S ARMY, barely knowns like the SINS, YOUTH GONE MAD, and SIN 34, and unknowns like MORAL DECAY, CRANKSHAFT, SADIST FACTION, the DEMENTED, the NAUCHTY WOMEN, and DEAD YOUTH. My faves are J.F.A., SIN 34, and RED KROSS. (TY) (Smoke 7--7230 De Soto Ave. #104--Canoga Park, CA 91303)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - There is More cassette LP

A follow-up to Is That All there Is?, and from start to finish, it's a blitz. Made up mostly of Ohio bands like ZERO DEFEX, the AGITATED, STARVATION ARMY, the URBAN MUTANTS, the OFFREATS, the DARK, and the IDIOT SAVANTS, it's a total joy. For only $2, you're really a jerk if you don't send away for it. (TY)
(Jimi--c/o Slam--F.O. Box F-68--Akron, OH 44308)

VARVE - "Bamboo Curtain" EP

San Francisco's most provocative all-girl outfit have preserved much of their garagy charm on this debut single. "Bamboo Curtain" and "The Plan" retain too much artiness to connect as good pop songs, but "Erotic Fridgidaire" has a pleasant melody and a bouncy guitar riff to recommend it. Above average. (SS)
(Risky--1280 2nd Ave.--S.F., CA 94122)

WASTED TALENT - "Self-Rule" cassette EP

I think this will be out on an album acon. It's very sparse and bass-heavy thrash. I'm not sure I like the singing that much, but the words are all great, and, given time, I'm sure their sound will become more cohesive. (TY) (Greta-402 S. Burrowes St.--State College, PA 16801)

WILLFUL NEGLECT - LP

Too bad--the music is really tight and furious, and some of the songs are well taken, but this young band is plagued by the same lyrical problems that many other hard-core groups have in the area of regressive sexual attitudes. Punks have gotta get beyond stupid sexual stereotyping and homophobia. Those are the predominate values of the society we supposedly despise, so why carry them into our own? Fortunately, there are some positive ideas expressed here, especially in "Abort the Mission." (TY) (Neglected--49 Battle Creek Pl.--St. Paul, NN 55119)

WHAT - "Cloris/Time Won't Let Me"

The WMAT are an all-female group from the Midwest, and they've made one of those records that's so bad it's good. You know, the SHACGS syndrome. "Gloria" is an amateur but straightforward cover of the PATTI SMITH version (!); the B-side comman a complete hatchet job of the OUTSIDERS' old classic, replete with out-of-tune guitars, off-key harmonies, and imprecise instrumentation. Yuk it up! (JB) (no label name, no address)

U.K.

U.K.

U.K.

U.K.

U.K.

U.K.

U.K.

U.K.

U.K.

ABRASIVE WHEELS - "Burn 'em Down/Urban Rebel"

More urgent and exciting than their debut 7", this single boasts two vibrant street anthems which update the '77-punk style into the 80s. A powerful guitar mix combined with a slashing vocal attack merge especially well on "...Rebel," even though the flip is almost as good. AERASIVE WHEELS have become a definite contender. (SS) (Riot City, dist. by Rough Trade)

ADICTS - "Chinese Takeaway" EP

A letdown. The ADICTS' newest funnypunk release is neither as funny nor as punky as their earlier efforts. The band is clearly capable of making entertaining music, but on this EP inferior material and overly clean production result in yawns rather than laughs. That doesn't bode well for their new album. (JB) (Razor, dist. by Rough Trade)

AFTERMATH U.K. - "Freedom Fighters" EP

This is a fine record. It's very slow amateur punk, but it's got haunting pop vocals and other distinctive qualities that make it stand out. For example, "Freedom Fighters" has a reggaefied structure and twin guitars, one sparse and one ultra dense, which complement each other perfectly. Way cool (JB) (Red Star, no address)

ANTI-NOWHERE LEAGUE - "For You/Ballad of J.J. Decay"

God, a real disorienting week. First, an intelligent record from the EXPLOITED, and now this--a strong pop-punk single with halfway decent lyrics from the biggest geeks around. Both sides benefit from good English production, have good hooks, and stick with you. I give up. (TY) (WXYZ, dist. by Rough Trade)

BLITZ - Voice of a Generation LP

A 50-50 proposition. The strongest tracks are the ones with the cool back-up soccer chants--really powerful punk. And then there's the others, either too sparse, over-produced, or just plain lame (like their cover of LOU REED's "Vicious").

(TY)

(No Future, dist. by Rough Trade)

BORN B.C. - "Power and the Privilege" EP

On one hand, it's slow, repetitive U.K. punk. On the other, it's so raw and weird that the instruments seem to turn into vacuum cleaners and electric saws, while the vocals become eerie PIL-type drones. Definitely odd. It might even grow on me. (TY) (Xcentric Noise--17 West End Rd.--Gottingham--No. Humberside HU16 5PL--ENGLAND)

CRIMINAL CLASS - "Fighting the System/Soldier"

This one's got little to offer except very nasty 01 vocals. "Fighting..." is a reggae-influenced number that doesn't really go anywhere, and "Soldier" is tedious Britpunk that wouldn't even disturb your grandmother. (JB) (Inferno, dist. by Rough Trade) CHELSEA - "Stand Out/Last Drink"

CHELSEA seem to have fallen into a stylistic rut in their latest single. While the production factors are raw (a welcome change), CHELSEA have galvanized the hooks and choruses from their last two singles and album into an effective but unnoriginal package. The lyrics, too, tend to degenerate into the predictable. (SS) (Step Forward, dist. by Rough Trade)

CHRON GEN - "Outlaw" EP

CHRON GEN's polished '77-style pop-punk may not be very exciting to listen to, but their emphasis on accessability and politically astute lyrics make this EP an above-average one. "Outlaw" draws an especially convincing point on fashion vs. content in contemporary punk, while "Behind Closed Doors" addresses the subject of abortion somewhat ambiguously. (astehy and enjoyable. (SS) (Secret, dist. by Rough Trade)

COCK SPARRER - "England Belongs to Me/Argy Bargy"

Long lost proto-Oi band COCK SPARRER have unexpectedly returned. This new release showcases their peculiarly melodic, buzzing guitars, and high-pitched vocals which sound like a cross between soccer choruses and the singing of certain glam-rock bands from the '72-'74 era (SWEET, SLADE, etc.) Though "England..." is avowedly an attempt to take the Union Jack back from the extreme right and make it a symbol for all Englishmen, it still reflects a reactionary world-view where petty nationalism is glorified. (JB) (Carrere, dist. by Rough Trade)

CRASH - "Fight for your Life/CRUX - "Keep on Running" 12" EP

One record with a separate band on each side. In the No Future world, this is an appropriate move, because one side is punk, the other Oi. CRASH is the punk band, and they're similar to many of the bands on that label--anthemic songs a la BLITZ. CRUX are more like the EXPLOITED or the 4 SKINS, only sorta low-key. "I'll Die with my Boots On" is the epitome of Oi topics, but "Streets at Night" is the better song. Nothing exceptional here. (RS)
(No Future, dist. by Rough Trade)

DAMNED - "Dozen Girls" EP

More snappy pop-punk from the DAMNED, complete with organ, synthesized marimbas, and music hall singing. This may be a far cry from "Neat Neat." but it's got an undeniable charm of its own. There are even-dare I say it?--some tasteful guitar licks amid the overall silliness. (JB) (Bronze, dist. by Rough Trade)

DESTRUCTORS - "Jailbait" EP

A fairly unremarkable follow-up to their pretty decent first LP. It would help a lot to have a lyric sheet, especially since a couple of songs ("Sewage Worker" and "Jail Bait") are not even clear enough to tell whether they're serious or not. If they are serious--note the sexy/sexist cover--it would contradict their otherwise progressive views. (TY) (Illuminated, dist. by Rough Trade)

DIRT - Never Mind Dirt, Here's the Bollocks LP

This live LP (EP?) by DIRT captures all of the raw intensity of their exemplary debut, and fuses it with a punky venom that's quite irresistable. Admittedly, the songs on this record vary considerably in quality, but their fiery version of "House of the Rising Sun" is alone worth the price. (SS) (Crass, dist. by Rough Trade)

EXPELLED - "Government Policy/Make it Alone"

This sounds like the better side of VICE SQUAD. I'll just save it at that. (TY) (Riot City, dist. by Rough Trade)

EXPLOITED - "Computers Don't Blunder/Addiction"

A lot's been said about this band being a bunch of moronic yahoos, much of it probably justified, but on this record there's evidence to the contrary. "Computers..," is a great anti-militarist song about the possibility of technology-in-duced holocaust. The B-side is as strong an anti-drug song as you'll find. The music is fast and powerful. (TY) (Secret, dist. by Rough Trade)

FITS - "Lest Laugh" EP

The title song shows lots of promise on this, their third 7". Pretty s-punky stuff, but the B-side cuts are pretty unexciting. (TY) (Rondelet, dist. by Rough Trade)

4 SKINS - "Low Life/Bread or Blood"

Surprisingly good for these normally boring Oi-sters "Low Life" is twice as powerful as anything on their awful LP, and damn catchy to boot. Louder guitars and soccer choruses pull this one up by its braces. (JB) (Secret)

G.B.H. - "Give me Fire/Man-Trap"

The A-side is a standout powerhouse punk song, instrumentally. I can't say much about the lyrics (as with many of their songs) because I have no idea what they're singing about, even after reading them printed. (TY) (Clay, dist. by Rough Trade)

INFA-RIOT - Still Out of Order LP

This release ranks right up there with those of the 4 SKINS and ANTI-PASTI (Caution to the Winds LF) in the contest to see which English band can put out the worst album. Medicore material, a mundame instrumental attack, flat production, and generic 01 themes make this duller than an overused rezor. "In for a Riot" and "Boot Boys" are decent new tracks, but you know something's wrong when an hoary old MOTOR's cover like "Emergency" sounds real strong. ZZZZ.. (JB) (Secret, dist. by Rough Trade)

INSANE - "Why Die/War and Violence"

A great, great record. Both sides start with long slow punk intros, then launch into powerful thrash. This is especially true of the A-side, which breaks on through into the manic. I love it. (TY) (Insane, dist. by Rough Trade)

MAU MAUS - "No Concern" EP

Speed alone would make the MAU MAUS' second EP noticeable among this month's U.K. releases. Both tracks on the B-side are firmly in the DISCHARGE-G.B.H. tradition, but the title cut is almost ruined by an atrocious Heavy Metal intro. Basic thrash--nothing more, nothing less. (JB) (Pax, dist. by Rough Trade)

NEWTOWN NEUROTICS - "Licensing Hours/No Sanctuary"

Back for the fifth time with their distinctive sound-medium paced, 60s fuzz guitars (almost folk-rock), plaintive vocals, real melodies, and personally outraged lyrics. This band is sorta like a punked-out cross between the old MODERN LOVERS and CREEDENCE CLEARWATER REVIVAL. (TY) (CNT, dist. by Rough Trade)

POISON GIRLS - Where's the Pleasure? LP

This record represents a dramatic change of direction for POISON GIRLS, Britain's pre-eminent post-punk band. Their highly produced, sometimes disco-fied instrumental backdrops provide an unexpected contrast to their scathing commentaries on sex, politics, and power. Where's the Pleasure? may lack the stand-out compositions which accompany their other albums, but the open-minded will find good music in a variety of styles (Xntrix, dist. by Rough Trade)

ONE WAY SYSTEM - "Jerusalem/Jackie was a Junkie"

The best release yet by this Oi group. Both sides are faster than their norm, and the record is well-produced with a really FULL sound. This is British punk at close to its best. (TY) (Anagram, dist. by Rough Trade)

PETER & THE TEST TUBE BABIES - Pissed and Proud LP

Well, they've finally put an album out. The sound quality is so good that you'd never know it was live except for the crowd noise and interaction between the band and for the crowd hoise and interaction between the tank and audience. These guys produce powerful 01 music, but their themes are questionable, as with most such groups. They have all sorts of songs about "birds"--the English equivalent of "chicks"--and not being able to get off. Then we the to chicks -- and not being able to get off. Then we have the familiar ode to fighting, getting beat up, and the wimps that won't fight in "Moped lads." Socially relevant themes in "Keep England Untidy" tell us to litter, and "Shitstirrer" is where they explain that when things are bad they will make them worse. Their song "Elvis is Dead" is a classic, though, and "Maniac" is a great pun. But who knows at this point if they're serious? Fun band to listen to but not to contemplate. They are thugs and proud of it. (RS) (No Future, dist. by Rough Trade)

RURELIA BALLET - "Ballet Dance" EP

This intriguing 4-track EP contains music reminiscent of early KLEENEX, with an added sophistication of production values. "The Ballet Dance" and "Unemployed" are recommendable kinetic rockers, but the catchy "Something to Give" gets added points for interesting lyrics and a strong melodic sense. (SS)
-(Xntrix, dist. by Rough Trade)

RESISTANCE 77 - "Nowhere to Play" EP

This band's name must refer to resistance to the '?? spirit of creativity and original thinking. Actually, that's not entirely fair, because this EP is better than much of this month's English crop. "Nottingham Problem" and "Nuclear Attack" have a bit of raw, foot-tapping spunk. (JB) (Riot City, dist. by Rough Trade)

REALITY - "Blind to the Truth" EP

I can't believe this is a new band, and not some undiscovered reject from 1977 that someone decided to put out now. Actually, the lyrics are politically strong (anti-NATO, etc.), but the music makes the first MEKONS single look real professional. (TY) (Subversive, dist. by Rough Trade)

RABID - "Bloody Road to Glory'

Typical medium-to-slow Britpunk. RABID have a nice raunchy guitar tone, but it doesn't compensate for the generally listless material. "Police Victim" sounds like the DAMMED's "New Rose" at times, and "Glory of War" has some energy, but not enough. Note: label is incorrect. (JB) (Fallout, dist. by Rough Trade)

SECTION A - "Time Stands Still" EP

One more plodding Britpunk record that makes me wonder how I got into punk in the first place. The title song has a passable poppy chorus, but the others are big zeros-no tunes, no intensity, no originality, no nothing. How much more of this shit do we have to hear? (JB) (Subversive--6 Dawnay Ave.--King's Lynn--Norfolk--ENGLAND)

SERIOUS DRINKING - "Love on the Terraces" EP

The A-side sounds too much like IAN DREARY to me, but the three cuts on the flip are great funnypunk, combining Oi with some innovative vocal and guitar interruptions. (TY) (Upright-49-53 Kensington Gardens Sq.--London Wii-ENGLAND)

STRAPS - LP

I've always wondered if these guys were punks. They've put out two singles, both great in their own right, but you couldn't quite classify the music as punk. Now here's their LP, and both the sleeve pictures and the lyrics demonstrate that they are indeed punks. Some of the tracks are good and punked-out; others are ripping garage numbers that sound sort of German. The singer has a very distinctive voice, and the band reminds me of U.K. DECAY or the ABBARTS in that they have a post-punk tinge. All in all, a fine band and a decent LP. (RS) (Cyclops, dist. by Rough Trade

SKEPTIX - "Routine Machine/Curfew"

Totally great, both sides. Truly energetic, exciting thrash with cool guitar punctuation. It's nice to see this kind of attack spreading in England. (TY) (Zenon, dist. by Rough Trade)

HOCKABILLY - "The Dawn of Shockabilly" 12" EP

Also known as EUGENE CHADBOURNE'S CHADBOURNES, SHOCKA BILLY cover 50s and 60s hits. It's like when you sit in the bibli cover jos and cos hits. It's like when you sit in the bathtub and sing "96 Tears" by recall....you sing the organ intro, what you remember of the lyrics, and your own transcendental version of a guitar solo. You follow that with a quick trip through the funhouse and out comes "shockabilly." Same ballpark as PANTHER BURNS, but outfield. (RF) (Rough Trade)

SUBHUMANS - The Day the Country Died LP

After three great singles, the SUBHUMANS have released an album which is equally great. They are part of the RASS family, so if you don't like your opinions strong, too bad. This LP has non-stop power, thanks to the absence of breaks between songs, and it has some great anthems like "Minority" and "Black and White." Their themes are always handled skillfully, the music shifts from thrash to more typical English punk, and the sleeve is a lovely gatefold job which has the lyrics printed inside over a back-drop covered with "think." No question about it, this one's a must. (RS) (Spider Leg, dist. by Parks Trade)

THREATS - "Politicians and Ministers" 12" EP

Standard 80s Britpunk. Some of these songs stand out by virtue of their higher speed and/or catchy choruses (especially the title cut and "Dead End Depression but most lack any distinguishing features. The 12" contains three more tracks than the ?" version, (JB) (Rondelet, dist. by Rough Trade)

TOY DOLLS - "Nellie the Elephant/Dig that Groove, Baby

Another great funnypunk release from the TOY DOLLS. "Nellie" is a disposable novelty song, but "Dig" finds the band in their real groove, baby-fast, guitar-heavy punk-pop with hilarious lyrics. It's almost as neat as "Tommy Kowey's Car," and that's saying alot. (JB) (Volume, dist. by Red Rhino)

VICTIM - "The Teen Age" EP

Northern Ireland's VICTIM return with a bang on this wonderful punky-pop EP. The title song is the best track, with its heavily-reverbed double guitars, BUZZCOCKian vocals, and strong hooks. It's a classic cut that's not matched on the flip, though "Junior Criminals" has its merits. If only the UNDERTONES and RUDI still used this style! (JB) (Illuminated--120 Kings Rd.--Fleet, Hants.--ENGLAND)

VIERATORS - "Baby, Baby/Dragnet"

This must be reunion season or something. The VIRES have This must be reunion season or something. The VIRES have returned to their original form after several years of wanking off. The re-recorded version of "Baby..," one of their early hits, is inferior and thus totally unnecessary. On the other hand, the flip has traces of their classy old songwriting, and suggests that their upcoming album may actually be worth waiting for. (JB)

(Anagram, dist. by Rough Trada) (Anagram, dist. by Rough Trade)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Total Anarchy LP

Well, I didn't know that "total anarchy" was a marketable commodity, but here it is. And the usual slow, tedious punk-by-numbers in the grooves exudes the safe, commercialized form of "anarchy" that punk is increasingly coming to represent -- all stylized form and no real content, all superficial slogans and no real ideas or action. The only cuts with any punch are the two by DEATH SENTENCE (both already released), one by CHACTIC YOUTH ("Don't Take their Shit"), and one by EXTERNAL MENACE ("External Menace"). Otherwise, yeach! Anyone want some cheap coffeetable anarchy? (JB) (Beat the System, dist. by Rough Trade

VIOLATORS - "Summer of '81/Live Fast Die Young"

This single seems more ordinary in comparison with their debut single and their work on the A Country Fit for Heroes compilation LP. In addition, the VIOLATORS' compulsion with violence makes this release disturbing. "Summer of '81" remains the poppier of the tracks here, though some might find favor with the sheer velocity of the flip. Better than most of the Oi currently available. (SS) (No Future, dist. by Rough Trade)

WALL - "Day Tripper" 12" EP

Scene veterans the WALL were always somewhat inconsistent, even as a fledgeling punk band, but this tendency be-came more pronounced as they entered their post-punk phase. Now, they are consistent--consistently bad, if this 12" is representative. Only "When I'm Dancing" has a semblance of a hook; the rest are just ponderous, boring dirges. (JB) (No Future, dist. by Rough Trade)

WORLD WORLD WORLD WORLD WORLD WORLD WORLD WORLD WORLD

B. TRUG - Lieber Schwierig als Schmierig LP

As the band themselves say, "Never mind the SEX PISTOLS, here's B. TRUG," because this is a really superb punk LP with plenty of garagy raunch. Most of their material consists of short blasts of buzzing noise that evoke an oncoming locomotive; the rest has a pronounced rockabilly rhythm and sounds like early demos of the CRAMPS must have once sounded. The abrasive recording definitely captures the raw power that B. TRUC must generate live. My fave new German release. (JB) (Rock-O-Rama--Kaiserstrasse 119--5040 Bruhl--W. GERMANY)

CHAOS Z - Ohne Gnade LP

"Ultra Hardcore" is what it says on the cover, and that's what it mostly is--straight ahead thrash, much like DIS-CHARGE, with little variation. The songs have anti-authoritarian, anti-war, and apocalyptic themes, except for "Stutt-gart über Alles," modelled after the DK's classic. (TY) (Rock-O-Rama)

COTZBROCKEN - Jeden das Seine LP

A mediocre, very primitive punk album. In fact, the poor recording and amateur musicianship are COTZBROCKEN's only real strong suit. Since most of the material plods along and lacks any hooks, good production would only make these guys sound like any run-of-the-mill English band. Aside from the hourse vocals and an occasional song with spunk ("KZ" and "Hey, Punk"), this can't be recommended. (JB) (Rock-O-Rama)

DURSTICE MANN - "Prost!" EP

Eric Hysteric from the VOMIT VISIONS in a new but equally abrasive and frantic group. For further info, read the V. VISIONS review below, but this time the lyrics are in German. (TY)

(Wasted Vinyl--D-6239 Lohnberg--Obertorstrasse 6--W. GER)

KOSMONAUTENTRAUM - "Liebesmühn" EP

If you're lucky enough to find this ?", grab it. First, you get the greatest funk bass line waaaay out front; then the trashy tin can drums come in; then a whiny, aloppy guitar and screaming vocals. If this is what they played in discos, I'd go. Play it often, and play it loud. (RS) (Zickzack, dist. by Rough Trade)

KOHU-63 - Lisää Verta Historiaan LP

This band's second 12" offering sounds like a cross between L.A. thrash circa '81 and DISCHARGE, From the glossy 12-page booklet enclosed, one can surmise that the songs are your basic anti-war, anti-police themes. (TY)
(Poko, dist. by P. Tuotanto--V. Vasko---76780 Lamminsäki---FIN)

Another excellent punk album from Finland. As we've already indicated, IAMA aren't one of the young thrash bands, but an older-style punk group that started in '78-'79. But that doesn't mean that they sound like today's boring Engthat doesn't mean that they sound like today's boring Eng-lish clone groups. They have musical muscle, songs with great dynamics, tightness, and they play pretty damn fast for a bunch of old-timers. Their new thrashed-out version of "Ta-vastia" is a classic, the high point of this LP. Rumors has that they're breaking up. What a shame! (JE) (Johanna, dist. by F. Tuotanto)

NOSTRILS - "Live with the London Symphony Orchestra" cassette

A mixed bag of songs recorded in '81 by this now defunct Canadian outfit. Alot of older-style punk, some with good changes. However, one song, "Malcontents," is as powerful changes. However, one song, and driving as anything going, and makes me sad that they decided to call it quits. (TY)
(Bruce Hallett-469 Gertrude Ave.--Winnepeg--CANADA)

NEOS - "Hasiba Gets the Martian Brainsqueeze" EP

An amazing, original, manic, tight, intelligent (and I could go on and on) release. And I thought their first EP was great. This one puts that one to shame. There may not be too many of these, as they're financing it themselves, so buy as soon as you see it. Oh yeah, it's got fourteen songs. (TY)

(Steve Neo--176 Mortimer St. -- Victoria, B.C V8P 3A8--CAN.)

PUNKENSTEIN - "Oh, du schöne Maid" EP

Mid-tempo German punk in the increasingly tedious Britpunk tradition. Still, PUNKENSTEIN are alot more powerful than most of their cross-channel peers, especially on "No School." Nothing exceptional, but loud and not without humor. (JB) (Konnekschen--Durschnitt 15--2 Hamburg 13--W. GERMANY)

RIOT SQUAD - "Total Onslaught" EF

Radical protest music from the belly of the beast. RIOT SQUAD are South African punks who play slow, catchy '77 stuff, but their real significance lies in their very existence in such a repressive country. Vicious anti-apartheid and antigovernment lyrics are featured on this EP, so let's hope that these brave lads don't end up in jail or dead. Incredibly inspiring. (JB)

(Riot Squad, dist. by Rough Trade)

S.I.B. - The Third World War LP

An Italian band that occasionally sounds like the REAC-TORS or dare I say it a smarter VKTMS. A feisty English-woman belts out some modern rock material - punk, reggae, and post-punk. With such a wide stylistic approach, it's not too surprising that S.I.B. don't really excel at anything. The best songs here are examples of classical punk with real power, like "My Secret Life," "Listless," and "You." A few worthwhile moments, but nothing earth-shattering. (JB) (L.M.--Viale Petrarca 421-48020 Lido Adriano (RA)--TTALY)

STRESS - LP

Again, flat production and mundame material make for an unsatisfying German punk album. This record is positively laid back, the worst possible attribute for a hardcore release. Much of the problem here is no doubt due to the wimpy recording, but the songs themselves don't show much promise, either. There are rare glimpses of potential, but they never develop into anything substantial. (JB) (Rock-O-Rama)

SUDDEN DEATH - "Blood on the Floor" cassette EP

An 8-song effort, sort of metal punk. It reminds me a bit of PERSONALITY CRISIS and BLACK FLAG. They're gonna put out other bands too, like the MANIC DEPRESSORS and LAST GASP.

Good job, lads. (TY)

(Mike Lambert -- 130 Fort St .-- Winnepeg, Manitoba R3C IC7--CAN)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Die Deutschen Kommen LF

Five groups are featured here. FASAGA and COTZEROCKEN have a '77 sound; FIUCH have a CRAMPS feel; O.H.L. are semithrash; and STOSSTRUPP must stand i" tall and record in a matchbox. O.H.L. rule this roost from a musical standpoint. (Rock-O-Rama)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Propaganda LP

O.K., you've been reading in these pages how great Finnish punk is, so order this compilation of almost all of the best bands (save RATTUS, IAMA, KOHU-63, and a few others). That's all the proof you'll need. One band after another comes charging at you and demonstrates why this relatively small and out-of-the-way country is the tops in European thrash. Includes cuts by the BASTARDS, ANTI KEHO, KAAOS, NATO, TERVEET KADET, RIISTETTT, 013, MAHO NEITSYT, APPENDIX, SEKUNDA, and DACHAU. A must. (TY) ($9 to Propaganda--P.O. Box 393--00101 Helsinki 10--FINIAND)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - "Schiavi Nella Citta Piu Libera de Mondo" EP

Four hardcore bands from Bologna share this raw record. .F. FUNK sounds like a cross between CRASS and DISCHARGE; STAIAG 17 are a bit more primitive, with tremendously course vocals; ANNA FALKSS sound more like a typical Britpunk aggregation; BACTERIA make FLIPPER sound wonderfully melodic. A creat EP. (TY) (Diavlery Prod. -- Via Molinelli 19-40100 Bologna -- ITALY)

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Underground Hits 1 LP

One side is all American bands, including BLACK FLAG (their first EP), BAD BRAINS and SACCHARINE TRUST (previously released material), and the ANGRY SAMOANS (one "Poshboy's Cock"). The German side contains four strong hardcore bands, including TOXOPIASMA, RAZZIA, CHAOS Z, and the NEUROTIC ARSENCLES. This is a great idea for linking international punk scenes. Bravel (TY) (Aggressive Rock, dist. by Systematic)

VOMIT VISIONS - "Shove it Up your Ass" EP

Three songs that are as raw and basic as possible. They make G.G. ALLIN seem M.O.R., combining a totally non-commercial sound with equally acidic social satire. They're German but they sing in English. (TY) (Wasted Vinyl)

YOUTH YOUTH YOUTH - "Why Pay More" cassette EP

A really great thrash outfit from the Toronto area. The instrumentation is more than competent, but the lyrics are what really stand out--intelligent, committed, positive, and deliberate. Excellent! (TY)
(3935 Bloor St. West--Islington, Ontario M9B 1L8--CANADA)

A t o

This is an excerpt from a recent interview with FLIPPER.

Here is our response.

SMASHI fanzine, November 1982 Number Two, Page Five

SMASH!: What about the Maximum Rock and Roll people?

WILL: Fucked. They're fuck heads. Some of these people out there are just to make bucks off of you. On Subterrainean we own everything, tapes, the music. We publish the lyrics ourselves.

We'll come to the point quickly. Either you're a dammed liar, or you're an ill-infor-fmed and confused person who can't even bother to check the most basic facts. These are as follows

 We make no money on the shows we promote.
 The house and the bands take the whole and bands.

2) We make no money on our radio show. We are not paid salaries by the station.

3) We make no money on the radio syndication. We sell the shows at cost ($5). and actually lose money sometimes

4) We make no money off the Not So Quiet.. albums. We did all the organization, work, etc., and turned down an offer by the label (Alternative Tentacles) to take a share of the profits.

5) We do make money on our magazine, and every penny we make is publicly repor-ted from time to time. Not a cent goes into our pockets--it all gets put back into the paper to make it a better bar-gain (we've expanded from 48 pages to 64 for the same price), to buy typesetting equipment, to hopefully open a storefront where punks can come in and use our facilities, equipment, and art supplies for whatever purpose. We challenge you to contradict anything we've stated above. Our whole operation is run as a pie. We do the shows at very cheap door stated above. Our whole operation is run as prices, which help the fans, club owners, non-profit set-up. You must be confusing us with Alternative Tentacles, and if that's so, then maybe you should take the needle out of your arm and investigate things before you go around slagging people off. There are areas where we can be taken to task (where we excercise our particular tastes and political prejudices), but the statement that we're "out there to make bucks off of you" is such total bullshit that we had to lower ourselves to your level to respond. Put up or shut up--and then grow up.

Tim Yohannan & Jeff Bale

From Bock'n'Boll P.O. BOX 288 BERKELEY, CA 94701 BULK RATE
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
BERKELEY, CA
PERMIT NO. 1153

